Re: Public Records Request, dated March 1, 2018

Dear Andrew Perez:

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) received your public records request dated March 1, 2018. This requests seeks the release of certain records maintained by this office, specifically:

> 1. Copies of all available emails, documents and email attachments exchanged, from August 1, 2017 and March 1, 2018, between officials at the Nevada Attorney General's Office and individuals affiliated with the following organizations and companies:
> - Judicial Crisis Network ("@judicialnetwork.com");
> - National Rifle Association ("@nrahq.org"; "@nraila.org");
> - Koch Industries ("@kochind.com"; "@kochps.com");
> -U.S. Chamber of Commerce ("@uschamber.com"; "@instituteforlegalreform.com");
> - Federalist Society ("@fed-soc.org"; "leonard.leo@hotmail.com");
> - Altria Client Services ("@altria.com");

- Bruning Law Group ("@bruninglawgroup.com");
- Cozen O'Connor P.C ("@cozen.com");
- Hunton & Williams ("@hunton.com");

The OAG has conducted a review of records in our custody. The responsive records are included with the U.S. Mail copy of this letter.

The responsive records produced by this search are included with this communication. The OAG has identified records that may not be released due to attorney-client privilege.[1] Records protected by attorney-client privilege may also be protected by the attorney work product doctrine[2] and the deliberative process privilege.[3] Additionally, the OAG has identified records that may not be released due to confidentiality restrictions in statute.[4] The OAG will now close this matter.

Sincerely,

State of Nevada
Office of the Attorney General

I had not yet, so thanks!
I'm still working with the Department on getting something on their website for these tradeshows so there is clear guidance on sampling/licensing/displaying/etc. The next show will be January, so I'm pushing for sooner rather than later.

Assume you have seen....

FDA Finalizes Guidance on Prohibiting Free Samples of Tobacco Products

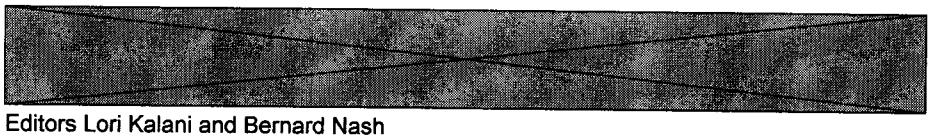

On October 11, the FDA issued the final guidance, The Prohibition of Distributing Free Samples of Tobacco Products. Though not legally binding, this guidance explains, among other things, what and who are subject to the prohibition, as well as how the prohibition applies to the distribution of tobacco products through:

- Non-monetary exchanges
- Membership and rewards programs
- Contests and games of chance
- Business-to-business exchanges

The prohibition on free samples of tobacco products is among the FDA's most important provisions to help reduce youth access to tobacco products. Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers can find more information in the final guidance on how they can comply with the regulation.

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺
Can't wait to see everyone in Washington! (Feel free to pass onto others who may be interested.)

Hi Chris,

Thanks for reaching out. I am going to be presenting a Uniformity update at the upcoming NAAG (National Association of Attorneys General) Tobacco Conference the week of September 11. I would love to provide an update on the brand code table because I think it's something that states could start looking at, even if they weren't able to go full uniformity at this time.

My thought is a call the week of Labor Day at some point (September 5-8). I think I'm the farthest West, and my hours are 730-430 PST, so I can do early mornings. After typing this I realized I'm also not officially in the working group, sooooo… whenever works for you guys!

Dear All,

I was back and forth with Jennifer this morning and thought it would be a good idea to send around a brief email for the working group on brand codes. Jennifer will be circulating the minutes but I wanted to get us on an early email as a group as well.

Next week, I will provide a simplified version of the brand database TMA put together from information submitted by the wholesalers involved in the project. This list will include the brand family and style of all the cigarettes on the list + manufacturer. I recommend that we start from that point to assign codes with the participating manufacturers and then reaching out to the ones not involved to try and align on codes, etc.

I think it would be a good idea as well to have a call in the next few weeks just to see where we're at as the dust settles from this past weekend. Please let me know dates for that call.

Best regards,

Chris

Hi Jeanne and Sissy,

I've been thinking about your subcommittee a lot (and Uniformity in general) since it's constantly changing with KY going live, the forms being done, combining committees, etc. Each year seems to bring something completely different and new to the group. The Compliance subcommittee is actually the one that is of most interest to me so I looked back at the Uniformity Guide to see what it says each subcommittee is supposed to focus on:

Compliance
(Points #5, 7 & 9)

Educate and advise stakeholders by:

- Publicizing case studies and best practices
- Acting as a liaison to law enforcement
- Involving stakeholders at all levels
- Establishing a clearinghouse of effective tools to combat tobacco tax evasion
- Encouraging states to educate staff on accounting and distribution processes

To the extent I can help with anything from brainstorming topics to reaching out to people who might want to present or doing anything with the engagement plan and getting people involved, just let me know. I think Forms and Technology are fairly self-explanatory and Communication and Legislation always have the legislation piece to use, but your subcommittee can cover pretty much everything.

I've really liked everything that you have put together so far and I'm so glad Jeanne has a counterpart so she doesn't have to go through each meeting on her own!

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Dear James,

Thank you for registering to attend the North Eastern States Tax Officials Association 2017 Annual Meeting. We look forward to hosting you next week at the Stoweflake Resort & Spa in Stowe, Vermont. Please review the following information in advance of your arrival to Stowe, to help you prepare for the meeting.

UPDATE: We are very sorry to announce that the hot air balloon rides during the Welcome Reception on Sunday evening have been cancelled. Please still plan to join us from 5:00 - 7:00 PM on the Stoweflake Atrium Lawn as we kick off this year's NESTOA with food, drinks, and a rustic Vermont fire pit with s'mores!

REGISTRATION | Checking in onsite

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Stoweflake Resort (1746 Mountain Road, Stowe, VT 05672).

Please stop by the meeting registration desk onsite to pick up you name badge, the final program, and to learn about any important meeting updates. The registration will be located in the Stoweflake Gallery beginning on Sunday, September 17 at 12:00 PM. It will remain open throughout the meeting. View the schedule at a glance for hours each day. http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa-schedule

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

The current predicted weather for Stowe over meeting dates and travel days is high 83 and low 48 degrees, with a slight chance of showers. Please be sure to pack a light jacket or sweater as both the Sunday Welcome Reception and Tuesday Dinner will have outdoor elements.

The dinner on Tuesday will be at the Topnotch Resort (4000 Mountain Rd, Stowe, VT 05672). Transportation will be provided between Topnotch Resort and Stoweflake Resort on Tuesday evening.

If you are staying overnight at the Stoweflake, please remember to show a Government ID when you check in to obtain the per diem rate.
For additional event information, visit http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa2017.

We'll see you in Stowe!

If you do not want to receive future emails regarding the NESTOA Annual Meeting, go to: Opt-Out.

Attorney General Laxalt Shuts Down Another Sham Website Seeking Donations to Benefit Victims of Las Vegas Shooting

Carson City, NV – Nevada Attorney General Adam Paul Laxalt continues to remove web pages and investigate reports of sham charities purportedly collecting donations on behalf of the victims following the horrific shooting in Las Vegas last week.

After receiving an alert from GoFundMe of a fraudulent donation website claiming to be affiliated with an existing campaign on the fundraising platform, Attorney General Laxalt's Bureau of Consumer Protection successfully worked with the website's host to remove the sham website. Last week, AG Laxalt's office successfully removed a Facebook page after receiving complaints from local consumers.

"It's heartwarming to witness the outpouring of support from Nevadans and individuals across the country," said Laxalt. "Unfortunately, there are also those who would exploit this tragedy for their own financial gain. Prior to donating, I encourage all consumers to carefully check the source of these campaigns."

For those who wish to donate through the fundraising platform GoFundMe, the website has compiled links to vetted campaigns on one web page: https://www.gofundme.com/helplasvegas. When using other fundraising platforms, the Office of the Nevada Attorney General offers the following suggestions to best ensure your donation benefits the victims and families of the Las Vegas shooting:

- Avoid any charity or fundraiser that asks for donations in cash or via wire transfer. Those that are unable to provide detailed information about their mission or organization and how donations will be used are suspect.

- Ask for detailed information about the charity, including name, address and telephone number. Then, conduct some online searches of the charity's name in combination with the words "complaint" or "scam" to learn about its reputation. Using online resources offered by the Better Business Bureau can also provide assurances about the trustworthiness of any particular charity.

- Review the charity's financial information or its Form 990. For information on the Form 990, visit the Nevada Secretary of State website. If a charity claims to use your donations to help the local community, contact the local agency and confirm whether the agency is familiar with the charity and receives financial support from it.

- Do not feel pressured into making an immediate donation by telephone or in person. The need for donations and the opportunity to give will be present for some time, and legitimate charities will not pressure you into making an immediate donation.

- Avoiding making checks payable to individuals. Also, avoid providing credit card, bank account or social security number information over the phone.

- When texting to donate, confirm the number with the source before you donate. The charge will show up on your mobile phone bill, but donations charges are not immediate.

- Be cautious of unsolicited charitable e-mails and attachments. An unsolicited e-mail is likely part of a scam, and any attachments may have a virus designed to steal financial or other personal information from your computer.

- Social media sites can also perpetuate scams. As with any other charity, take time to investigate the people behind any social media campaigns to ensure they represent a legitimate organization. Some sites, such as GoFundMe, take affirmative steps to ensure fundraising campaigns are vetted, donations are verified and complaints can be made to protect donors.

- Be wary of sound-alike names. Many sham charities intentionally use names that are easily confused with legitimate, respected charities.

Nevada consumers can file complaints regarding fraudulent charities with the Nevada Attorney General's office. Consumers may also file complaints with the Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection at the Family Assistance Center located at 3150 Paradise Road, Las Vegas, Nevada, inside the Las Vegas Convention Center. In addition, the FTC provides complaint assistance for anyone who suspects that a scammer is disguising itself as a charity.

Attorney General Laxalt Shuts Down Another Sham Website Seeking Donations to Benefit Victims of Las Vegas Shooting

Carson City, NV – Nevada Attorney General Adam Paul Laxalt continues to remove web pages and investigate reports of sham charities purportedly collecting donations on behalf of the victims following the horrific shooting in Las Vegas last week.

After receiving an alert from GoFundMe of a fraudulent donation website claiming to be affiliated with an existing campaign on the fundraising platform, Attorney General Laxalt's Bureau of Consumer Protection successfully worked with the website's host to remove the sham website. Last week, AG Laxalt's office successfully removed a Facebook page after receiving complaints from local consumers.

"It's heartwarming to witness the outpouring of support from Nevadans and individuals across the country," said Laxalt. "Unfortunately, there are also those who would exploit this tragedy for their own financial gain. Prior to donating, I encourage all consumers to carefully check the source of these campaigns."

For those who wish to donate through the fundraising platform GoFundMe, the website has compiled links to vetted campaigns on one web page: https://www.gofundme.com/helplasvegas. When using other fundraising platforms, the Office of the Nevada Attorney General offers the following suggestions to best ensure your donation benefits the victims and families of the Las Vegas shooting:

- Avoid any charity or fundraiser that asks for donations in cash or via wire transfer. Those that are unable to provide detailed information about their mission or organization and how donations will be used are suspect.
- Ask for detailed information about the charity, including name, address and telephone number. Then, conduct some online searches of the charity's name in combination with the words "complaint" or "scam" to learn about its reputation. Using online resources offered by the Better Business Bureau can also provide assurances about the trustworthiness of any particular charity.

- Review the charity's financial information or its Form 990. For information on the Form 990, visit the Nevada Secretary of State website. If a charity claims to use your donations to help the local community, contact the local agency and confirm whether the agency is familiar with the charity and receives financial support from it.
- Do not feel pressured into making an immediate donation by telephone or in person. The need for donations and the opportunity to give will be present for some time, and legitimate charities will not pressure you into making an immediate donation.
- Avoiding making checks payable to individuals. Also, avoid providing credit card, bank account or social security number information over the phone.
- When texting to donate, confirm the number with the source before you donate. The charge will show up on your mobile phone bill, but donations charges are not immediate.
- Be cautious of unsolicited charitable e-mails and attachments. An unsolicited e-mail is likely part of a scam, and any attachments may have a virus designed to steal financial or other personal information from your computer.
- Social media sites can also perpetuate scams. As with any other charity, take time to investigate the people behind any social media campaigns to ensure they represent a legitimate organization. Some sites, such as GoFundMe, take affirmative steps to ensure fundraising campaigns are vetted, donations are verified and complaints can be made to protect donors.
- Be wary of sound-alike names. Many sham charities intentionally use names that are easily confused with legitimate, respected charities.

Nevada consumers can file complaints regarding fraudulent charities with the Nevada Attorney General's office. Consumers may also file complaints with the Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection at the Family Assistance Center located at 3150 Paradise Road, Las Vegas, Nevada, inside the Las Vegas Convention Center. Dear James,

Thank you for registering to attend the North Eastern States Tax Officials Association 2017 Annual Meeting. We look forward to hosting you next week at the Stoweflake Resort & Spa in Stowe, Vermont. Please review the following information in advance of your arrival to Stowe, to help you prepare for the meeting.

UPDATE: We are very sorry to announce that the hot air balloon rides during the Welcome Reception on Sunday evening have been cancelled. Please still plan to join us from 5:00 - 7:00 PM on the Stoweflake Atrium Lawn as we kick off this year's NESTOA with food, drinks, and a rustic Vermont fire pit with s'mores!

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Stoweflake Resort (1746 Mountain Road, Stowe, VT 05672).

Please stop by the meeting registration desk onsite to pick up you name badge, the final program, and to learn about any important meeting updates. The registration will be located in the Stoweflake Gallery beginning on Sunday, September 17 at 12:00 PM. It will remain open throughout the meeting. View the schedule at a glance for hours each day. http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa-schedule

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

The current predicted weather for Stowe over meeting dates and travel days is high 83 and low 48 degrees, with a slight chance of showers. Please be sure to pack a light jacket or sweater as both the Sunday Welcome Reception and Tuesday Dinner will have outdoor elements.

The dinner on Tuesday will be at the Topnotch Resort (4000 Mountain Rd, Stowe, VT 05672). Transportation will be provided between Topnotch Resort and Stoweflake Resort on Tuesday evening.

If you are staying overnight at the Stoweflake, please remember to show a Government ID when you check in to obtain the per diem rate.
For additional event information, visit http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa2017.

We'll see you in Stowe!

God no!

I don't think it will take the full hour to go through the first steps, perhaps we can start at 12:30 eastern and wrap up in 30 minutes?

Or do you think the first meeting can go on an hour later and I can circle back with you- meaning also since you're not there you'll get all the work assigned.

What do we think?

Hi all,

Our auditor scheduled a review vet close to or call its the only time she can do. I believe it will run over and I cannot miss it as I have a board meeting on Tuesday.

Can we move our call back an hour?

Cigarette Brand Codes
Help Us, Help You

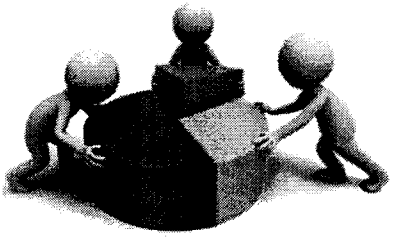

Origin: During the August 2017 Uniformity Meeting, a State and Industry representatives created a small subgroup to develop a directory (maybe we want to pick an official term? Listing/Table/etc? I'd veto directory since states have official "Tobacco Directories") containing brand codes for cigarettes distributed within the U.S. This listing would then be shared with the larger group at the Uniformity Meeting in January 2018 to determine if what is suggested will work for States and Industry members who work in tobacco.

Goal: This diverse team is tasked with creating a directory of brand codes that would be assigned at the UPC level for all cigarettes available for purchase in the United States. This brand code list/table/etc. will contain at least: the manufacturer name, brand family, brand style and UPC information for Case, Carton and Pack. The list will not contain any confidential information. By providing this information via a public facing website, wholesalers and state users alike can download the data for their internal use.

State Benefits: States that do not collect cigarette detail information in the same manner will be able to share data. If both states have incorporated the brand code listing into their processes, when import / export information is shared between states, the data can be cross checked against the reported brand code values. Even if one state is unable to implement the use of UPC's, they are still able to share data effectively.

Wholesaler Benefits: A single brand code table incorporated across many states will allow the wholesalers to program the values a single time, and thereby report receipts and disbursements with improved accuracy to states that have implemented this type of reporting. This will save time, and also allow wholesalers to adapt more quickly as states choose to accept their cigarette data electronically.

What can you do to help? If you are a manufacturer of cigarettes, we need your brand information! Please contact one of the team members below to discuss how to get your brand information added to thislisting/table/etc. . If you are a wholesaler looking for additional information, please contact one of the team members below.

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,

Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.

We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.

Kindly let us know your thoughts.

FDA Finalizes Guidance on Prohibiting Free Samples of Tobacco Products

On October 11, the FDA issued the final guidance, The Prohibition of Distributing Free Samples of Tobacco Products. Though not legally binding, this guidance explains, among other things, what and who are subject to the prohibition, as well as how the prohibition applies to the distribution of tobacco products through:

- Non-monetary exchanges
- Membership and rewards programs
- Contests and games of chance
- Business-to-business exchanges

The prohibition on free samples of tobacco products is among the FDA's most important provisions to help reduce youth access to tobacco products. Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers can find more information in the final guidance on how they can comply with the regulation.

The Prohibition of Distributing Free Samples of Tobacco Products

Guidance for Industry[1]

This guidance represents the current thinking of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA or Agency) on this topic. It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations. To discuss an alternative approach, contact the FDA staff responsible for this guidance as listed on the title page.

I. INTRODUCTION

This guidance is intended to help tobacco product manufacturers, distributors, and retailers understand the prohibition of distributing free samples of tobacco products set forth in Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Part 1140 and to explain what you should do in order to comply with the regulations. The document explains, among other things, what activities and which persons are subject to the regulations, as well as how the prohibition of distributing free samples applies to the distribution of tobacco products through:

* non-monetary exchanges;
* membership and rewards programs;
* contests and games of chance; and
* business-to-business exchanges.

FDA's guidance documents, including this guidance, do not establish legally enforceable responsibilities. Instead, guidances describe the Agency's current thinking on a topic and should be viewed only as recommendations, unless specific regulatory or statutory requirements are cited. The use of the word should in Agency guidances means that something is suggested or recommended, but not required.

[1] This guidance was prepared by the Office of Compliance and Enforcement and Office of Regulations in the Center for Tobacco Products at FDA. This guidance finalizes the draft guidance of the same title, which was made available for public comment as noted in the Federal Register of January 18, 2017 (82 FR 5583).

II. BACKGROUND

The Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act (Tobacco Control Act) (Public Law 111-31; 123 Stat. 1776), enacted on June 22, 2009, amended the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FD&C Act) and provided FDA with the authority to regulate tobacco products. Section 102 of the Tobacco Control Act required FDA to reissue the final regulations regarding cigarettes and smokeless tobacco promulgated by FDA in 1996 (Regulations Restricting the Sale and Distribution of Cigarettes and Smokeless Tobacco to Protect Children and Adolescents (1996 final regulations)),[2] with certain specified exceptions.

In enacting the Tobacco Control Act, Congress made extensive legislative findings regarding the lethal and addictive nature of tobacco products, including that tobacco use is the foremost preventable cause of premature death in the United States. Cigarette smoking causes approximately 480,000 deaths each year.[3] Moreover, advertising, marketing, and promotion of tobacco products have been "especially directed to attract young persons to use tobacco products and these efforts have resulted in increased use of such products by youth."[4] The use of tobacco products is a "pediatric disease," and an effective program to address this disease includes restrictions on youth access and restrictions on labeling and advertising to help reduce the appeal of tobacco products to young people.[5]

Congress recognized that both the 1996 final regulations and the 1995 proposed regulations included extensive discussions of the scientific information available at the time and the final regulations included FDA's responses to more than 700,000 comments on the proposed regulations.[6]

On March 19, 2010, FDA published its final regulations, "Regulations Restricting the Sale and Distribution of Cigarettes and Smokeless Tobacco to Protect Children and Adolescents," at 21 CFR Part 1140. This rule contains a number of provisions restricting the marketing, sale, and distribution of tobacco products aimed at limiting youth access to tobacco products. Among other requirements, the regulations prohibit:

* The distribution of free samples of tobacco products, except for smokeless tobacco distributed in "qualified adult-only facilities" in accordance with the regulations;
* The sale of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco to individuals under 18 years of age; and
* The sale of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco to individuals under 27 years of age without verifying by means of photographic identification that the purchaser is at least 18 years of age.

[5] See sections 2(1), (26), (30)-(32) of the Tobacco Control Act.
[6] See Congressional Record, S6407, June 10, 2009, Statement of Senator Kennedy.

At the time, the regulations applied to cigarettes, including roll-your-own tobacco; cigarette tobacco; and smokeless tobacco products.

On August 8, 2016, the "deeming provisions" of FDA's "Deeming Rule" became effective. See "Deeming Tobacco Products To Be Subject to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as Amended by the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act; Restrictions on the Sale and Distribution of Tobacco Products and Required Warning Statements for Tobacco Products."[7] These provisions expanded FDA's tobacco product authority to include all products meeting the statutory definition of a tobacco product, except for accessories of newly deemed tobacco products. Thus, the ban on distributing free samples applies to all tobacco products that are subject to FDA's tobacco product authority, and the minimum purchase age and the identification verification requirements apply to covered tobacco products. In deeming these additional tobacco products subject to FDA's tobacco product authorities, FDA noted reports that free samples of these products were easily and freely accessible by youth, with reports of e-cigarettes being distributed at venues likely to attract large audiences and at youth oriented events, such as music festivals and motorsports events.[8]

III. DISCUSSION

A. Definitions

Component or part: The term component or part[9] is defined in 21 CFR § 1140.3 and means any software or assembly of materials intended or reasonably expected:

(1) to alter or affect the tobacco product's performance, composition, constituents, or characteristics; or

(2) to be used with or for the human consumption of a tobacco product. Component or part excludes anything that is an accessory[10] of a tobacco product.

Covered tobacco product: The term covered tobacco product is defined in 21 CFR § 1140.3 and means any tobacco product deemed to be subject to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act under 21 CFR § 1100.2, but excludes any component or part that is not made or derived from tobacco.

[7] 81 FR 28974 (May. 10, 2016).

[8] Id. at 28986

[9] FDA notes that component and part are separate and distinct terms within chapter IX of the FD&C Act. However, for purposes of 21 CFR Part 1140 and this guidance, FDA is using the terms component and part interchangeably and without emphasizing the distinction. FDA may clarify the distinctions between component and part in the future.

[10] The term "accessory" means any product that is intended or reasonably expected to be used with or for the human consumption of a tobacco product; does not contain tobacco and is not made or derived from tobacco; and meets either of the following: (1) Is not intended or reasonably expected to affect or alter the performance, composition, constituents, or characteristics of a tobacco product; or (2) Is intended or reasonably expected to affect or maintain the performance, composition, constituents, or characteristics of a tobacco product but (i) Solely controls moisture and/or temperature of a stored product; or (ii) Solely provides an external heat source to initiate but not maintain combustion of a tobacco product.

Distributor: The term distributor is defined in 21 CFR § 1140.3 and means any person who furthers the distribution of a tobacco product, whether domestic or imported, at any point from the original place of manufacture to the person who sells or distributes the product to individuals for personal consumption. Common carriers are not considered distributors for the purposes of this 21 CFR Part 1140.

Finished tobacco product: The term finished tobacco product means a tobacco product, including all components and parts, sealed in final packaging intended for consumer use (e.g., filters or filter tubes sold separately to consumers or as part of kits).

Manufacturer: The term tobacco product manufacturer is defined in 21 CFR § 1140.3 and means any person, including any repacker and/or relabeler, who manufactures, fabricates, assembles, processes, or labels a finished tobacco product.

Retailer: The term retailer is defined in 21 CFR §1140.3 and means any person who sells tobacco products to individuals for personal consumption, or who operates a facility where vending machines or self-service displays are permitted under 21 CFR Part 1140.

Tobacco product: The term tobacco product is defined in section 201(rr) of the FD&C Act, which states in relevant part:

> (1) The term "tobacco product" means any product made or derived from tobacco that is intended for human consumption, including any component, part, or accessory of a tobacco product (except for raw materials other than tobacco used in manufacturing a component, part, or accessory of a tobacco product).
> (2) The term "tobacco product" does not mean an article that is a drug under section 201(g)(1) of the FD&C Act, a device under section 201(h) of the FD&C Act, or a combination product described in section 503(g) of the FD&C Act.

Note that this definition includes accessories and components and parts of tobacco products that are subject to Chapter IX of the FD&C Act, whether they are made or derived from tobacco and whether they are sold or distributed as finished tobacco products.[11]

B. The Free Sample Ban

The free sample ban is codified at 21 CFR § 1140.16(d)(1), which states, "Except as provided in [21 CFR § 1140.16(d)(2)], no manufacturer, distributor, or retailer may distribute or cause to be distributed any free samples of cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, or other tobacco products (as such term is defined in section 201 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act)."

[11] However, accessories of newly deemed products are not subject to the deeming rule. Thus, although such accessories meet the definition of tobacco product, they are not currently subject to regulation under Chapter IX of the FD&C Act.

The exception described in 21 CFR § 1140.16(d)(2) allows for the distribution of free samples of smokeless tobacco products in "qualified adult only facilities," i.e., facilities that meet a number of specific requirements, such as verifying that all customers are at least 18 years of age. The focus of this guidance is free samples that are not distributed in a "qualified adult only facility."

C. Tobacco Products Subject to the Free Sample Ban

The free sample ban prohibits the distribution of free samples of "cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, or other tobacco products (as such term is defined in section 201 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act)."[12] This means that the free sample ban automatically applies to all tobacco products subject to FDA's tobacco product authority, including components and parts of tobacco products, except smokeless tobacco product samples distributed in "qualified adult only facilities" in accordance with 21 CFR § 1140.16(d)(2).

Unlike other restrictions that the Deeming Rule expanded to include only "covered tobacco products" (i.e., deemed tobacco products made or derived from tobacco)[13] or provisions that FDA intends at this time to enforce only against "finished tobacco products,"[14] the free sample ban applies to all tobacco products that are subject to FDA's tobacco product authority, even if they are not made or derived from tobacco. This means that the free sample ban prohibits manufacturers, distributors, and retailers from giving out free samples of any tobacco product that is subject to FDA's tobacco product authorities, including components and parts of tobacco products, such as atomizers, clearomisers, and e-liquids. This is an important restriction because components and parts of some tobacco products, such as the aerosolizing apparatus of e-cigarettes, can be the most expensive part of a tobacco product. If minors can obtain the most expensive components or parts of tobacco products as free "samples," they face less significant barriers to using tobacco products.

D. Tobacco Products Must Be Sold to Consumers

As discussed in the 1996 final regulations preamble and reiterated in the preamble to the Deeming Rule, the distribution of free samples presents a "risk free and cost free" source of tobacco products for youth[15] and frequently occurs in situations that limit the free sample distributor's ability to request proof of age.[16] By prohibiting the distribution of free samples of tobacco products, FDA (and later Congress, by directing FDA to reinstate this portion of the 1996 rule) eliminated this source of tobacco products for youth by requiring tobacco products to be distributed only through product sales[17] that, through other parts of the rule reinstated in 2010, are subject to minimum purchase age and photographic identification verification requirements.[18] The free sample ban and these requirements work together to advance the government's interest in reducing youth access to tobacco products. This means that manufacturers, distributors, and retailers may distribute tobacco products to consumers only through a tobacco product sales transaction.

E. Monetary Payment is Required for Tobacco Product Sales

In a 2012 decision that upheld the free sample ban against a First Amendment challenge, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals observed that creating opportunities for youth "to actually try a tobacco product, at no cost, may serve as the best advertisement of all for a product that is physiologically addictive, and socially attractive to youth." Discount Tobacco City & Lottery, Inc. v. United States, 674 F.3d 509, 541 (6th Cir. 2012), cert. denied, 569 U.S. ___, 133 S. Ct. 1966 (2013).[19] By implementing the free sample ban for the primary purpose of eliminating an "easily accessible source of these products to young people,"[20] the FDA regulations require that consumers face a monetary cost in order to receive a tobacco product. This means that retailers must charge consumers money for tobacco products and may not, for example, distribute tobacco products in exchange for providing contact information or signing up for a mailing list. While contact information may have value to manufacturers, distributors, or retailers, providing this information comes at no financial cost to the consumer and could be a "risk free and cost free" source of tobacco products for youth. Therefore, distributing a tobacco product in exchange for something non-monetary, such as a consumer's contact information, is a prohibited free sample.

While the free sample ban does require that manufacturers, distributors, and retailers distribute tobacco products to consumers only through tobacco product sales transactions and only in exchange for money, there are situations in which the sale of tobacco products to consumers at less than full price does not violate the ban. It is important to note, however, that other applicable laws, such as state and local laws, may restrict the price at which tobacco products may be sold and whether coupons may be redeemed.

The following examples describe FDA's current thinking on how the free samples ban generally applies; however, FDA intends to consider the specific facts of potential violations on a case-by-case basis to determine whether they present a potential "risk free and cost free" source of tobacco products for youth.

1. Coupons and Discounts

The free sample ban does not prohibit manufacturers, distributors, and retailers from selling tobacco products at a discount or accepting coupons that allow consumers to purchase tobacco products at a discount.[21] Promotions such as selling tobacco products at 10% off of the regular price or accepting coupons that take dollars or cents off of the purchase price of a tobacco product are not prohibited. Promotions such as "buy one get one free at the time of purchase" or "two for the price of one" are also examples of non-prohibited discounts because they represent a 50% discount off of the sales price of two tobacco products and the "free" tobacco product is received as part of a tobacco product sales transaction.

[19] The United States District Court for the District of Columbia also upheld the free sample ban against a First Amendment challenge, and relied in part on Sixth Circuit's analysis. See Nicopure Labs, LLC v. FDA, 2017 WL 3130312, at *44–*47 (D.D.C. July 21, 2017).

Promotions that offer consumers a free tobacco product in a separate transaction that is not a tobacco product sales transaction are prohibited where they would allow consumers to obtain a free tobacco product sample and also evade the minimum age and ID requirements. For example, while "buy one pack of cigarettes and get another pack free at the time of purchase" and "two for the price of one" promotions are not banned, a "buy one pack of cigarettes and get a coupon redeemable for a free pack of cigarettes" promotion would be prohibited unless the manufacturer, distributor, or retailer has devised a way to adequately verify that the person redeeming the coupon is the original purchaser, because that coupon would let a consumer, including a minor who was not the original purchaser, obtain a tobacco product outside of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment and is subject to minimum age and ID requirements.

2. Membership and Rewards Programs

Membership and rewards programs that provide discounts to tobacco product purchasers are also not prohibited by the free sample ban as long as they do not result in distribution of tobacco products outside of a tobacco product sales transaction subject to minimum age and ID requirements. Rewards programs that offer a tobacco product as a "reward," such as punch card programs (i.e., get a hole punched in the card for each purchase and receive a tobacco product when all the holes have been punched), are prohibited except where the "reward" is distributed as part of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment. For example, if a retailer offered a rewards program in which consumers receive every tenth vial of e-liquid for free, the retailer would not be prohibited from distributing the "free" e-liquid as part of a tobacco product sales transaction (e.g., with the ninth e-liquid purchase or with the eleventh e-liquid purchase), but it could not distribute a free vial of e-liquid to consumers outside of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment, unless the manufacturer, distributor, or retailer has devised a way to adequately verify that the person receiving the reward is the original purchaser. Distributing a "free" tenth vial of e-liquid with either the ninth or eleventh purchase would not violate the free sample ban because it would effectively amount to a discount that is part of a sales transaction requiring monetary payment, not a free sample.

Similarly, membership programs are not prohibited by the free sample ban as long as they do not result in distribution of tobacco products outside of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment and is subject to minimum age and ID requirements. The ban would not prohibit a retailer from offering a discount on tobacco product purchases to program members, but it would prohibit the distribution of free tobacco products to members outside of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment. For example, the ban would not prohibit the sale of membership to a club that provides a 10% discount on all tobacco product purchases, but a retailer could not sell membership to a club that provides free samples of tobacco products outside of tobacco product sales transactions that require payment of money and are subject to minimum age and ID requirements. Again, in determining whether a violation has occurred, FDA would consider whether the manufacturer, distributor, or retailer has devised a way to adequately verify that the person receiving the reward is the member or original purchaser.

3. Contests and Games of Chance

Contests and games of chance are generally not prohibited under the free sample ban; however, similar to other promotions, the contest prize may not be a tobacco product unless it is distributed as part of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment and is subject to minimum age and ID requirements. For example, the ban does not prohibit a retailer from allowing customers to enter into a drawing or raffle and give a prize of a tobacco product discount or a coupon redeemable for a "free" tobacco product at the time of another tobacco product purchase, but the retailer could not distribute a free tobacco product as a prize outside of a tobacco product sales transaction that requires monetary payment and is subject to minimum age and ID requirements.

While contests and games of chance that do not result in the distribution of free samples of tobacco products are not prohibited by the free sample ban, manufacturers, distributors, and retailers seeking to have a contest or game of chance with a tobacco product as a prize should be aware that a variety of state and Federal laws restrict how these promotions may be held.

F. Business-to-Business Exchanges

FDA does not consider this regulation to apply to businesses distributing free samples in a limited quantity (i.e., no more than necessary to achieve a business or market goal, such as awareness of and exposure to the product for the purposes of product or inventory selection) to another business as part of a genuine effort to sell or market a tobacco product to that business.

Hi,
So here is the link for the relevant statutes:
https://www.leg.state.nv.us/NRS/NRS-370.html
We only generally use two Chapters- 370 and 370A (370A is just for manufacturers- escrow, MSA, etc.).
Let me know what you think because, as I mentioned, if there is a different way Washington's statutes are worded that includes a more clear definition of new styles being certified via supplemental, I'll take a look at what theirs says.

Confidential

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.

So we're due for a meeting/call next week to discuss where we left off from last time.
I've created a doodle for picking a meeting time, but so far only Jenn, Kara and I have responded (because we're clearly the best).
Chris, Tim, and Kenia- whenever you have a chance, if you could please respond, that would be great.
Here's the link again- I narrowed it down to 10 options for next week:

God no!
I don't think it will take the full hour to go through the first steps, perhaps we can start at 12:30 eastern and wrap up in 30 minutes?

Or do you think the first meeting can go on an hour later and I can circle back with you- meaning also since you're not there you'll get all the work assigned.
What do we think?

Hi all,
Our auditor scheduled a review vet close to or call its the only time she can do. I believe it will run over and I cannot miss it as I have a board meeting on Tuesday.
Can we move our call back an hour?

RE: Notice of Anthem's Settlement of 2015 Cyber Attack.

Dear Michele:

We are sending this information to let Attorney General Laxalt that our client, Anthem, has reached a settlement to completely resolve the multidistrict class action litigation relating to a 2015 cyberattack against the company. Attached is a media statement that explains the agreement in more detail, including the benefits provided to individuals whose data was or may have been involved in the cyberattack and who will now be members of the settlement class. We thought you might find this information of interest. We understand your Department of Insurance is also being contacted separately on this matter. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

BRUNING LAW GROUP, LLC

MEDIA STATEMENT/ANTHEMFACTS.COM POST
Anthem Settlement Mailing
September 20, 2017

Anthem has reached a settlement to completely resolve the multidistrict class action litigation relating to the 2015 cyber attack against the company. The settlement, which was preliminarily approved by the court on August 25, 2017, does not include any finding of wrongdoing, and Anthem is not admitting any wrongdoing or that any individuals were harmed as a result of the cyber attack. Nevertheless, we are pleased to be putting this litigation behind us, and to be providing additional substantial benefits to individuals whose data was or may have been involved in the cyber attack and who will now be members of the settlement class.

When Anthem discovered the cyber attack in 2015, the company offered two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services to all individuals whose data may have been impacted. As part of this final resolution of the litigation, class members can receive an additional two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services, along with other significant benefits.

Anthem has agreed to pay a total of $115 million to resolve the litigation. Those funds will pay for the additional two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services, and will also benefit class members in several other ways. In particular, while there is no evidence that any data impacted by the cyber attack has ever been sold or used to commit fraud, Anthem has agreed that $15 million of the fund will be allocated to pay actual out-of-pocket costs, up to a set amount, that class members claim they incurred due to the cyber attack. Class members who already have credit services can submit a claim to receive alternative cash compensation instead of receiving the credit services provided by the settlement. The costs of sending notice to class members, administering claims, and the class members' attorneys' fees are also included in this total amount.

Anthem has had, for many years, a strong information security program to protect the personal data entrusted to us. As we have seen in cyber attacks against governments and private sector companies including Anthem over the past few years, many cyber threat actors are increasingly sophisticated and determined adversaries. Anthem is determined to do its part to prevent future attacks. To that end, as part of the settlement, Anthem has agreed to continue the significant information security practice changes that we undertook in the wake of the cyber attack, and we have agreed to implement additional protections over the next three years.

A third-party settlement administrator will manage the settlement, which will be overseen by the court in this litigation. The settlement administrator, Kurtzman Carson Consultants (also known as KCC), will be the best resource for questions pertaining to the settlement, including how to register for the credit monitoring and identity protection services offered or how to submit claims for out-of-pocket costs or alternative compensation. The settlement administrator set up a website, www.DataBreach-Settlement.com, as well as a customer service line at 1-855-636-6136 regarding this settlement. We have updated www.AnthemFacts.com with a link to that website and phone number.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

PENNSYLVANIA FOOD MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICER AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Camp Hill, Pennsylvania - The Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association (PFMA), a statewide trade association advocating for the retail food industry, is pleased to announce a new officer and six new members to its board of directors.

Lou Mola, Loss Prevention manager for Wawa, Inc. will take on the role of PFMA vice chairman from Rich Wood of Wawa, who has resigned his positon on the board of directors. Mola currently chairs PFMA's Loss Prevention (LP) Committee as well as LP committees for the Delaware Food Industry Council and the New Jersey Food Council. During his tenure, he was instrumental in getting legislation passed to combat Organized Retail Crime, and worked with the industry, law enforcement and government leaders to enact legislation creating the first dedicated retail crimes prosecutor in the United States. Prior to joining Wawa in 2013, he served as the Investigations Team Leader for Target Corporation and led a 44-person team focused on organized crime.

"PFMA is excited to have Lou Mola take on this leadership role as PFMA Vice Chairman," said Alex Baloga, PFMA president and CEO. "He is an effective leader for our Loss Prevention Committee and I know he will bring the same energy to our board of directors. Our thanks to Rich Wood for his leadership and service to the PFMA board for the past six years."

PFMA also appointed six new board members due to the retirement of Rich McMenamin, McMenamin Family ShopRites; and the departure of Lisa Silberman, A.J. Silberman & Company; and Gary McGuirk, Jr., Liberty USA, who sold their companies to Eby-Brown.

The new board members are:

- Patrick Burns, owner, Burns Neighborhood Markets, Philadelphia;
- Brent Cotten, senior director, Global Customer and Industry Affairs,
- The Hershey Company, Hershey, Pa.;
- Gary Gloeckl, vice president of sales, A.J. Silberman, a division of Eby-Brown,
- Indianola, Pa;
- Scott Kolat, senior vice president of sales and business development,
- Eby-Brown, Naperville, Ill.;
- James Pulsifer, senior manager, State Relations and Regulatory Compliance,
- Altria Group Distribution Company, Richmond, Va.; and
- Robert Sincavich, president of Team Sledd, Bridgeport, Ohio.

"Our sincere thanks to Rich McMenamin, Lisa Silberman and Gary McGuirk for their ideas, friendship and support through the years," Baloga said. "We wish them all the best."

The Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association, a statewide trade association, advocates the views of nearly 800 convenience stores, supermarkets, independent grocers, wholesalers and consumer product vendors. PFMA members operate more than 3,200 stores and employ more than 150,000 Pennsylvanians. For more information on PFMA, visit www.pfma.org.

Ideas on question for state panelists
What system do you use currently?
Assuming they have made the transition to uniformity, what was the first step in the process for you?
Why did you decide to go uniform?
What are some of the benefits of uniformity? Or what is the biggest benefit of uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Considering that 48 other states are not uniform, what advice would give them about your process?
If all states were uniform, what would that world look like in your opinion?
Ideas on question for industry panelists
Pick a state. What is the typical manhours produced to execute monthly workload? Or, walk us through a typical day in the life of a person responsible for state level reporting?
What would a uniform system mean to you? What would it mean to the industry?
What is your relationship with state personnel you do business with today? If there is one thing that could/should change, what would it be?
What is the biggest benefit for uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Call me when you get a chance.

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- How did you obtain funding?
- Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Assume you have seen....

FDA Finalizes Guidance on Prohibiting Free Samples of Tobacco Products

On October 11, the FDA issued the final guidance, The Prohibition of Distributing Free Samples of Tobacco Products. Though not legally binding, this guidance explains, among other things, what and who are subject to the prohibition, as well as how the prohibition applies to the distribution of tobacco products through:

- Non-monetary exchanges
- Membership and rewards programs
- Contests and games of chance
- Business-to-business exchanges

The prohibition on free samples of tobacco products is among the FDA's most important provisions to help reduce youth access to tobacco products. Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers can find more information in the final guidance on how they can comply with the regulation.

Subject: State of Nevada - Notice of Directory Changes Importance: High

Good Afternoon,
Please read the attached notice regarding changes made to the Nevada Tobacco Directory. Please be advised, this notice is effective 11/1/2017. The updated Tobacco Directory along with this Notice of Directory Changes have been posted to the Department of Taxation website at the link below:
https://tax.nv.gov/Forms/Cigarette_and_Other_Tobacco_Products_Tax_Forms/
Every wholesale dealer must provide a copy of the attached Notice of Directory Changes to each retail dealer that is their customer within 7 business days from the date of this notice, November 10, 2017. Additionally, each wholesale dealer must provide the Department with a list identifying the business name of each retail dealer notified, the physical address of each notified retail dealer, what date they received a copy of the notice and how they received the notice within 7 business days from the date of this notice.
If you do not sell to retailers, currently don't have any retail dealer customers or only sell to other licensed wholesale dealers in Nevada, an email notifying the Department of that fact will be sufficient to satisfy your legal obligations when a change to the Tobacco Directory occurs.
If no response is received by the Department within the 7 business days provided, the wholesale dealer will be found in non-compliance and this may result in the imposition of civil penalties. An unacceptable response entails not providing all of the required information specified in the memo.
If have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me. Below are the changes which have been made:

I should have added that we should also discuss the content of what the defense wants from the questionnaire.

Brian,
Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases.
In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.
We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Paul Auger Inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame

Described by many as an icon in the industry, Paul Auger was inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame on Tuesday at the CDA Awards Luncheon.

In his video montage, Kimberly Bolin, CDA's president & CEO, said, "Paul has certainly earned his way into the CDA Hall of Fame."

Introduced by Jode Bunce, executive vice president, cigarettes, for Eby-Brown of Naperville, IL, and Rick Gummer, chairman of Gummer Wholesale in Heath, OH, Auger was described as a strategic thinker and invaluable industry liaison who knows the industry well.

"Paul is a leader, a mentor and a great father, husband and friend," said Bunce. "A lot of people in this industry have learned a great deal from Paul, including myself."

"Character, faith and family are synonymous when I think about Paul," said Gummer. "Paul is a special friend to the Gummer family, and there is more than business that makes him worthy as a Hall of Famer."

To the right, Paul Auger celebrates his induction into the CDA Hall of Fame with his family.

Auger accepted the award with gratitude and appreciation as he captivated the audience with stories of his life in the business. "I want to thank everyone for this award, which is the highest I've achieved aside from my children," he said.

Munson and Mayer Recognized at Awards Luncheon

CDA president and CEO Kimberly Bolin presided over Tuesday's annual Awards Luncheon, and in her opening statement noted that, despite the many challenges, there also have been great successes since the association was established in 1932.

"And while the challenges look far different today than anyone could have imagined back in the 30s, it is a great testament to this industry that we still stand together shoulder to shoulder forging ahead," she said.

Following Bolin, current CDA chair Kevin Barney recognized and honored his predecessor Susie Douglas Munson, presenting her with a flag that had flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of her leadership and in recognition of the importance of advocacy and involvement in the industry and as an individual.

"Thanks to her steadfast dedication and leadership, CDA is positioned well to carry out the mission of its membership," said Barney. "I've heard Susie say that this industry is in her blood and her heart, and that is certainly evident in everything that she has done and continues to do for CDA."

Munson thanked everyone, saying how much she enjoyed her tenure as CDA Chair, and was honored for an opportunity to serve. "I still have a long career ahead of me," she said. "The best part is all of you, and I thank you for your support."

The illustrious career in the distribution industry of John Mayer, McLane Co., Inc., was recognized by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co.'s Dave Riser, who recapped Mayer's career, saying, "John's legacy is one of creating a strong foundation for McLane and the industry. He is emphatically driven to do the right thing for customers, for McLane and for the category. The effects of John's drive and love for this business will be felt for years to come." John is retiring in June and we wish him all the best in this exciting new chapter.

The luncheon was sponsored by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co. and ended with a decadent three-layer cheesecake square dessert created especially for the occasion collaboratively by The Hershey Co. with the Hilton Orlando's pastry chef.

Attendees Hit the Greens and the Water at CDM's Networking Events

CDA Golf Tournament

Held on Monday, the Marketplace Golf Tournament, sponsored by Altria Group Distribution Co., was held at the newly-redesigned Shingle Creek Golf Course at Rosen Shingle Creek. Golfers teed up to extra-long par 4s and par 5s surrounded by enchanting flora and wildlife, while facing hazards, twists and bends on this challenging course.

"You have four people in your group that you spend a few hours with, so you have plenty of time to network, but you also get to know people on a personal level, and tying the two in is what makes the industry great," said Ted Stessman, Farner-Bocken Co., a Division of Core-Mark International.

First Place - Team 2: CDA's Shannon Campagna with the winning team: CDA Chair Kevin Barney, Atlantic Dominion Distributing; and Blake Benefiel and Krister Hampton, Altria Group Distribution Co.

Second Place - Team 18: Ryan Owen, Farner-Bocken Co., A Division of Core-Mark International; Sherwin Herring, Southco Distributing Co.; and Joe Naro and Brent Cotten, The Hershey Co.

Individual Winners

Closest to Pin:
John Garver, Southco Distributing Co.

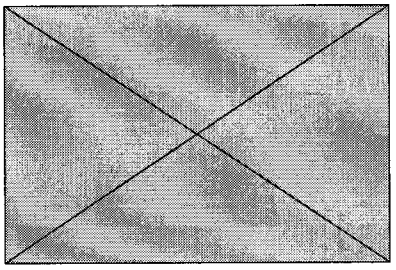

Longest Drive:
Tyler Duame, WizKid Products

Congratulations to all!

Third Place - Team 1: Chad Owen, Chambers & Owen; Jode Bunce, Eby-Brown Co.; Paul Auger; and Mike Auger, RAI Trade Marketing Services Co.

Alligator and Airboat Adventure

In this outing, sponsored by BIC Consumer Products, USA, Marketplace attendees enjoyed a breathtaking 30-minute expedition down the St. Johns River into the Central Florida Everglades to explore the freshwater habitat of the Florida alligator. An eco-guide provided insight during the boat ride through this pristine, natural habitat, home to both resident and migratory birds, white-tailed deer, bobcat, fox squirrel, alligators, cows and otters.

Following the boat ride, attendees were led into a remote pioneer fish camp to enjoy soft drinks and tasty cooked-to-order gator tail.

"We got close and personal with the alligators, we could've pet them, it was a great time!" Steve Simpson, C&B Distributors, Lowell, NC.

A Day of Insightful Education Sessions

This year's Marketplace offered a full day of distributor-focused education for attendees hitting all aspects of a wholesaler's operation, from foodservice, to management and strategic planning, to candy and snack merchandising.

"I thought all of the seminars were very good, and what's nice about them is that you have a lot to choose from," explained Kaye Powell, S. Abraham & Sons, Inc., Grand Rapids, MI. "We brought a lot of people from our company, so we were able to divide and conquer and take a lot of valuable information back home."

Merchandising Candy & Snacks for Max Profit

Panelists for the CDA Joint Industry Warehouse-Delivered Snack Committee's (WDSC) session were Zeno Corrigan, Core-Mark International, New England Division, Gardiner, ME; Kenneth Batterton, GSC Enterprises, Sulphur Springs, TX; and Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Panelists presented ways for distributors to implement effective merchandising programs, including the committee's multi-vendor endcap (MVE) program to drive sales of warehouse-delivered snacks and confections and increase profit for both distributors and their customers.

Corrigan talked about how to incorporate MVEs. High impulse is important, consumers want everything at the front register. It's all about brands and partnering with vendors.

"We have to take categories and have all the items close to the front checkout," he said. "We need to take the best brands across the whole segment and have everything within arm's length."

The key takeaway was that distributors don't have to go it alone. Many resources are available on CDA's website and WDSC members are ready and willing to help.

A recording of this session will soon be available on CDA's website.

Trends & Insights in the Nicotine Delivery Category

Don Burke, senior vice president of Management Science Associates, discussed recent trends in the nicotine delivery category, highlighting current influences impacting sales.

His presentation included a review of general tobacco trends in the wholesale channel and a discussion of successful strategies employed by distributors whose goal is to grow their tobacco business. The performance of cigarette, cigar, OTP and vapor categories was covered in the convenience trade compared to the dollar and drug store channels.

"The tobacco industry is important to the convenience channel and the convenience channel is important to the tobacco industry," said Burke. "Many segments of this category are continuing to grow."

C-Store Foodservice: Trends and Opportunities

Current and developing foodservice trends and issues in the c-store channel were presented by Wade Hanson, principal of Technomic, a Chicago-based leading research and consulting firm to the foodservice industry.

He focused on a number of topics, including operator dynamics, performance and needs to help the session's attendees develop an understanding of consumers' rapidly-changing expectations of foodservice, including c-stores. Perspectives also were shared that were relevant for both experienced retailers and those just entering the category.

In the last two to three years, Hanson said we've seen more changes in the foodservice industry than in the 10 years prior. Much change is being driven by consumers, and we are well past the days when they put c-store foodservice in a box.

"They need support from their distributor partners," said Hanson. "It's more about messaging and marketing these offerings."

Evidence-Based Approaches to Identifying & Correcting Causes of Driver Turnover

Stay Metrics' Mary Malone, MS, JD, spoke about identifying the cause and solving truck driver shortages. With 75 percent of the workforce eventually being made up of Millennials, how can the industry create jobs these workers are looking for?

"Workforce development centers and high school athletic coaches and counselors are good resources when looking for truck drivers," said Malone.

The top predictors of turnover are the company's communication, recruiter professionalism and fair pay/compensation. Within 45 days, drivers make up their minds about a company after being hired. In terms of driver retention, it's important to keep the lines of communication open, have a plan and follow through.

"Surveys are a good method to gauge employees' satisfaction, and it's important to get feedback and be prepared to do something with the results," she said.

CDA Women's Leadership Program: Gender Dynamics for Business Success

Presented by the Altria Women in Sales Network, in this session, Stephen Sanger and Charlotte Savage from Altria Group Distribution Co. talked about preparing leaders to leverage "Gender Dynamics for Business Success". At the core, this work is aimed at enabling organizations to genuinely understand and leverage the inherent gender differences that exist in the workplace today.

The session explored the science and data behind gender dynamics and the implications to team effectiveness, problem solving and operating productivity.

Sanger discussed how gender bias is still present, with 49 percent of women seeing it versus 28 percent of men. He said it's time to start the discussion, appreciate the differences and build an inclusive culture.

He then detailed the differences between men and women's brains.

"Women take in and process more points of data and make more conclusions than men," said Sanger. "Women also use more words in a day as well as vocal sounds, hand gestures and body signals."

While women communicate to create relationships, interaction and exchange feelings, men do it to obtain information, establish status and show independence.

Savage discussed Leadership behaviors between men and women, citing a study by Catalyst Research that revealed survey respondents believe men are better at networking and influencing upward, while women are better at problem solving.

"Diversity and inclusion is a journey that's far from over," she said.

University of Innovative Distribution Program Sessions

Through CDA's sponsorship of the University of Innovative Distribution (UID) supported by Purdue University, CDA hosted a UID-in-a-Day program featuring executive leadership and sales sessions delivered by esteemed UID faculty members. Attendees will receive a Certificate of Completion and credit that may be applied toward a Professional Certificate of Innovative Distribution.

The full UID program will take place March 11-14 in Indianapolis. For more information, visit the UID page on CDA's website.

The UID-in-a-Day programs at Marketplace included:

How to Differentiate Your Distribution Company: A Winning Strategy

Dr. William McCleave, trainer and president of W.R. McCleave & Associates, discussed how distributors and their suppliers wrestle with a constantly changing world of big challenges and promising opportunities.

"Distributors need to think about what they intend to do, since prioritizing initiatives is critical," said McCleave. "What you know is important, but what you do with it is more important."

He noted that, as customers seek better supply alternatives and competitors increase their efforts, differentiation becomes essential for survival.

"Companies need to look at who they're selling to, their customer's relationship with the company and their market status," said McCleave. "Knowing the customer's hot buttons as well as how to make or save them money is key."

According to McCleave, great distribution firms in the future will focus on customer and market arenas where they can provide world class performance and unique value.

Managing in Turbulent Times

Today's distribution industry can be a race to the bottom on price with new non-traditional competitors like broad line box movers and Amazon. In this session, Mike Marks, co-founder, Indian River Consulting Group, Indialantic, FL, talked about how managers must make decisions with limited resources in highly uncertain and changing environments.

"Competitive advantage is not real, unless you gain a significant cost advantage over your competitors or a significant price premium from you customers, either resulting in higher profits," said Marks.

While cost advantages come from operating scale, role specialization and performance management processes, price advantages come from scale with suppliers, mass customization and leveraging competitive intensity.

"You need time to work on your business as well as in your business," said Marks.

The Power of Focus: Strategic Planning for Distributors

This session, which was also presented by Marks, showed attendees how to develop and execute a successful strategy using tools specifically designed for distributors.

Key elements of strategy, including market assessment and positioning, strategic prioritization, addressing critical constraints, management rhythms, and metrics were explored as well as the right and wrong ways to approach strategic planning. Marks also provided examples of world-class distributor strategies.

"It's important to do what you do best and buy the rest," he said. "You must sell to users the way they want to buy, as this is changing rapidly."

Action steps include spending time and money developing a strong sense of the external environment and especially the customer's own initiatives.

"Start with your trade association, as they are all trying to create a pathway to the future," said Marks.

Tuesday Night Reception Caps a Busy Day of Learning

Tuesday night's industry reception, hosted by Altria Group Distribution Co., provided distributors and manufacturers/suppliers the opportunity to socialize and discuss the many topics presented at the concurrent sessions throughout the day as well as plan for Wednesday's trade show.

"Marketplace is really great for the networking, talking with other distributors, the vendors and software providers," said Chris Dempsey, Myers-Cox Co. It's a place where we can get ideas on how to improve our business."

Attendees were welcomed to the reception by CDA Chair Kevin Barney, who thanked Altria for sponsoring the evening and announced the winners of the golf tournament.

Barney also announced the raffle winner, Dan McIntyre, president of Jackson Wholesale Co., Jackson, KY, who won a Scotty Cameron putter.

Active Day on Marketplace the Floor

The Marketplace floor started bright and early Wednesday with breakfast on the floor, sponsored by Mars Wrigley Confectionery US, and buzzed with activity throughout the day as distributors made the rounds among exhibitors. The CDA Lounge was particularly popular with a barista and a smoothie bar, and exhibitors enjoyed the Swisher International-sponsored lunch.

"The show was very well attended and it had exactly the people I needed to see," said Carter Adair, Stephenson Wholesale Co., Durant, OK. "You're missing out if you don't come. There are vendors here that are key to our businesses."

"It's been a very busy show and there's been a lot of traffic at our booth," said Steve Shipe, Liggett Vector Brands. "This is a first-class event, and all of our trading partners are here. It's been very productive for us."

"Coming to Marketplace is well worth it--to see the items, get the experience, network and get some ideas from other people," said Carroll Hull, The Geo. J. Falter Co., Inc., Baltimore, MD.

Duet Claims Grand Prize

Winning Wednesday's Grand Prize drawing was Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Thanks to Galactic Performance Solutions, all CDA member distributors attending the show were eligible to win an all-expense paid trip to Whistler in British Columbia, Canada.

Duet will experience a four-day trip for two to the famed Fairmont Chateau Whistler.

Congratulations, Kim!

Okay here's what the next steps are, as well as a link to pick the next meeting time. If I missed anything or it's misstated, feel free to correct me!

- ∀ Jenn will work on an information sheet that can be used to describe the BCT and what the group is doing (of course she's already circulated it!)
  - o Once this is finalized, it can be used to send out to manufacturers (see next bullet)
- ∀ Chris will circulate a manufacturer's list to see who TMA has contacts for; the group will review and determine if they can add anyone
- ∀ Jenn and Kara will be looking to see if there are any coding restrictions
- ∀ Kenia and Co. will look at the PMUSA products to determine if there are things missing- please let her know if you can assist with this
- ∀ Tim will contact Dawn Evans from McLane Co. to see if she will to join the committee
- ∀ Hillary will send out a Doodle where people can pick what time works for the next meeting- you have 19 options so there should be something that works:

Enough for you to not cancel – not me. I prefer peach cobbler or apple crisp by a fire pit.

Good call. If you hadn't cancelled already that would have been the tipping point.
However:
UPDATE: We are very sorry to announce that the hot air balloon rides during the Welcome Reception on Sunday evening have been cancelled. Please still plan to join us from 5:00 - 7:00 PM on the Stoweflake Atrium Lawn as we kick off this year's NESTOA with food, drinks, and a rustic Vermont fire pit with s'mores!

Dear James,

Thank you for registering to attend the North Eastern States Tax Officials Association 2017 Annual Meeting. We look forward to hosting you next week at the Stoweflake Resort & Spa in Stowe, Vermont. Please review the following information in advance of your arrival to Stowe, to help you prepare for the meeting.

UPDATE: We are very sorry to announce that the hot air balloon rides during the Welcome Reception on Sunday evening have been cancelled. Please still plan to join us from 5:00 - 7:00 PM on the Stoweflake Atrium Lawn as we kick off this year's NESTOA with food, drinks, and a rustic Vermont fire pit with s'mores!

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Stoweflake Resort (1746 Mountain Road, Stowe, VT 05672).

Please stop by the meeting registration desk onsite to pick up you name badge, the final program, and to learn about any important meeting updates. The registration will be located in the Stoweflake Gallery beginning on Sunday, September 17 at 12:00 PM. It will remain open throughout the meeting. View the schedule at a glance for hours each day. http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa-schedule

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

The current predicted weather for Stowe over meeting dates and travel days is high 83 and low 48 degrees, with a slight chance of showers. Please be sure to pack a light jacket or sweater as both the Sunday Welcome Reception and Tuesday Dinner will have outdoor elements.

The dinner on Tuesday will be at the Topnotch Resort (4000 Mountain Rd, Stowe, VT 05672). Transportation will be provided between Topnotch Resort and Stoweflake Resort on Tuesday evening.

If you are staying overnight at the Stoweflake, please remember to show a Government ID when you check in to obtain the per diem rate.
For additional event information, visit http://tax.vermont.gov/nestoa2017.

We'll see you in Stowe!

State Association Executive Summit

Attendance was up for this year's State Association Executive Summit, where executives from around the country assembled in Washington, D.C. to meet with counterparts to network, exchange information and learn both of challenges and strategies to deal with issues that confront them all as an industry. Enjoy this short video recap of the Summit.

A PRODUC

"This is an exceptional group of individuals!" said Kimberly Bolin, CDA's president & CEO. Our industry is fortunate to have state association executives from coast to coast that work so well together and are willing to share their stories and throw out ideas to support one another. CDA members benefit immensely from the lines of communication being open at the state and national level.

Bolin noted, "there are many ways that this group can work together to protect and promote wholesale distributors in the convenience channel. Several initiatives were identified with goals ranging from distributor input for uniform tobacco tax reporting to activating on local, state and federal issues."

Held at the historic Hay-Adams Hotel October 4-5, the event took place over a twenty-four hour period with executives arriving Wednesday and getting right to work. The substantial schedule provided the group with a wide variety of subject matter from Washington insights to legalization of marijuana to industry issues that directly impact members.

"I would strongly recommend attending the State Association Executive Summit," commented Alex Baloga, Pennsylvania Food Merchants Assn. "It's an important event for anyone concerned with future issues that might impact their members' businesses and the industry as a whole."

"The Summit is an outstanding event which allows those of us involved in the legislative/regulatory process a time to network with those who do what we do," said Greg Martin, Southern Assn. of Wholesale Distributors. "The updates from the major tobacco companies, as well as the other speakers on the program, are extremely informative and help me to do my job better."

"I think this meeting is incredibly valuable. It's an opportunity for executives to share ideas, find out what's going on across the country and to talk about effective ways we can address issues that are important to the industry," said David Tatman, Louisiana Association of Wholesalers. "It's great to be in D.C. with other people that do what you do, and it's just something that I wouldn't miss."

The recognition of the importance of this group and support by supplier partners AGDC and RAITMS is phenomenal. They provide a very unique and beneficial platform for this group to assemble.

Quick Takes

FTA Tobacco Tax Uniformity

The Federation of Tax Administrator (FTA) has developed a uniform tobacco tax reporting initiative that promotes a more streamlined process for documenting tobacco tax and other information and submitting it to the states.

Tim Harris, tobacco tax manager, Eby-Brown Co., and co-chair of the FTA's tobacco uniformity committee, outlined the many benefits of tobacco tax uniformity during CDA's recent State Executive Summit. He pointed out the importance of interaction and relationships between industry and government for the improvement of compliance. Harris encouraged executives to be involved in the uniformity effort and to communicate with appropriate state officials. For more information on FTA tobacco tax uniformity, visit the FTA website.

Also, visit CDA's website for a series of video tutorials of the FTA's uniform reporting initiative along with the specific technology and forms the agency is promoting nationwide.

DOJ Corrective Statements

Stemming from a 1999 lawsuit the federal government brought against major domestic cigarette manufacturers, the companies must publish five corrective statements related to cigarette smoking across several communication channels, including newspaper and television ads, on the companies' websites and on cigarette packs for a year or more.

Trump Pitches Tax Plan to Truckers in Deep Red Pennsylvania

On Wednesday, Pres. Trump travelled to Pennsylvania to pitch the nation's truckers on the benefits of his tax plan. There has been some concern that the President's continuing spat with retiring Sen. Bob Corker would hinder his ability to get tax reform through the Senate. We are a long way from a bill, but the President continues to make his case for his plan to lower rates and will also tout the provision that gives companies a one-time opportunity to bring back, or "repatriate" income from overseas without penalty.

Four Generations, One Workforce: Valuing Generational Differences in a Family Business

Generational labels have created a generalized description of an entire population – some of it based on facts, yet much based on over-simplifications. Regardless of definition, today the U.S. workforce is composed of four major generations, each with members who were influenced by the events and technology in which they were born. This article from the Family Business Consulting Group (FBCG) explores how these multiple generations in the workforce can affect a family business.

Hillary – Are these recent changes in Nevada regarding cigarette returns from distributors?

Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

   - The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
   - Place where they were destroyed
   - That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
   - List who destroyed them

The Marketplace floor started bright and early Wednesday with breakfast on the floor, sponsored by Mars Wrigley Confectionery US, and buzzed with activity throughout the day as distributors made the rounds among exhibitors. The CDA Lounge was particularly popular with a barista and a smoothie bar, and exhibitors enjoyed the Swisher International-sponsored lunch.

"The show was very well attended and it had exactly the people I needed to see," said Carter Adair, Stephenson Wholesale Co., Durant, OK. "You're missing out if you don't come. There are vendors here that are key to our businesses."

"It's been a very busy show and there's been a lot of traffic at our booth," said Steve Shipe, Liggett Vector Brands. "This is a first-class event, and all of our trading partners are here. It's been very productive for us."

"Coming to Marketplace is well worth it--to see the items, get the experience, network and get some ideas from other people," said Carroll Hull, The Geo. J. Falter Co., Inc., Baltimore, MD.

Duet Claims Grand Prize

Winning Wednesday's Grand Prize drawing was Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Thanks to Galactic Performance Solutions, all CDA member distributors attending the show were eligible to win an all-expense paid trip to Whistler in British Columbia, Canada.

Duet will experience a four-day trip for two to the famed Fairmont Chateau Whistler.

Congratulations, Kim!

make or save them money is key."

According to McCleave, great distribution firms in the future will focus on customer and market arenas where they can provide world class performance and unique value.

Managing in Turbulent Times

Today's distribution industry can be a race to the bottom on price with new non-traditional competitors like broad line box movers and Amazon. In this session, Mike Marks, co-founder, Indian River Consulting Group, Indialantic, FL, talked about how managers must make decisions with limited resources in highly uncertain and changing environments.

"Competitive advantage is not real, unless you gain a significant cost advantage over your competitors or a significant price premium from you customers, either resulting in higher profits," said Marks.

While cost advantages come from operating scale, role specialization and performance management processes, price advantages come from scale with suppliers, mass customization and leveraging competitive intensity.

"You need time to work on your business as well as in your business," said Marks.

The Power of Focus: Strategic Planning for Distributors

This session, which was also presented by Marks, showed attendees how to develop and execute a successful strategy using tools specifically designed for distributors.

Key elements of strategy, including market assessment and positioning, strategic prioritization, addressing critical constraints, management rhythms, and metrics were explored as well as the right and wrong ways to approach strategic planning. Marks also provided examples of world-class distributor strategies.

"It's important to do what you do best and buy the rest," he said. "You must sell to users the way they want to buy, as this is changing rapidly."

Action steps include spending time and money developing a strong sense of the external environment and especially the customer's own initiatives.

"Start with your trade association, as they are all trying to create a pathway to the future," said Marks.

Tuesday night's industry reception, hosted by Altria Group Distribution Co., provided distributors and manufacturers/suppliers the opportunity to socialize and discuss the many topics presented at the concurrent sessions throughout the day as well as plan for Wednesday's trade show.

"Marketplace is really great for the networking, talking with other distributors, the vendors and software providers," said Chris Dempsey, Myers-Cox Co. It's a place where we can get ideas on how to improve our business."

Attendees were welcomed to the reception by CDA Chair Kevin Barney, who thanked Altria for sponsoring the evening and announced the winners of the golf tournament.

Barney also announced the raffle winner, Dan McIntyre, president of Jackson Wholesale Co., Jackson, KY, who won a Scotty Cameron putter.

follow through.

"Surveys are a good method to gauge employees' satisfaction, and it's important to get feedback and be prepared to do something with the results," she said.

CDA Women's Leadership Program: Gender Dynamics for Business Success

Presented by the Altria Women in Sales Network, in this session, Stephen Sanger and Charlotte Savage from Altria Group Distribution Co. talked about preparing leaders to leverage "Gender Dynamics for Business Success". At the core, this work is aimed at enabling organizations to genuinely understand and leverage the inherent gender differences that exist in the workplace today.

The session explored the science and data behind gender dynamics and the implications to team effectiveness, problem solving and operating productivity.

Sanger discussed how gender bias is still present, with 49 percent of women seeing it versus 28 percent of men. He said it's time to start the discussion, appreciate the differences and build an inclusive culture.

He then detailed the differences between men and women's brains.

"Women take in and process more points of data and make more conclusions than men," said Sanger. "Women also use more words in a day as well as vocal sounds, hand gestures and body signals."

While women communicate to create relationships, interaction and exchange feelings, men do it to obtain information, establish status and show independence.

Savage discussed Leadership behaviors between men and women, citing a study by Catalyst Research that revealed survey respondents believe men are better at networking and influencing upward, while women are better at problem solving.

"Diversity and inclusion is a journey that's far from over," she said.

University of Innovative Distribution Program Sessions

Through CDA's sponsorship of the University of Innovative Distribution (UID) supported by Purdue University, CDA hosted a UID-in-a-Day program featuring executive leadership and sales sessions delivered by esteemed UID faculty members. Attendees will receive a Certificate of Completion and credit that may be applied toward a Professional Certificate of Innovative Distribution.

The full UID program will take place March 11-14 in Indianapolis. For more information, visit the UID page on CDA's website.

The UID-in-a-Day programs at Marketplace included:

How to Differentiate Your Distribution Company: A Winning Strategy

Dr. William McCleave, trainer and president of W.R. McCleave & Associates, discussed how distributors and their suppliers wrestle with a constantly changing world of big challenges and promising opportunities.

"Distributors need to think about what they intend to do, since prioritizing initiatives is critical," said McCleave. "What you know is important, but what you do with it is more important."

He noted that, as customers seek better supply alternatives and competitors increase their efforts, differentiation becomes essential for survival.

"Companies need to look at who they're selling to, their customer's relationship with the company and their market status," said McCleave. "Knowing the customer's hot buttons as well as how to

were Zeno Corrigan, Core-Mark International, New England Division, Gardiner, ME; Kenneth Batterton, GSC Enterprises, Sulphur Springs, TX; and Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Panelists presented ways for distributors to implement effective merchandising programs, including the committee's multi-vendor endcap (MVE) program to drive sales of warehouse-delivered snacks and confections and increase profit for both distributors and their customers.

Corrigan talked about how to incorporate MVEs. High impulse is important, consumers want everything at the front register. It's all about brands and partnering with vendors.

"We have to take categories and have all the items close to the front checkout," he said. "We need to take the best brands across the whole segment and have everything within arm's length."

The key takeaway was that distributors don't have to go it alone. Many resources are available on CDA's website and WDSC members are ready and willing to help.

A recording of this session will soon be available on CDA's website.

Trends & Insights in the Nicotine Delivery Category

Don Burke, senior vice president of Management Science Associates, discussed recent trends in the nicotine delivery category, highlighting current influences impacting sales.

His presentation included a review of general tobacco trends in the wholesale channel and a discussion of successful strategies employed by distributors whose goal is to grow their tobacco business. The performance of cigarette, cigar, OTP and vapor categories was covered in the convenience trade compared to the dollar and drug store channels.

"The tobacco industry is important to the convenience channel and the convenience channel is important to the tobacco industry," said Burke. "Many segments of this category are continuing to grow."

C-Store Foodservice: Trends and Opportunities

Current and developing foodservice trends and issues in the c-store channel were presented by Wade Hanson, principal of Technomic, a Chicago-based leading research and consulting firm to the foodservice industry.

He focused on a number of topics, including operator dynamics, performance and needs to help the session's attendees develop an understanding of consumers' rapidly-changing expectations of foodservice, including c-stores. Perspectives also were shared that were relevant for both experienced retailers and those just entering the category.

In the last two to three years, Hanson said we've seen more changes in the foodservice industry than in the 10 years prior. Much change is being driven by consumers, and we are well past the days when they put c-store foodservice in a box.

"They need support from their distributor partners," said Hanson. "It's more about messaging and marketing these offerings."

Evidence-Based Approaches to Identifying & Correcting Causes of Driver Turnover

Stay Metrics' Mary Malone, MS, JD, spoke about identifying the cause and solving truck driver shortages. With 75 percent of the workforce eventually being made up of Millennials, how can the industry create jobs these workers are looking for?

"Workforce development centers and high school athletic coaches and counselors are good resources when looking for truck drivers," said Malone.

The top predictors of turnover are the company's communication, recruiter professionalism and fair pay/compensation. Within 45 days, drivers make up their minds about a company after being hired. In terms of driver retention, it's important to keep the lines of communication open, have a plan and

In this outing, sponsored by BIC Consumer Products, USA, Marketplace attendees enjoyed a breathtaking 30-minute expedition down the St. Johns River into the Central Florida Everglades to explore the freshwater habitat of the Florida alligator. An eco-guide provided insight during the boat ride through this pristine, natural habitat, home to both resident and migratory birds, white-tailed deer, bobcat, fox squirrel, alligators, cows and otters.

Following the boat ride, attendees were led into a remote pioneer fish camp to enjoy soft drinks and tasty cooked-to-order gator tail.

"We got close and personal with the alligators, we could've pet them, it was a great time!" Steve Simpson, C&B Distributors, Lowell, NC.

A Day of Insightful Education Sessions

This year's Marketplace offered a full day of distributor-focused education for attendees hitting all aspects of a wholesaler's operation, from foodservice, to management and strategic planning, to candy and snack merchandising.

"I thought all of the seminars were very good, and what's nice about them is that you have a lot to choose from," explained Kaye Powell, S. Abraham & Sons, Inc., Grand Rapids, MI. "We brought a lot of people from our company, so we were able to divide and conquer and take a lot of valuable information back home."

CDA president and CEO Kimberly Bolin presided over Tuesday's annual Awards Luncheon, and in her opening statement noted that, despite the many challenges, there also have been great successes since the association was established in 1932.

"And while the challenges look far different today than anyone could have imagined back in the 30s, it is a great testament to this industry that we still stand together shoulder to shoulder forging ahead," she said.

Following Bolin, current CDA chair Kevin Barney recognized and honored his predecessor Susie Douglas Munson, presenting her with a flag that had flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of her leadership and in recognition of the importance of advocacy and involvement in the industry and as an individual.

"Thanks to her steadfast dedication and leadership, CDA is positioned well to carry out the mission of its membership," said Barney. "I've heard Susie say that this industry is in her blood and her heart, and that is certainly evident in everything that she has done and continues to do for CDA."

Munson thanked everyone, saying how much she enjoyed her tenure as CDA Chair, and was honored for an opportunity to serve. "I still have a long career ahead of me," she said. "The best part is all of you, and I thank you for your support."

The illustrious career in the distribution industry of John Mayer, McLane Co., Inc., was recognized by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co.'s Dave Riser, who recapped Mayer's career, saying, "John's legacy is one of creating a strong foundation for McLane and the industry. He is emphatically driven to do the right thing for customers, for McLane and for the category. The effects of John's drive and love for this business will be felt for years to come." John is retiring in June and we wish him all the best in this exciting new chapter.

The luncheon was sponsored by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co. and ended with a decadent three-layer cheesecake square dessert created especially for the occasion collaboratively by The Hershey Co. with the Hilton Orlando's pastry chef.

Attendees Hit the Greens and the Water at CDM's Networking Events

CDA Golf Tournament

Held on Monday, the Marketplace Golf Tournament, sponsored by Altria Group Distribution Co., was held at the newly-redesigned Shingle Creek Golf Course at Rosen Shingle Creek. Golfers teed up to extra-long par 4s and par 5s surrounded by enchanting flora and wildlife, while facing hazards, twists and bends on this challenging course.

"You have four people in your group that you spend a few hours with, so you have plenty of time to network, but you also get to know people on a personal level, and tying the two in is what makes the industry great," said Ted Stessman, Farner-Bocken Co., a Division of Core-Mark International.

Paul Auger Inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame

Described by many as an icon in the industry, Paul Auger was inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame on Tuesday at the CDA Awards Luncheon.

In his video montage, Kimberly Bolin, CDA's president & CEO, said, "Paul has certainly earned his way into the CDA Hall of Fame."

Introduced by Jode Bunce, executive vice president, cigarettes, for Eby-Brown of Naperville, IL, and Rick Gummer, chairman of Gummer Wholesale in Heath, OH, Auger was described as a strategic thinker and invaluable industry liaison who knows the industry well.

"Paul is a leader, a mentor and a great father, husband and friend," said Bunce. "A lot of people in this industry have learned a great deal from Paul, including myself."

Hi Chris,

Thanks for reaching out. I am going to be presenting a Uniformity update at the upcoming NAAG (National Association of Attorneys General) Tobacco Conference the week of September 11. I would love to provide an update on the brand code table because I think it's something that states could start looking at, even if they weren't able to go full uniformity at this time.

My thought is a call the week of Labor Day at some point (September 5-8). I think I'm the farthest West, and my hours are 730-430 PST, so I can do early mornings. After typing this I realized I'm also not officially in the working group, sooooo... whenever works for you guys!

Great to finally meet you!

Dear All,

I was back and forth with Jennifer this morning and thought it would be a good idea to send around a brief email for the working group on brand codes. Jennifer will be circulating the minutes but I wanted to get us on an early email as a group as well.

Next week, I will provide a simplified version of the brand database TMA put together from information submitted by the wholesalers involved in the project. This list will include the brand family and style of all the cigarettes on the list + manufacturer. I recommend that we start from that point to assign codes with the participating manufacturers and then reaching out to the ones not involved to try and align on codes, etc.

I think it would be a good idea as well to have a call in the next few weeks just to see where we're at as the dust settles from this past weekend. Please let me know dates for that call.

Best regards,

Chris

Dear Business Owner or Manager,

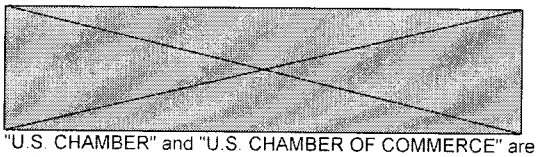

We recently reached out to you about helping with a short survey. The US Chamber is partnering with the Federal Reserve on a Small Business Credit Survey for both pre-start and existing businesses, and we'd like you to participate. Your answers will help business service providers and lenders understand real-time business conditions. This short survey takes less than 9 minutes to complete. Individual responses are confidential and summary results will be shared with you.

The deadline for the survey is December 8. We hope you will take the survey today!

Subject: DRAFT- Brand Code Table

Hi All,

Please feel free to add/delete/modify anything in the email below.

Hi Cindy,

Tim and I wanted to reach out to you on behalf of the Brand Code Table subcommittee that has been meeting since Spokane. After numerous emails and phone calls, we would like to discuss the option of having FTA post the Table on the tobacco portion of their website.

As you know, we have reached out to a couple different private sector companies regarding their ability to host the table and it does not appear that having an outside, private entity will be the best move for this project. The Table will need to be regularly maintained and worked on in perpetuity, and this will happen through a subcommittee of the Uniformity Committee. This also eliminates any complaints that there is a conflict of interest in an entity hosting the Table when they also have a pay portion of their website that Industry members may not be part of.

Overall, this seems to be a better fit for FTA to post on their website. We envision keeping the same small subcommittee that has been working on this since Spokane, and potentially recruiting additional volunteers. The Table is similar to the TTIBS document in that the subcommittee will perform all work related to the document, including reaching out to manufacturers and updating the Table every 3-6 months, depending on workload and what seems to work for Industry (I know you reached out to States for TTIBS, but the subcommittee would reach out to manufacturers directly). FTA would only be responsible for posting the Table, like they do the TTIBS document, with a similar disclaimer that FTA is not responsible for the content of the document and interested parties should contact their individual state with any questions. The Table is only meant to be a recommendation of something to use and is not required for any State or Industry member, regardless of their participation in Uniformity. Finally, we are only discussing posting the cigarette Brand Code Table at this point as it is easier to create and maintain.

If you would like to have a call on this before January, Tim and I can make ourselves available to discuss. The subcommittee has run through a lot of different options and keeps coming back to the FTA website as the one that makes the most sense.

Thanks!

Hello Holly

Can you give me a phone call to discuss. Per our agreement with Nevada's Ag office, distributors will have 7 days - following the November 1 notice - to notify their retail customers of the delisting of Naturals, and, thereafter, retailers will have 60 days to sell through their on-hand inventories, effectively allowing for retail sale through year-end. We can discuss communicating this information to retail customers when we speak. Look forward to talking with you.

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,
-SGS

Steve;

I have had a chance to consider the contingencies you requested in terms of moving the disclosure deadline for experts. I additionally have had an opportunity to discuss with pltfs counsel the same. Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

Hi all,

Our auditor scheduled a review vet close to or call its the only time she can do. I believe it will run over and I cannot miss it as I have a board meeting on Tuesday.

Can we move our call back an hour?

God no!
I don't think it will take the full hour to go through the first steps, perhaps we can start at 12:30 eastern and wrap up in 30 minutes?
Or do you think the first meeting can go on an hour later and I can circle back with you- meaning also since you're not there you'll get all the work assigned.
What do we think?

Hi All,
So we're due for a meeting/call next week to discuss where we left off from last time.
I've created a doodle for picking a meeting time, but so far only Jenn, Kara and I have responded (because we're clearly the best).
Chris, Tim, and Kenia- whenever you have a chance, if you could please respond, that would be great.
Here's the link again- I narrowed it down to 10 options for next week:

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

I've been awaiting this exact email from you. I can't provide you an answer right now, but I hope to be able to next week after I talk with the Tax Department. Tomorrow is Nevada Day so all state offices are closed.
I'll ask you a different question. If a wholesaler wants to return product, would you as a manufacturer always require that the product be sent back or would you allow the wholesaler to destroy it on site? This could be for damaged, stale, recalled, etc. product.

Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale

Nevada was an important addition to these United States. We were made a state during the Civil War shortly before the presidential election. Hence our nickname of the "Battle Born" state.

Confidential

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.
Jim

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.
Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Confidential

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.
Jim

Hi Jim,
I talked to Kelli a little bit about the fact that PM USA has an OTP wholesale license (see below).
The license is free and never expires, but if this is something that you don't believe you need, just let me know and I'll work with the Department.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.

This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,

I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

TOUR GUIDELINES

According to the company's GMP Personnel Practices, effective 12/01/11, the following practices for all personnel including visitors in processing and packaging areas will be implemented.

- Personal items such as pens, pencils, papers, ID badges, etc. shall be kept at or below the waist. Safety PPE and eyeglasses (prescription or reading) are exempted.
- Jewelry (earrings, visible or exposed piercings, bracelets, necklaces, rings with stone or settings, etc.) shall not be worn in any production area. Exempted are plain wedding bands (no settings) and wristwatches, and approved medical alert bracelets or necklaces (medical alert necklaces must be tucked into shirt neckline).
- Consumption of food, drink, candy or the use of tobacco products is prohibited in manufacturing areas and is permitted only in designated areas such as break rooms, offices and control rooms.

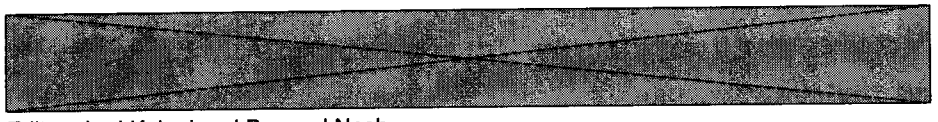

Close toed comfortable shoes should be worn when touring. No open toed shoes, sandals or high heels will be allowed.

No photography allowed on manufacturing floor.

If you do not want to receive future emails from Cindy Anders-Robb, go to: Opt-Out.

Dear All,

I was back and forth with Jennifer this morning and thought it would be a good idea to send around a brief email for the working group on brand codes. Jennifer will be circulating the minutes but I wanted to get us on an early email as a group as well.

Next week, I will provide a simplified version of the brand database TMA put together from information submitted by the wholesalers involved in the project. This list will include the brand family and style of all the cigarettes on the list + manufacturer. I recommend that we start from that point to assign codes with the participating manufacturers and then reaching out to the ones not involved to try and align on codes, etc.

I think it would be a good idea as well to have a call in the next few weeks just to see where we're at as the dust settles from this past weekend. Please let me know dates for that call.

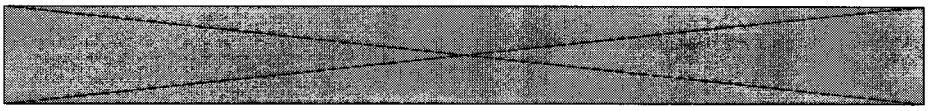

Best regards,

Chris

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺ Can't wait to see everyone in Washington! (Feel free to pass onto others who may be interested.)

7-Eleven Franchisees to Boycott Annual Trade Show

November 9, 2017

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. -- The presidents of all 43 7-Eleven franchise owners associations, which represent the interests of nearly 7,000 franchised U.S. convenience-store locations, have voted unanimously not to attend 7-Eleven's annual convention and trade show in 2018.

Subject: DRAFT- Brand Code Table

Hi All,

Please feel free to add/delete/modify anything in the email below.

Hi Cindy,

Tim and I wanted to reach out to you on behalf of the Brand Code Table subcommittee that has been meeting since Spokane. After numerous emails and phone calls, we would like to discuss the option of having FTA post the Table on the tobacco portion of their website.

As you know, we have reached out to a couple different private sector companies regarding their ability to host the table and it does not appear that having an outside, private entity will be the best move for this project. The Table will need to be regularly maintained and worked on in perpetuity, and this will happen through a subcommittee of the Uniformity Committee. This also eliminates any complaints that there is a conflict of interest in an entity hosting the Table when they also have a pay portion of their website that Industry members may not be part of.

Overall, this seems to be a better fit for FTA to post on their website. We envision keeping the same small subcommittee that has been working on this since Spokane, and potentially recruiting additional volunteers. The Table is similar to the TTIBS document in that the subcommittee will perform all work related to the document, including reaching out to manufacturers and updating the Table every 3-6 months, depending on workload and what seems to work for Industry (I know you reached out to States for TTIBS, but the subcommittee would reach out to manufacturers directly). FTA would only be responsible for posting the Table, like they do the TTIBS document, with a similar disclaimer that FTA is not responsible for the content of the document and interested parties should contact their individual state with any questions. The Table is only meant to be a recommendation of something to use and is not required for any State or Industry member, regardless of their participation in Uniformity. Finally, we are only discussing posting the cigarette Brand Code Table at this point as it is easier to create and maintain.

If you would like to have a call on this before January, Tim and I can make ourselves available to discuss. The subcommittee has run through a lot of different options and keeps coming back to the FTA website as the one that makes the most sense.

Thanks!

NEWS AG ELECTION TRACKER AG GUIDE CONTRIBUTORS STATE AG PRACTICE

Dear Colleagues and Friends:

Cozen O'Connor's State Attorneys General (AG) practice is delighted to give you early access to our new State AG Election Tracker website that will officially roll out to wider audiences later this month. 2018 has the potential for significant policy changes, with 31 State AG elections, including 10 confirmed open seat races.

We developed the State AG Election Tracker to help our clients and others stay updated on the fast-moving State AG political landscape, and we hope the State AG Election Tracker will become your go-to resource for State AG election news, insights, polls, and predictions, as well as primary and election night real-time updates. We invite you to take a sneak peek by watching this short preview video. Click here or in the video to view.

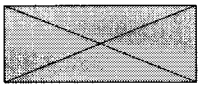

Sincerely,
Bernard Nash and Lori Kalani

Just want clarity and input from our perspective / manufacturer. Clearly have some concerns on the process outlined below. We don't want retailers to sell aged product – our product that comes back as stale from retail is a lot older than 1 year. Additionally, this provides zero incentive for retailers to return product that is no longer listed on a directory or if it's older product, (older meaning - beyond the 1 year limit outlined below - our product has a shelf life over 1 year).

I would like to give you a straight answer, but I'm sure you've been in touch with at least one wholesaler (or Nat Sherman has) on this issue and understand there's some discrepancies in what the statute says versus what has been done by the Department.

Matt and Bill,
The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.
I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Bryan

Brian,
Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases. In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.
We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Hi Kenia,
We received your PACT Act reports, but we just need the Certification Statement to allow us to use the PACT Act report data to comply with our new state reporting requirements. Alternatively, you can file the PACT Act report and a separate state report with the same information, but likely the Certification Statement will be easier to attach. It looks similar to the PACT Act first page, but has different language on the bottom. I attached it again for your review.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matt and Bill,
We discussed continuing Gene's deposition at a date and time that makes sense, which we have no objection to doing. For example, at Gene's depo, and indeed on the record, the only discussion was that continuing the deposition would have to work with Gene's calendar and that Mr. Jeanney possibly wanted to finish his deposition on Thursday, which we could not do, and so provided Mr. Carmichael on that day.
As pertains our discussion after Mr. Carmichael's deposition, I expressly stated that discovery pertaining to NDF would be contingent on Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay and on NDF seeking emergency relief with the NVSC. We never agreed to hold Gene's deposition during the week of February 12th, nor could have I agreed to hold it during that time period because I did not know Gene's schedule during Carmichael's deposition. You certainly indicated your desire to continue Gene's deposition, possibly in February or March, but absent a notice we have no way of knowing what deposition you are actually going to schedule. For example, you also indicated your intention to subpoena Mr. Freedland for deposition during the week of February 12, but we have not been served with that notice.
We have two more months of discovery left, absent a stay. NDF remains willing to work towards an amicable resolution to scheduling his deposition but not at the expense of its motion and its right to seek appellate relief under NRAP 8(c).
NDF has accommodated every request for an extension made by the Real Parties in Interest in this case without question, whether before the NVSC or the District Court. It strikes NDF as a very reasonable request to not schedule depositions whilst we are seeking stay relief from the District Court and the NVSC, as there is more than enough time to get depositions done after the stay issue is resolved. Also, it is quite possible that Judge Freeman may not rule from the bench, but may take the matter under submission on Thursday, which means that we may still not know whether NDF's motion before the District Court is granted or denied.
I am sorry, but the notices do come as quite a surprise. You cannot expect NDF to waive its rights to notice under Rule 30(b)(1). Even in federal court where "reasonable notice" is the standard, and not 15 days' notice, every federal court would hold that one calendar weeks' notice is insufficient.
Best regards,
-SGS

Steve,
As you are aware the parties agreed to the current discovery schedule reserving these specific time periods so that our trial date could be preserved. While I understand that if Judge Freeman denies your motion you will seek relief from the NVSC any such relief would have to be granted prior to the scheduled depositions.
As you recall, when we finished our first round of depositions I informed you of my intention to finish Mr. Phillips deposition and asked for PMKs for budget and holding for our Feb. round of depos. Accordingly, the notices came as no surprise.
I will not vacate the notices. The depos will stay on calendar unless a stay is imposed or relief is granted in some other form. I have no objection to discussing these issues with court on Thursday.

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,

-SGS

Steve;

I have had a chance to consider the contingencies you requested in terms of moving the disclosure deadline for experts. I additionally have had an opportunity to discuss with pltfs counsel the same. Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

I really appreciate you guys submitting the entire application again and hopefully it will be a quick turnaround to get the new license issued.

Good morning Hillary!
I just wanted to let you know that the application has been completed but I'm being held up getting all of the Officer's signatures & other personal information they're requesting. We don't keep all the personal information for all of the officers on file so we have to collect it from each of them. The hard part is that they are not all at this location and one is on vacation. Currently I have all the SS# and Driver's license copies for all but one officer. That officer is out of the office until Monday. I will get his signature then and I will email the application to you.

Hey, sorry to bother you again but this application is requiring us to put 3 business references but we're not sure what exactly they're looking for. Do you know if (1) this is necessary for a name change and (2) if so, are they looking for wholesalers?
I hate using you as a middle person for this so if you want me to contact the DOR directly just let me know.
Thanks,

Hi Kelli!
When you email it back to the Tax Department, if you wouldn't mind ccing me on it, I'll stay on what's happening and make sure it doesn't go sideways. It would probably help to remind them that you're just updating your application address to reflect your manufacturing plant. You shouldn't need to do anything to cancel your current license.

Let me know if you need anything else!

Kelli, here is the link for manufacturing license (basically you guys are getting a new license that has your corporate address AND your manufacturing plant address on it).

Let me know if you have any issues or questions on why you're doing this/who to send it to/etc. I had hoped the Department would just issue a new license with the manufacturing address, but they want an entire new application.

Ms. Bunker,
Existing Nevada law provides that a manufacturer license authorizes the license holder to sell cigarettes to wholesalers in the state, but the new legislation added that the sale be "from the premises for which the license was issued." We most commonly use the corporate office address, so wanted to confirm whether we may need to amend to reflect our PM USA Manufacturing address in Richmond, VA?

Paul Auger Inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame

Described by many as an icon in the industry, Paul Auger was inducted into the CDA Hall of Fame on Tuesday at the CDA Awards Luncheon.

In his video montage, Kimberly Bolin, CDA's president & CEO, said, "Paul has certainly earned his way into the CDA Hall of Fame."

Introduced by Jode Bunce, executive vice president, cigarettes, for Eby-Brown of Naperville, IL, and Rick Gummer, chairman of Gummer Wholesale in Heath, OH, Auger was described as a strategic thinker and invaluable industry liaison who knows the industry well.

"Paul is a leader, a mentor and a great father, husband and friend," said Bunce. "A lot of people in this industry have learned a great deal from Paul, including myself."

"Character, faith and family are synonymous when I think about Paul," said Gummer. "Paul is a special friend to the Gummer family, and there is more than business that makes him worthy as a Hall of Famer."

To the right, Paul Auger celebrates his induction into the CDA Hall of Fame with his family.

Auger accepted the award with gratitude and appreciation as he captivated the audience with stories of his life in the business. "I want to thank everyone for this award, which is the highest I've achieved aside from my children," he said.

CDA president and CEO Kimberly Bolin presided over Tuesday's annual Awards Luncheon, and in her opening statement noted that, despite the many challenges, there also have been great successes since the association was established in 1932.

"And while the challenges look far different today than anyone could have imagined back in the 30s, it is a great testament to this industry that we still stand together shoulder to shoulder forging ahead," she said.

Following Bolin, current CDA chair Kevin Barney recognized and honored his predecessor Susie Douglas Munson, presenting her with a flag that had flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of her leadership and in recognition of the importance of advocacy and involvement in the industry and as an individual.

"Thanks to her steadfast dedication and leadership, CDA is positioned well to carry out the mission of its membership," said Barney. "I've heard Susie say that this industry is in her blood and her heart, and that is certainly evident in everything that she has done and continues to do for CDA."

Munson thanked everyone, saying how much she enjoyed her tenure as CDA Chair, and was honored for an opportunity to serve. "I still have a long career ahead of me," she said. "The best part is all of you, and I thank you for your support."

The illustrious career in the distribution industry of John Mayer, McLane Co., Inc., was recognized by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co.'s Dave Riser, who recapped Mayer's career, saying, "John's legacy is one of creating a strong foundation for McLane and the industry. He is emphatically driven to do the right thing for customers, for McLane and for the category. The effects of John's drive and love for this business will be felt for years to come." John is retiring in June and we wish him all the best in this exciting new chapter.

The luncheon was sponsored by RAI Trade Marketing Services Co. and ended with a decadent three-layer cheesecake square dessert created especially for the occasion collaboratively by The Hershey Co. with the Hilton Orlando's pastry chef.

Attendees Hit the Greens and the Water at CDM's Networking Events

CDA Golf Tournament

Held on Monday, the Marketplace Golf Tournament, sponsored by Altria Group Distribution Co., was held at the newly-redesigned Shingle Creek Golf Course at Rosen Shingle Creek. Golfers teed up to extra-long par 4s and par 5s surrounded by enchanting flora and wildlife, while facing hazards, twists and bends on this challenging course.

"You have four people in your group that you spend a few hours with, so you have plenty of time to network, but you also get to know people on a personal level, and tying the two in is what makes the industry great," said Ted Stessman, Farner-Bocken Co., a Division of Core-Mark International.

In this outing, sponsored by BIC Consumer Products, USA, Marketplace attendees enjoyed a breathtaking 30-minute expedition down the St. Johns River into the Central Florida Everglades to explore the freshwater habitat of the Florida alligator. An eco-guide provided insight during the boat ride through this pristine, natural habitat, home to both resident and migratory birds, white-tailed deer, bobcat, fox squirrel, alligators, cows and otters.

Following the boat ride, attendees were led into a remote pioneer fish camp to enjoy soft drinks and tasty cooked-to-order gator tail.

"We got close and personal with the alligators, we could've pet them, it was a great time!" Steve Simpson, C&B Distributors, Lowell, NC.

A Day of Insightful Education Sessions

This year's Marketplace offered a full day of distributor-focused education for attendees hitting all aspects of a wholesaler's operation, from foodservice, to management and strategic planning, to candy and snack merchandising.

"I thought all of the seminars were very good, and what's nice about them is that you have a lot to choose from," explained Kaye Powell, S. Abraham & Sons, Inc., Grand Rapids, MI. "We brought a lot of people from our company, so we were able to divide and conquer and take a lot of valuable information back home."

Merchandising Candy & Snacks for Max Profit

were Zeno Corrigan, Core-Mark International, New England Division, Gardiner, ME; Kenneth Batterton, GSC Enterprises, Sulphur Springs, TX; and Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Panelists presented ways for distributors to implement effective merchandising programs, including the committee's multi-vendor endcap (MVE) program to drive sales of warehouse-delivered snacks and confections and increase profit for both distributors and their customers.

Corrigan talked about how to incorporate MVEs. High impulse is important, consumers want everything at the front register. It's all about brands and partnering with vendors.

"We have to take categories and have all the items close to the front checkout," he said. "We need to take the best brands across the whole segment and have everything within arm's length."

The key takeaway was that distributors don't have to go it alone. Many resources are available on CDA's website and WDSC members are ready and willing to help.

A recording of this session will soon be available on CDA's website.

Trends & Insights in the Nicotine Delivery Category

Don Burke, senior vice president of Management Science Associates, discussed recent trends in the nicotine delivery category, highlighting current influences impacting sales.

His presentation included a review of general tobacco trends in the wholesale channel and a discussion of successful strategies employed by distributors whose goal is to grow their tobacco business. The performance of cigarette, cigar, OTP and vapor categories was covered in the convenience trade compared to the dollar and drug store channels.

"The tobacco industry is important to the convenience channel and the convenience channel is important to the tobacco industry," said Burke. "Many segments of this category are continuing to grow."

C-Store Foodservice: Trends and Opportunities

Current and developing foodservice trends and issues in the c-store channel were presented by Wade Hanson, principal of Technomic, a Chicago-based leading research and consulting firm to the foodservice industry.

He focused on a number of topics, including operator dynamics, performance and needs to help the session's attendees develop an understanding of consumers' rapidly-changing expectations of foodservice, including c-stores. Perspectives also were shared that were relevant for both experienced retailers and those just entering the category.

In the last two to three years, Hanson said we've seen more changes in the foodservice industry than in the 10 years prior. Much change is being driven by consumers, and we are well past the days when they put c-store foodservice in a box.

"They need support from their distributor partners," said Hanson. "It's more about messaging and marketing these offerings."

Evidence-Based Approaches to Identifying & Correcting Causes of Driver Turnover

Stay Metrics' Mary Malone, MS, JD, spoke about identifying the cause and solving truck driver shortages. With 75 percent of the workforce eventually being made up of Millennials, how can the industry create jobs these workers are looking for?

"Workforce development centers and high school athletic coaches and counselors are good resources when looking for truck drivers," said Malone.

The top predictors of turnover are the company's communication, recruiter professionalism and fair pay/compensation. Within 45 days, drivers make up their minds about a company after being hired. In terms of driver retention, it's important to keep the lines of communication open, have a plan and follow through.

"Surveys are a good method to gauge employees' satisfaction, and it's important to get feedback and be prepared to do something with the results," she said.

CDA Women's Leadership Program: Gender Dynamics for Business Success

Presented by the Altria Women in Sales Network, in this session, Stephen Sanger and Charlotte Savage from Altria Group Distribution Co. talked about preparing leaders to leverage "Gender Dynamics for Business Success". At the core, this work is aimed at enabling organizations to genuinely understand and leverage the inherent gender differences that exist in the workplace today.

The session explored the science and data behind gender dynamics and the implications to team effectiveness, problem solving and operating productivity.

Sanger discussed how gender bias is still present, with 49 percent of women seeing it versus 28 percent of men. He said it's time to start the discussion, appreciate the differences and build an inclusive culture.

He then detailed the differences between men and women's brains.

"Women take in and process more points of data and make more conclusions than men," said Sanger. "Women also use more words in a day as well as vocal sounds, hand gestures and body signals."

While women communicate to create relationships, interaction and exchange feelings, men do it to obtain information, establish status and show independence.

Savage discussed Leadership behaviors between men and women, citing a study by Catalyst Research that revealed survey respondents believe men are better at networking and influencing upward, while women are better at problem solving.

"Diversity and inclusion is a journey that's far from over," she said.

University of Innovative Distribution Program Sessions

Through CDA's sponsorship of the University of Innovative Distribution (UID) supported by Purdue University, CDA hosted a UID-in-a-Day program featuring executive leadership and sales sessions delivered by esteemed UID faculty members. Attendees will receive a Certificate of Completion and credit that may be applied toward a Professional Certificate of Innovative Distribution.

The full UID program will take place March 11-14 in Indianapolis. For more information, visit the UID page on CDA's website.

The UID-in-a-Day programs at Marketplace included:

How to Differentiate Your Distribution Company: A Winning Strategy

Dr. William McCleave, trainer and president of W.R. McCleave & Associates, discussed how distributors and their suppliers wrestle with a constantly changing world of big challenges and promising opportunities.

"Distributors need to think about what they intend to do, since prioritizing initiatives is critical," said McCleave. "What you know is important, but what you do with it is more important."

He noted that, as customers seek better supply alternatives and competitors increase their efforts, differentiation becomes essential for survival.

"Companies need to look at who they're selling to, their customer's relationship with the company and their market status," said McCleave. "Knowing the customer's hot buttons as well as how to make or save them money is key."

According to McCleave, great distribution firms in the future will focus on customer and market arenas where they can provide world class performance and unique value.

Managing in Turbulent Times

Today's distribution industry can be a race to the bottom on price with new non-traditional competitors like broad line box movers and Amazon. In this session, Mike Marks, co-founder, Indian River Consulting Group, Indialantic, FL, talked about how managers must make decisions with limited resources in highly uncertain and changing environments.

"Competitive advantage is not real, unless you gain a significant cost advantage over your competitors or a significant price premium from you customers, either resulting in higher profits," said Marks.

While cost advantages come from operating scale, role specialization and performance management processes, price advantages come from scale with suppliers, mass customization and leveraging competitive intensity.

"You need time to work on your business as well as in your business," said Marks.

The Power of Focus: Strategic Planning for Distributors

This session, which was also presented by Marks, showed attendees how to develop and execute a successful strategy using tools specifically designed for distributors.

Key elements of strategy, including market assessment and positioning, strategic prioritization, addressing critical constraints, management rhythms, and metrics were explored as well as the right and wrong ways to approach strategic planning. Marks also provided examples of world-class distributor strategies.

"It's important to do what you do best and buy the rest," he said. "You must sell to users the way they want to buy, as this is changing rapidly."

Action steps include spending time and money developing a strong sense of the external environment and especially the customer's own initiatives.

"Start with your trade association, as they are all trying to create a pathway to the future," said Marks.

Tuesday night's industry reception, hosted by Altria Group Distribution Co., provided distributors and manufacturers/suppliers the opportunity to socialize and discuss the many topics presented at the concurrent sessions throughout the day as well as plan for Wednesday's trade show.

"Marketplace is really great for the networking, talking with other distributors, the vendors and software providers," said Chris Dempsey, Myers-Cox Co. It's a place where we can get ideas on how to improve our business."

Attendees were welcomed to the reception by CDA Chair Kevin Barney, who thanked Altria for sponsoring the evening and announced the winners of the golf tournament.

Barney also announced the raffle winner, Dan McIntyre, president of Jackson Wholesale Co., Jackson, KY, who won a Scotty Cameron putter.

The Marketplace floor started bright and early Wednesday with breakfast on the floor, sponsored by Mars Wrigley Confectionery US, and buzzed with activity throughout the day as distributors made the rounds among exhibitors. The CDA Lounge was particularly popular with a barista and a smoothie bar, and exhibitors enjoyed the Swisher International-sponsored lunch.

"The show was very well attended and it had exactly the people I needed to see," said Carter Adair, Stephenson Wholesale Co., Durant, OK. "You're missing out if you don't come. There are vendors here that are key to our businesses."

"It's been a very busy show and there's been a lot of traffic at our booth," said Steve Shipe, Liggett Vector Brands. "This is a first-class event, and all of our trading partners are here. It's been very productive for us."

"Coming to Marketplace is well worth it--to see the items, get the experience, network and get some ideas from other people," said Carroll Hull, The Geo. J. Falter Co., Inc., Baltimore, MD.

Duet Claims Grand Prize

Winning Wednesday's Grand Prize drawing was Kim Duet, Lyons Specialty Co., Port Allen, LA. Thanks to Galactic Performance Solutions, all CDA member distributors attending the show were eligible to win an all-expense paid trip to Whistler in British Columbia, Canada.

Duet will experience a four-day trip for two to the famed Fairmont Chateau Whistler.

Congratulations, Kim!

Little Valley Fire - Order to Set Hearing on NDF and UNR's Motion for Stay.pdf

Consolidated Matter - Lead Case CV17-00225

All,

Attached is Judge Freeman's order requesting that the parties set a hearing on NDF's pending motion to stay. We ask that the parties set the hearing as soon as possible. Kindly let us know what dates work for you all. NDF can be available on any day; except tomorrow, as Ms. Haar and I have an emergency hearing in federal court tomorrow afternoon that cannot be altered.

Kindly also let us know if the plaintiffs' side is amenable to a stipulated temporary stay pending Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay, which he has now set for hearing. NDF believes that, especially considering the pending hearing on the motion to stay, no further discovery should proceed.

Please let us know your thoughts on the hearing date(s) that may work. Please also let us know your thoughts on a stipulated temporary stay in light of Judge Freeman's order to set the matter for hearing.

Best regards,

-SGS

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

ORDER TO SET HEARING

The Court is in receipt of Defendants NEVADA DIVISION OF FORESTRY and BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE NEVADA SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION on behalf of the UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA's Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery filed November 9, 2017. Plaintiffs BLUEBERG, et al. filed an Opposition on November 27, 2017, to which the following parties filed Joinders: Plaintiffs FIRE INSURANCE EXCHANGE and FARMERS INSURANCE EXCHANGE (filed November 27, 2017); Plaintiffs EDWARD L. EVANS, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); Plaintiffs JOSEPH G. and CAROL GANZ, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); and, Plaintiffs HUBERT ZEMKE, JR., et al. (filed November 29, 2017). Plaintiffs ANGEL FACE, LTD., et al. filed an Opposition on November 20, 2017. Defendants filed a Reply on December 7, 2017, and Defendants' Supplement in Support of Their Motion to Stay Discovery on December 15, 2017.

Pursuant to Nevada Rule of Appellate Procedure 8(a)(1), a party seeking a stay pending appeal must "move first in the district court for the following relief: (A) a stay of . . . proceedings in a district court pending appeal or resolution of a petition to the Supreme Court . . . for an extraordinary writ. NRAP 8(a)(1)(A). Upon review of the moving papers, attached exhibits, and record, the Court believes a hearing is appropriate to assist the Court in its decision on Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery. The Court thus orders a hearing. Parties shall appear before Department 9 of the Second Judicial District Court and present oral arguments on the above named motion.

THEREFORE, and good cause appearing, the Court HEREBY ORDERS counsel for the parties shall meet and confer and, thereafter, contact Department Nines' Judicial Assistant within fifteen (15) days to schedule a hearing to occur within the next sixty (60) days.

DATED: this 17 day of January, 2018.

Now that we have a trial date I need to put the dates in. So discovery is going to be 180 day from the filing of the JCCR correct? I can state that we are filing it on Thursday to give everyone time to give me their signatures back and go from that day. Will that work?

Thank you for sending this, Reva.

Following up on Gary's last email regarding the deadline to file dispositive motions, the parties agreed in the joint status report that the filing deadline would be 30 days after close of discovery. This draft lists the deadline as both "07/06/18" and "30 days after Discovery". We think "07/06/18" should be changed to "00/00/00"— similar to what you did with the other deadlines dependent on when discovery actually commences/closes.

Additionally, but of lesser importance, in Section I, Paragraph P, I am listed as counsel for plaintiffs instead of UNR. Finally, the description/order of Exhibits 2-7 on the Exhibit List (page 12) does not match the description/order of those exhibits contained on pages 6 & 7.

Thank you,

Bryan

Matt and Bill,
The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.
I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.
Regards,
Bryan

Brian,

Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases. In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.

We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,

Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.

We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.

Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Mr. Jeanney wanted me to send an email to everyone regarding expert, rebuttal, and discovery deadlines. He suggest pushing the discovery to May 1st for Expert Disclosures, June 1st for Rebuttals and July 2nd for Discovery Cut-off.

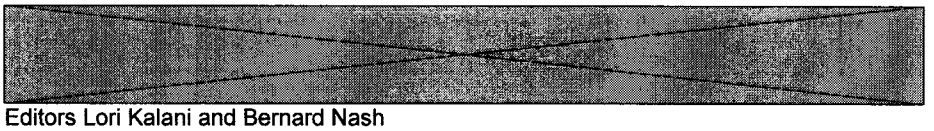

Right now the deadlines are February 16th for Experts, March 19th for Rebuttal and April 17th for Discovery. Please advise. Thank you.

My interest in having a certification for Armed Security professionals to respond and serve across state lines in times of natural disasters or terrorist events that deplete the supply of First Responders within that region. The standards would be higher.

Debra,
I would like to solicit some volunteers from our IASIR membership to serve on a committee to gather information and formulate a plan to develop a "Special Response Team" as you had outlined in our large group discussion. Will you please provide me a sentence or two description for what this committee might address?
I would like to add your description to an email that will be sent out to our entire membership to see if we can recruit some volunteers.
Thank you for your assistance and have a safe and enjoyable holiday season!

Okay, I only have a couple follow up questions after I compared all of these:

1) Is Marlboro 72's Blue Pack Box Menthol or Regular?
2) We have a Marlboro Full Flavor King Regular on our Directory, but I don't think it's on your list. Would it be under something else?
3) The two you have that we don't are:
    a. Marlboro Black Label Box. Would this be under something else showing on our Directory or does it need to be added? I know it was FSC certified in August 2017
    b. Marlboro Menthol Ice Box (we've discussed this one and I know it needs to be added)

I think that's it!

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Little Valley Fire Matter:
Subject: Petitioners' Request to Continue their Reply Deadline from March 13 until April 16, 2018

All,

With the Subrogated Insurers filing their answering brief later today, the Petitioners deadline to file their reply briefs is March 13, 2018.

Petitioners would like an extension of time until Monday, April 16, 2018, to get all of their briefs on file. Could you please let us know if you all have any objections? Petitioners will be moving for an extension of time and would like to note if their motion is opposed or unopposed.

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Counsel;

The Status Report agreed to by the parties set 16.1 Disclosures for 14 days post filing of the Notice of Entry on the court's order denying dismissal. The Notice of entry was filed on Sept. 7, initial disclosures would then be due Sept. 21. The pltfs will be making a collective disclosure as to liability and individual disclosures as to damages as outlined in the Status Report. Pltfs initial liability disclosures will be relatively voluminous and as such it will in all likelihood take us until Monday the 25th have it in final form. If this creates hardship for the defts please let me know immediately.

FDA makes surprise announcements regarding nicotine, extends timeline for applications for newly regulated tobacco products

On an otherwise quiet Friday morning in July, FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb made the following significant announcements regarding FDA's regulation of tobacco and nicotine products:

- FDA will extend timelines to submit tobacco product review applications for newly regulated tobacco products that were on the market as of Aug. 8, 2016, as follows:
  - Applications for cigars, pipe tobacco and hookah tobacco will be due by Aug. 8, 2021
  - Applications for non-combustible products such as ENDS or e-cigarettes will be due by Aug. 8, 2022
  - The sunset provision for marketing during FDA's review of premarket applications will be lifted and manufacturers will be able to continue to market products while the agency reviews product applications
- FDA intends to issue Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemakings (ANPRMs) to:
  - Seek public comment on the role that flavors (including menthol) in tobacco products play in attracting youth and may play in helping some smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery
  - Solicit additional comments and scientific data related to the patterns of use and resulting public health impacts from premium cigars
  - Seek public comment on how to make combustible products less addictive or non-addictive
- FDA plans to examine actions to increase access and use of FDA-approved medicinal nicotine products, and work with sponsors to consider what steps can be taken under the safety and efficacy standard for products intended to help smokers quit.
- FDA plans to issue regulations outlining what information the agency expects to be included in:
  - Premarket Tobacco Applications (PMTAs),
  - Modified Risk Tobacco Product (MRTP) applications, and
  - Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.
- FDA plans to finalize guidance on how it intends to review PMTAs for ENDS.
- Dr. Gottlieb also indicated that FDA might reconsider whether to continue to use its resources to review certain pending provisional Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.

This announcement contains encouraging news for CDA members, as the timelines for applications for newly regulated tobacco products are extended significantly, and FDA explicitly states that products can be marketed during the application process. FDA will be issuing ANPRMs on a number of issues, including "determining what role flavors play in attracting youth and may play in helping smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery, and making cigarettes less or non – addictive." In these instances, CDA will continue to monitor and report on FDA activity on regulation of tobacco and nicotine products, and will advocate on behalf of thorough, science based regulations beneficial to the Convenience Distribution industry and our industry partners.

Congress will recess without action on healthcare, looks to move on to tax reform in September agreement on healthcare reform. The Senate is expected to recess on Friday, joining the House a week into their five week long summer recess.

Although there is some talk about another attempt at some manner of healthcare reform - a bipartisan Senate Health Education and Labor Committee hearing is being organized for September , and a bipartisan group of House members is working on a proposal to shore up the insurance exchanges - at this point the political will to take another run at full scale healthcare reform is not there.

Administration officials and Republican leadership have moved on to tax reform (https://waysandmeans.house.gov/joint-statement-tax-reform/), and a coordinated effort to make the case to the American public will soon be underway. We can expect the fall to be all about tax reform, and CDA will be heavily engaged in the debate on your behalf.

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.

RE: Notice of Anthem's Settlement of 2015 Cyber Attack.

Dear Michele:

We are sending this information to let Attorney General Laxalt that our client, Anthem, has reached a settlement to completely resolve the multidistrict class action litigation relating to a 2015 cyberattack against the company. Attached is a media statement that explains the agreement in more detail, including the benefits provided to individuals whose data was or may have been involved in the cyberattack and who will now be members of the settlement class. We thought you might find this information of interest. We understand your Department of Insurance is also being contacted separately on this matter. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

BRUNING LAW GROUP, LLC

MEDIA STATEMENT/ANTHEMFACTS.COM POST
Anthem Settlement Mailing
September 20, 2017

Anthem has reached a settlement to completely resolve the multidistrict class action litigation relating to the 2015 cyber attack against the company. The settlement, which was preliminarily approved by the court on August 25, 2017, does not include any finding of wrongdoing, and Anthem is not admitting any wrongdoing or that any individuals were harmed as a result of the cyber attack. Nevertheless, we are pleased to be putting this litigation behind us, and to be providing additional substantial benefits to individuals whose data was or may have been involved in the cyber attack and who will now be members of the settlement class.

When Anthem discovered the cyber attack in 2015, the company offered two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services to all individuals whose data may have been impacted. As part of this final resolution of the litigation, class members can receive an additional two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services, along with other significant benefits.

Anthem has agreed to pay a total of $115 million to resolve the litigation. Those funds will pay for the additional two years of credit monitoring and identity protection services, and will also benefit class members in several other ways. In particular, while there is no evidence that any data impacted by the cyber attack has ever been sold or used to commit fraud, Anthem has agreed that $15 million of the fund will be allocated to pay actual out-of-pocket costs, up to a set amount, that class members claim they incurred due to the cyber attack. Class members who already have credit services can submit a claim to receive alternative cash compensation instead of receiving the credit services provided by the settlement. The costs of sending notice to class members, administering claims, and the class members' attorneys' fees are also included in this total amount.

Anthem has had, for many years, a strong information security program to protect the personal data entrusted to us. As we have seen in cyber attacks against governments and private sector companies including Anthem over the past few years, many cyber threat actors are increasingly sophisticated and determined adversaries. Anthem is determined to do its part to prevent future attacks. To that end, as part of the settlement, Anthem has agreed to continue the significant information security practice changes that we undertook in the wake of the cyber attack, and we have agreed to implement additional protections over the next three years.

A third-party settlement administrator will manage the settlement, which will be overseen by the court in this litigation. The settlement administrator, Kurtzman Carson Consultants (also known as KCC), will be the best resource for questions pertaining to the settlement, including how to register for the credit monitoring and identity protection services offered or how to submit claims for out-of-pocket costs or alternative compensation. The settlement administrator set up a website, www.DataBreach-Settlement.com, as well as a customer service line at 1-855-636-6136 regarding this settlement. We have updated www.AnthemFacts.com with a link to that website and phone number.

I don't agree. Plaintiffs proposed bifurcating liability and damages. Defendants agreed to this based upon the representation that plaintiffs would provide damages calculations as part of their 16.1 disclosures and respond to informal questionnaires. None of the subro plaintiffs objected to that approach or otherwise sought to be treated differently.
As discussed at the meeting, while we are fine with bifurcation, we need to obtain at least some information regarding damages at this stage. This could be accomplished if the subro plaintiffs agree to produce their claim files during the damages phase.

Matt and Bill,

The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.

I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Bryan

Brian,

Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases.

In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.

We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Please give me a call when you have a few minutes to talk and I will try to make myself available. There is no rush and I just wanted to speak with you more about your suggestion of a special response team made up of individuals across the nation. I agree that this would be beneficial as long as we can gain some backing of the idea. I am also interested in hearing about your experience with this year's conference.
Have a great rest of your day and I look forward to speaking with you.

Now that we have a trial date I need to put the dates in. So discovery is going to be 180 day from the filing of the JCCR correct? I can state that we are filing it on Thursday to give everyone time to give me their signatures back and go from that day. Will that work?

Thank you for sending this, Reva.

Following up on Gary's last email regarding the deadline to file dispositive motions, the parties agreed in the joint status report that the filing deadline would be 30 days after close of discovery. This draft lists the deadline as both "07/06/18" and "30 days after Discovery". We think "07/06/18" should be changed to "00/00/00"— similar to what you did with the other deadlines dependent on when discovery actually commences/closes.

Additionally, but of lesser importance, in Section I, Paragraph P, I am listed as counsel for plaintiffs instead of UNR. Finally, the description/order of Exhibits 2-7 on the Exhibit List (page 12) does not match the description/order of those exhibits contained on pages 6 & 7.

Thank you,

Bryan

Mr. Shevorski;
As you are aware, Mr. Phillips deposition was ordered to occur this morning at 9 a.m., Mr. Phillips did not appear and no representative of NDF appeared as well. A record of your non-appearance and direct violation of the Court's order was made. Obviously, we are filing a Motion for OSC and Sanctions immediately. In the interim we demand that Mr. Phillips appear for deposition on Feb. 28, 2018, at 9 a.m. here at our offices to conclude his deposition.

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

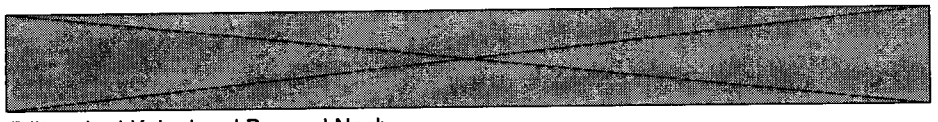

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Little Valley Fire Matter:
Subject: Petitioners' Request to Continue their Reply Deadline from March 13 until April 16, 2018

All,

With the Subrogated Insurers filing their answering brief later today, the Petitioners deadline to file their reply briefs is March 13, 2018.

Petitioners would like an extension of time until Monday, April 16, 2018, to get all of their briefs on file. Could you please let us know if you all have any objections? Petitioners will be moving for an extension of time and would like to note if their motion is opposed or unopposed.

Best regards,

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,

Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.

We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.

Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Mr. Jeanney wanted me to send an email to everyone regarding expert, rebuttal, and discovery deadlines. He suggest pushing the discovery to May 1st for Expert Disclosures, June 1st for Rebuttals and July 2nd for Discovery Cut-off.

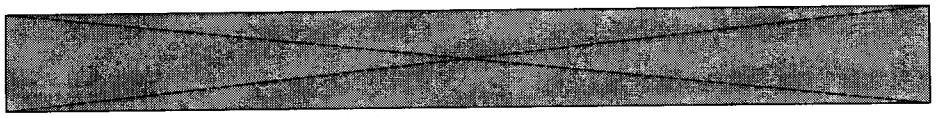

Right now the deadlines are February 16th for Experts, March 19th for Rebuttal and April 17th for Discovery. Please advise. Thank you.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,
-SGS

Steve;

I have had a chance to consider the contingencies you requested in terms of moving the disclosure deadline for experts. I additionally have had an opportunity to discuss with pltfs counsel the same. Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Subject: Little Valley Fire expert Disclosures

Mr. Jeanney wanted me to send an email to everyone regarding expert, rebuttal, and discovery deadlines. He suggest pushing the discovery to May 1st for Expert Disclosures, June 1st for Rebuttals and July 2nd for Discovery Cut-off.

Right now the deadlines are February 16th for Experts, March 19th for Rebuttal and April 17th for Discovery. Please advise. Thank you.

Dear Colleagues and Friends:

Cozen O'Connor's State Attorneys General (AG) practice is delighted to give you early access to our new State AG Election Tracker website that will officially roll out to wider audiences later this month. 2018 has the potential for significant policy changes, with 31 State AG elections, including 10 confirmed open seat races.

We developed the State AG Election Tracker to help our clients and others stay updated on the fast-moving State AG political landscape, and we hope the State AG Election Tracker will become your go-to resource for State AG election news, insights, polls, and predictions, as well as primary and election night real-time updates. We invite you to take a sneak peek by watching this short preview video. Click here or in the video to view.

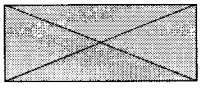

Sincerely,
Bernard Nash and Lori Kalani
Co-Chairs, State Attorneys General Practice

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Matt and Bill,
We discussed continuing Gene's deposition at a date and time that makes sense, which we have no objection to doing. For example, at Gene's depo, and indeed on the record, the only discussion was that continuing the deposition would have to work with Gene's calendar and that Mr. Jeanney possibly wanted to finish his deposition on Thursday, which we could not do, and so provided Mr. Carmichael on that day.
As pertains our discussion after Mr. Carmichael's deposition, I expressly stated that discovery pertaining to NDF would be contingent on Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay and on NDF seeking emergency relief with the NVSC. We never agreed to hold Gene's deposition during the week of February 12th, nor could have I agreed to hold it during that time period because I did not know Gene's schedule during Carmichael's deposition. You certainly indicated your desire to continue Gene's deposition, possibly in February or March, but absent a notice we have no way of knowing what deposition you are actually going to schedule. For example, you also indicated your intention to subpoena Mr. Freedland for deposition during the week of February 12, but we have not been served with that notice.
We have two more months of discovery left, absent a stay. NDF remains willing to work towards an amicable resolution to scheduling his deposition but not at the expense of its motion and its right to seek appellate relief under NRAP 8(c).
NDF has accommodated every request for an extension made by the Real Parties in Interest in this case without question, whether before the NVSC or the District Court. It strikes NDF as a very reasonable request to not schedule depositions whilst we are seeking stay relief from the District Court and the NVSC, as there is more than enough time to get depositions done after the stay issue is resolved. Also, it is quite possible that Judge Freeman may not rule from the bench, but may take the matter under submission on Thursday, which means that we may still not know whether NDF's motion before the District Court is granted or denied.
I am sorry, but the notices do come as quite a surprise. You cannot expect NDF to waive its rights to notice under Rule 30(b)(1). Even in federal court where "reasonable notice" is the standard, and not 15 days' notice, every federal court would hold that one calendar weeks' notice is insufficient.
Best regards,
-SGS

Steve,
As you are aware the parties agreed to the current discovery schedule reserving these specific time periods so that our trial date could be preserved. While I understand that if Judge Freeman denies your motion you will seek relief from the NVSC any such relief would have to be granted prior to the scheduled depositions.
As you recall, when we finished our first round of depositions I informed you of my intention to finish Mr. Phillips deposition and asked for PMKs for budget and holding for our Feb. round of depos. Accordingly, the notices came as no surprise.
I will not vacate the notices. The depos will stay on calendar unless a stay is imposed or relief is granted in some other form. I have no objection to discussing these issues with court on Thursday.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,

-SGS

Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Good morning Hillary!
I just wanted to let you know that the application has been completed but I'm being held up getting all of the Officer's signatures & other personal information they're requesting. We don't keep all the personal information for all of the officers on file so we have to collect it from each of them. The hard part is that they are not all at this location and one is on vacation. Currently I have all the SS# and Driver's license copies for all but one officer. That officer is out of the office until Monday. I will get his signature then and I will email the application to you.

Hey, sorry to bother you again but this application is requiring us to put 3 business references but we're not sure what exactly they're looking for. Do you know if (1) this is necessary for a name change and (2) if so, are they looking for wholesalers?
I hate using you as a middle person for this so if you want me to contact the DOR directly just let me know.
Thanks,

Hi Kelli!
When you email it back to the Tax Department, if you wouldn't mind ccing me on it, I'll stay on what's happening and make sure it doesn't go sideways. It would probably help to remind them that you're just updating your application address to reflect your manufacturing plant. You shouldn't need to do anything to cancel your current license.
Let me know if you need anything else!

Perfect.
Kelli, here is the link for manufacturing license (basically you guys are getting a new license that has your corporate address AND your manufacturing plant address on it).
https://tax.nv.gov/uploadedFiles/taxnvgov/Content/Forms/Combined%20Cigarette%20and%20Other%20Tobacco%20Products%20Licenses%20Application%206-15-17A.pdf
Let me know if you have any issues or questions on why you're doing this/who to send it to/etc. I had hoped the Department would just issue a new license with the manufacturing address, but they want an entire new application.

Ms. Bunker,
Existing Nevada law provides that a manufacturer license authorizes the license holder to sell cigarettes to wholesalers in the state, but the new legislation added that the sale be "from the premises for which the license was issued." We most commonly use the corporate office address, so wanted to confirm whether we may need to amend to reflect our PM USA Manufacturing address in Richmond, VA?

Counsel;
I'm assuming all will agree to stipulate that the cases are exempt from arbitration? Additionally, the proposed Status Report does not have a date for answers to be filed. All dates are triggered off of the filing of Notice of Entry (which will occur within the hour). Accordingly, we could be disclosing 16.1 documents without knowing the defts affirmative defenses.

Matt and Bill,
The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.
I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Bryan

Brian,

Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases. In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.

We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Just want clarity and input from our perspective / manufacturer. Clearly have some concerns on the process outlined below. We don't want retailers to sell aged product – our product that comes back as stale from retail is a lot older than 1 year. Additionally, this provides zero incentive for retailers to return product that is no longer listed on a directory or if it's older product, (older meaning - beyond the 1 year limit outlined below - our product has a shelf life over 1 year).

That's helpful, thanks. I figured that was the practice, but wanted to confirm.
I would like to give you a straight answer, but I'm sure you've been in touch with at least one wholesaler (or Nat Sherman has) on this issue and understand there's some discrepancies in what the statute says versus what has been done by the Department.

H - We need it back – only to confirm quantity and state stamps. We sample states to ensure that each state on the return is present and do a physical count of all product. Our affidavit states that we received, reviewed and destroyed. In my opinion, it's the only way we can provide an accurate affidavit to the account to provide the state.

Hi Jim,
I've been awaiting this exact email from you. I can't provide you an answer right now, but I hope to be able to next week after I talk with the Tax Department. Tomorrow is Nevada Day so all state offices are closed.
I'll ask you a different question. If a wholesaler wants to return product, would you as a manufacturer always require that the product be sent back or would you allow the wholesaler to destroy it on site? This could be for damaged, stale, recalled, etc. product.

Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
- List who destroyed them

Hi Reva,

Because the JCCR is in PDF format, I am providing the University's comments as follows:

1. I see you have checked "Yes" for requesting a discovery planning/dispute conference. The University does not see a need for either.
2. Proceedings prior to case conference report: Should there be a mention of the 13th suit that has been filed by the Zemke family CV17-01799?
3. Page 2, section G: Typo: NDR should be NDF.
4. Page 2, suggest inserting thtat the Joint Status Report was filed on 9/12/17.
5. Page 2, line 23: "C" should be "O". Also, David Houston and Eva Segerblom did not attend the ECC. Bryan Wright did, and Steve Shevorski and Theresa Harr attended by phone.
6. Page 5, line 10, should be 21 instead of C1 and the Laird Davis complaint should be included.
7. Page 5, line 13, should be 22 instead of 9.
8. Page 5, line 14, should be 23 instead of C2, and this paragraph also applies to the amended complaints filed in Blueberg, Primm and Auto Insurance of Hartford.
9. Page 5, line 17, Section C should be Section D.
10. Page 6, line 18, September 18, 2017 should be September 26, 2017.
11. Page 7, line 5: Exhibit 5 appears twice so this should be Exhibit 6. Thereafter, sections F through Q should be Exhibits 7 through 18 respectively.
12. Page 7, line 7: Date should be September 26, 2017 instead of the 25th.
13. Page 7, line 10: We never received initial disclosures from the Evans plaintiffs.
14. Page 7, line 28: Ash is referred to as Ganz elsewhere.

All,

Attached is Judge Freeman's order requesting that the parties set a hearing on NDF's pending motion to stay. We ask that the parties set the hearing as soon as possible. Kindly let us know what dates work for you all. NDF can be available on any day; except tomorrow, as Ms. Haar and I have an emergency hearing in federal court tomorrow afternoon that cannot be altered.

Kindly also let us know if the plaintiffs' side is amenable to a stipulated temporary stay pending Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay, which he has now set for hearing. NDF believes that, especially considering the pending hearing on the motion to stay, no further discovery should proceed.

Please let us know your thoughts on the hearing date(s) that may work. Please also let us know your thoughts on a stipulated temporary stay in light of Judge Freeman's order to set the matter for hearing.

Best regards,

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN RE: LITTLE VALLEY FIRE LITIGATION

Case No.: CV17-00225
Dept. No. 9

ORDER TO SET HEARING

The Court is in receipt of Defendants NEVADA DIVISION OF FORESTRY and BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE NEVADA SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION on behalf of the UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA's Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery filed November 9, 2017. Plaintiffs BLUEBERG, et al. filed an Opposition on November 27, 2017, to which the following parties filed Joinders: Plaintiffs FIRE INSURANCE EXCHANGE and FARMERS INSURANCE EXCHANGE (filed November 27, 2017); Plaintiffs EDWARD L. EVANS, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); Plaintiffs JOSEPH G. and CAROL GANZ, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); and, Plaintiffs HUBERT ZEMKE, JR., et al. (filed November 29, 2017). Plaintiffs ANGEL FACE, LTD., et al. filed an Opposition on November 20, 2017. Defendants filed a Reply on December 7, 2017, and Defendants' Supplement in Support of Their Motion to Stay Discovery on December 15, 2017.

Pursuant to Nevada Rule of Appellate Procedure 8(a)(1), a party seeking a stay pending appeal must "move first in the district court for the following relief: (A) a stay of . . . proceedings in a district court pending appeal or resolution of a petition to the Supreme Court . . . for an extraordinary writ. NRAP 8(a)(1)(A). Upon review of the moving papers, attached exhibits, and record, the Court believes a hearing is appropriate to assist the Court in its decision on Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery. The Court thus orders a hearing. Parties shall appear before Department 9 of the Second Judicial District Court and present oral arguments on the above named motion.

THEREFORE, and good cause appearing, the Court HEREBY ORDERS counsel for the parties shall meet and confer and, thereafter, contact Department Nines' Judicial Assistant within fifteen (15) days to schedule a hearing to occur within the next sixty (60) days.

DATED: this 17 day of January, 2018.

Hi,
So here is the link for the relevant statutes:
https://www.leg.state.nv.us/NRS/NRS-370.html
We only generally use two Chapters- 370 and 370A (370A is just for manufacturers- escrow, MSA, etc.).
Let me know what you think because, as I mentioned, if there is a different way Washington's statutes are worded that includes a more clear definition of new styles being certified via supplemental, I'll take a look at what theirs says.

Confidential

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.

Counsel;

Pltfs Counsel have had an opportunity to review the proposed order provided today by Defts. Unfortunately, we reject the same. The order is argumentative, raises issues not contained in the briefing or argument, contains extraneous information not relevant to the Court's order and frankly is unintelligible. Instead of providing a factual version of a simple court order the Defts are attempting to use the order to advance appellate theories in clear violation of the request of the court and the local rules of the Second Judicial Court.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

ORDER TO SET HEARING

The Court is in receipt of Defendants NEVADA DIVISION OF FORESTRY and BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE NEVADA SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION on behalf of the UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA's Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery filed November 9, 2017. Plaintiffs BLUEBERG, et al. filed an Opposition on November 27, 2017, to which the following parties filed Joinders: Plaintiffs FIRE INSURANCE EXCHANGE and FARMERS INSURANCE EXCHANGE (filed November 27, 2017); Plaintiffs EDWARD L. EVANS, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); Plaintiffs JOSEPH G. and CAROL GANZ, et al. (filed November 28, 2017); and, Plaintiffs HUBERT ZEMKE, JR., et al. (filed November 29, 2017). Plaintiffs ANGEL FACE, LTD., et al. filed an Opposition on November 20, 2017. Defendants filed a Reply on December 7, 2017, and Defendants' Supplement in Support of Their Motion to Stay Discovery on December 15, 2017.

Pursuant to Nevada Rule of Appellate Procedure 8(a)(1), a party seeking a stay pending appeal must "move first in the district court for the following relief: (A) a stay of . . . proceedings in a district court pending appeal or resolution of a petition to the Supreme Court . . . for an extraordinary writ. NRAP 8(a)(1)(A). Upon review of the moving papers, attached exhibits, and record, the Court believes a hearing is appropriate to assist the Court in its decision on Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery. The Court thus orders a hearing. Parties shall appear before Department 9 of the Second Judicial District Court and present oral arguments on the above named motion.

THEREFORE, and good cause appearing, the Court HEREBY ORDERS counsel for the parties shall meet and confer and, thereafter, contact Department Nines' Judicial Assistant within fifteen (15) days to schedule a hearing to occur within the next sixty (60) days.

DATED: this 17 day of January, 2018.

Hi Sissy!
I figured by this time everyone must have been informed of your upcoming retirement ☺ ☹. So I wanted to reach out and see when your last day was going to be and how you were doing!
Also, I wanted to tell you that it's been really refreshing to work with you, even in a limited capacity, over the last year+. I was blown away with how you jumped right in to leading a workgroup, figured out what pieces you could bring to the group, and went forward with it. There were many times that you asked the questions I was thinking or raised the issues that I had written down. To me, you quickly figured out some of the basic questions that we needed to answer to get to where we want to be in the future (even if these haven't all been answered). Our brains were more in sync than you even know and because of that, I'm really going to miss you being part of this group.
This email doesn't do it justice, but just know that I haven't worked with a lot of people who have all the qualities that you have and make work easier and better!
I'll miss you and I hope you're doing well!
Hillary

Little Valley Fire Matter:
Subject: Petitioners' Request to Continue their Reply Deadline from March 13 until April 16, 2018

All,

With the Subrogated Insurers filing their answering brief later today, the Petitioners deadline to file their reply briefs is March 13, 2018.

Petitioners would like an extension of time until Monday, April 16, 2018, to get all of their briefs on file. Could you please let us know if you all have any objections? Petitioners will be moving for an extension of time and would like to note if their motion is opposed or unopposed.

Best regards,

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,
-SGS

Steve;

I have had a chance to consider the contingencies you requested in terms of moving the disclosure deadline for experts. I additionally have had an opportunity to discuss with pltfs counsel the same. Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

Subject: Little Valley Fire - UNR and NDF Joint Response to Schedule Modification

Matter: Little Valley Escaped Fire
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Reva,
Below are our thoughts on Bill's suggestion. UNR's folks have allowed me to send this joint email.
We are generally okay with stipulating to modify the scheduling order, but would request two other changes. First, we think the parties should press pause on further discovery until the NVSC rules on the writ. Engaging in extended discovery where we have sought a writ to clarify an important issue of state law defeats the purpose of our writ. Further, putting a pause on discovery while correspondingly extending discovery deadlines as you suggested gives the NVSC breathing room to decide the writ without interfering with these new proposed deadlines. Second, we can only agree to this if the dispositive motion deadline is also correspondingly extended 30 days after the close of discovery and the trial date is moved to accommodate the new deadline for dispositive motions. Under WDCR 12(7), "all motions for summary judgment must be submitted to the court...at least 30 days prior to the date the case is set for trial." There is no way to stay compliant with this Court Rule under the revised schedule you have proffered.
Kindly let us know your thoughts.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matt and Bill,
We discussed continuing Gene's deposition at a date and time that makes sense, which we have no objection to doing. For example, at Gene's depo, and indeed on the record, the only discussion was that continuing the deposition would have to work with Gene's calendar and that Mr. Jeanney possibly wanted to finish his deposition on Thursday, which we could not do, and so provided Mr. Carmichael on that day.
As pertains our discussion after Mr. Carmichael's deposition, I expressly stated that discovery pertaining to NDF would be contingent on Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay and on NDF seeking emergency relief with the NVSC. We never agreed to hold Gene's deposition during the week of February 12th, nor could have I agreed to hold it during that time period because I did not know Gene's schedule during Carmichael's deposition. You certainly indicated your desire to continue Gene's deposition, possibly in February or March, but absent a notice we have no way of knowing what deposition you are actually going to schedule. For example, you also indicated your intention to subpoena Mr. Freedland for deposition during the week of February 12, but we have not been served with that notice.
We have two more months of discovery left, absent a stay. NDF remains willing to work towards an amicable resolution to scheduling his deposition but not at the expense of its motion and its right to seek appellate relief under NRAP 8(c).
NDF has accommodated every request for an extension made by the Real Parties in Interest in this case without question, whether before the NVSC or the District Court. It strikes NDF as a very reasonable request to not schedule depositions whilst we are seeking stay relief from the District Court and the NVSC, as there is more than enough time to get depositions done after the stay issue is resolved. Also, it is quite possible that Judge Freeman may not rule from the bench, but may take the matter under submission on Thursday, which means that we may still not know whether NDF's motion before the District Court is granted or denied.
I am sorry, but the notices do come as quite a surprise. You cannot expect NDF to waive its rights to notice under Rule 30(b)(1). Even in federal court where "reasonable notice" is the standard, and not 15 days' notice, every federal court would hold that one calendar weeks' notice is insufficient.
Best regards,
-SGS

Steve,
As you are aware the parties agreed to the current discovery schedule reserving these specific time periods so that our trial date could be preserved. While I understand that if Judge Freeman denies your motion you will seek relief from the NVSC any such relief would have to be granted prior to the scheduled depositions.
As you recall, when we finished our first round of depositions I informed you of my intention to finish Mr. Phillips deposition and asked for PMKs for budget and holding for our Feb. round of depos. Accordingly, the notices came as no surprise.
I will not vacate the notices. The depos will stay on calendar unless a stay is imposed or relief is granted in some other form. I have no objection to discussing these issues with court on Thursday.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - NDF's Response to Deposition Notices Received Today

Matter: Little Valley Prescribed Fire Case
Case #CV17-00225, et al.

Bill,

We received your notices of deposition this morning. This email again reiterates our previous discussions where NDF noted that it intends to seek emergency stay relief under NRAP 8(c) should Judge Freeman deny NDF's motion for stay. We expect you will do the same should Judge Freeman agree with NDF's arguments and grant a stay. Accordingly, we will not be attending next week's depositions consistent with the relief NDF is seeking before Judge Freeman and will seek before the NVSC, if necessary. By way of compromise, we can certainly make Gene available and the PMKs in March or April, assuming no stay is in place during those months.

Turning to the notices themselves, we have to object. The rule is no less than 15 days' notice. NRCP 30(b)(1). The notices received today do not comply with that rule. Again, we are willing to provide these witnesses in March, if no stay is in place, by way of compromise but we cannot waive the notice issue. Kindly let us know if you can agree to re-notice these depositions for March or if NDF must move for a protective order.

Best regards,

Steve;

I have had a chance to consider the contingencies you requested in terms of moving the disclosure deadline for experts. I additionally have had an opportunity to discuss with pltfs counsel the same. Unfortunately, but I don't believe surprisingly, we decline and we'll move forward as per our current scheduling order.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

NEWS AG ELECTION TRACKER AG GUIDE CONTRIBUTORS STATE AG PRACTICE

Dear Colleagues and Friends:

Cozen O'Connor's State Attorneys General (AG) practice is delighted to give you early access to our new State AG Election Tracker website that will officially roll out to wider audiences later this month. 2018 has the potential for significant policy changes, with 31 State AG elections, including 10 confirmed open seat races.

We developed the State AG Election Tracker to help our clients and others stay updated on the fast-moving State AG political landscape, and we hope the State AG Election Tracker will become your go-to resource for State AG election news, insights, polls, and predictions, as well as primary and election night real-time updates. We invite you to take a sneak peek by watching this short preview video. Click here or in the video to view.

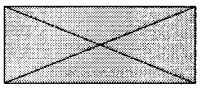

Sincerely,
Bernard Nash and Lori Kalani

Good morning Hillary!
I just wanted to let you know that the application has been completed but I'm being held up getting all of the Officer's signatures & other personal information they're requesting. We don't keep all the personal information for all of the officers on file so we have to collect it from each of them. The hard part is that they are not all at this location and one is on vacation. Currently I have all the SS# and Driver's license copies for all but one officer. That officer is out of the office until Monday. I will get his signature then and I will email the application to you.

I hate using you as a middle person for this so if you want me to contact the DOR directly just let me know.

Hi Kelli!
When you email it back to the Tax Department, if you wouldn't mind ccing me on it, I'll stay on what's happening and make sure it doesn't go sideways. It would probably help to remind them that you're just updating your application address to reflect your manufacturing plant. You shouldn't need to do anything to cancel your current license.

Let me know if you need anything else!

Let me know if you have any issues or questions on why you're doing this/who to send it to/etc. I had hoped the Department would just issue a new license with the manufacturing address, but they want an entire new application.

Ms. Bunker,

Existing Nevada law provides that a manufacturer license authorizes the license holder to sell cigarettes to wholesalers in the state, but the new legislation added that the sale be "from the premises for which the license was issued." We most commonly use the corporate office address, so wanted to confirm whether we may need to amend to reflect our PM USA Manufacturing address in Richmond, VA?

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

I have not been swallowed by an earthquake or swept out to sea by a hurricane. Rather, I've been preoccupied with my organization's own conference and then an allied conference. No excuse but just in case you were concerned with my safety the only concern I had was too much hotel food!
Now that we're back on the ranch let's try and forget my lapse and move forward. I propose a call for Monday the 25th or Tuesday the 26th for an hour so we can organize and divide up work. Please let me know your availability.
Thanks and sorry - and thank Jennifer who guilted me into resurfacing!

Ms. Bunker,
Existing Nevada law provides that a manufacturer license authorizes the license holder to sell cigarettes to wholesalers in the state, but the new legislation added that the sale be "from the premises for which the license was issued." We most commonly use the corporate office address, so wanted to confirm whether we may need to amend to reflect our PM USA Manufacturing address in Richmond, VA?

Kelli, here is the link for manufacturing license (basically you guys are getting a new license that has your corporate address AND your manufacturing plant address on it).
https://tax.nv.gov/uploadedFiles/taxnvgov/Content/Forms/Combined%20Cigarette%20and%20Other%20Tobacco%20Products%20Licenses%20Application%206-15-17A.pdf
Let me know if you have any issues or questions on why you're doing this/who to send it to/etc. I had hoped the Department would just issue a new license with the manufacturing address, but they want an entire new application.

Good morning Hillary!
I just wanted to let you know that the application has been completed but I'm being held up getting all of the Officer's signatures & other personal information they're requesting. We don't keep all the personal information for all of the officers on file so we have to collect it from each of them. The hard part is that they are not all at this location and one is on vacation. Currently I have all the SS# and Driver's license copies for all but one officer. That officer is out of the office until Monday. I will get his signature then and I will email the application to you.

It's not a problem at all! Listing 3 wholesale dealers will be fine so your application is complete, but I don't know why any of them would be contacted.

Hey, sorry to bother you again but this application is requiring us to put 3 business references but we're not sure what exactly they're looking for. Do you know if (1) this is necessary for a name change and (2) if so, are they looking for wholesalers?
I hate using you as a middle person for this so if you want me to contact the DOR directly just let me know.
Thanks,
Kelli

Hi Kelli!
When you email it back to the Tax Department, if you wouldn't mind ccing me on it, I'll stay on what's happening and make sure it doesn't go sideways. It would probably help to remind them that you're just updating your application address to reflect your manufacturing plant. You shouldn't need to do anything to cancel your current license.
Let me know if you need anything else!

I'll get right on this. Does this automatically cancel/replace the current license or do I need to do something to cancel it?

PENNSYLVANIA FOOD MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICER AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Camp Hill, Pennsylvania - The Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association (PFMA), a statewide trade association advocating for the retail food industry, is pleased to announce a new officer and six new members to its board of directors.

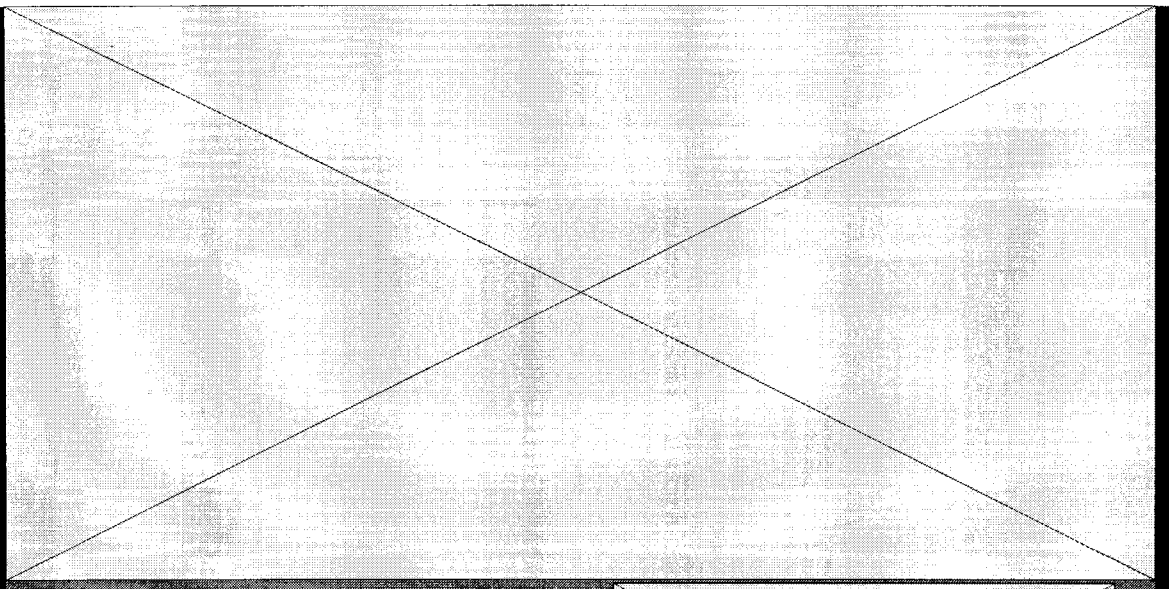

Lou Mola, Loss Prevention manager for Wawa, Inc. will take on the role of PFMA vice chairman from Rich Wood of Wawa, who has resigned his positon on the board of directors. Mola currently chairs PFMA's Loss Prevention (LP) Committee as well as LP committees for the Delaware Food Industry Council and the New Jersey Food Council. During his tenure, he was instrumental in getting legislation passed to combat Organized Retail Crime, and worked with the industry, law enforcement and government leaders to enact legislation creating the first dedicated retail crimes prosecutor in the United States. Prior to joining Wawa in 2013, he served as the Investigations Team Leader for Target Corporation and led a 44-person team focused on organized crime.

"PFMA is excited to have Lou Mola take on this leadership role as PFMA Vice Chairman," said Alex Baloga, PFMA president and CEO. "He is an effective leader for our Loss Prevention Committee and I know he will bring the same energy to our board of directors. Our thanks to Rich Wood for his leadership and service to the PFMA board for the past six years."

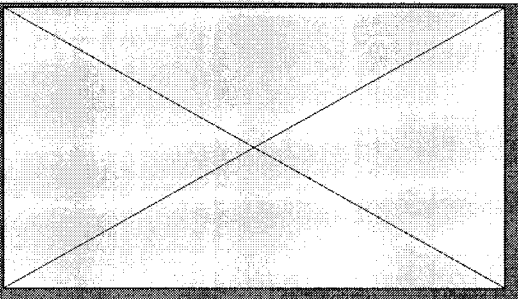

PFMA also appointed six new board members due to the retirement of Rich McMenamin, McMenamin Family ShopRites; and the departure of Lisa Silberman, A.J. Silberman & Company; and Gary McGuirk, Jr., Liberty USA, who sold their companies to Eby-Brown.

The new board members are:

- Patrick Burns, owner, Burns Neighborhood Markets, Philadelphia;
- Brent Cotten, senior director, Global Customer and Industry Affairs,
- The Hershey Company, Hershey, Pa.;

I don't think it will take the full hour to go through the first steps, perhaps we can start at 12:30 eastern and wrap up in 30 minutes?
Or do you think the first meeting can go on an hour later and I can circle back with you- meaning also since you're not there you'll get all the work assigned.
What do we think?

Hi All,

So we're due for a meeting/call next week to discuss where we left off from last time.

I've created a doodle for picking a meeting time, but so far only Jenn, Kara and I have responded (because we're clearly the best).

Chris, Tim, and Kenia- whenever you have a chance, if you could please respond, that would be great.

Here's the link again- I narrowed it down to 10 options for next week:

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Not sure if this is an agenda item or not but I was wondering if we could have a discussion on the creation of a centralized database of MSA approved cigarettes by state? Currently we are having to go to each state's directory, which may or may not be on the Internet, to determine what brands are allowed to be brought into the state and/or sold into the state. It would be awesome if this was in one location!

How One Border State is Paving the Way for NAFTA-Powered Jobs and Growth

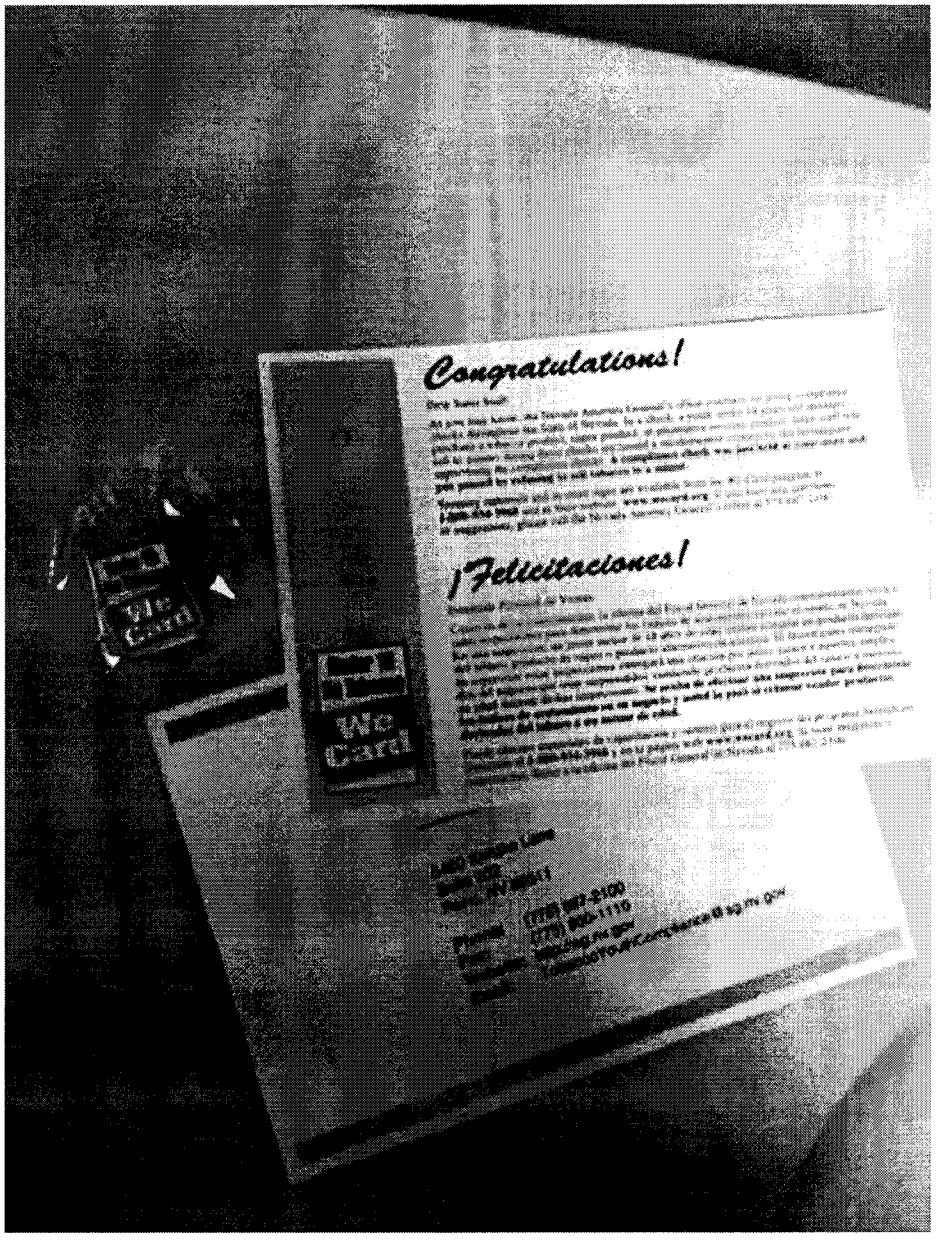

With negotiations to modernize the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) entering their seventh round this week, the push and pull of the trade talks is growing more intense.One hopeful sign is the fact that our elected officials are much better informed about the stakes in the NAFTA negotiations than they were just a few months ago.

Hi Hillary,
We have the We Card pins and cards available now to send to you.
Here's a picture of the pin and front and back side of the card.
The pins are individually wrapped and in larger packages of 100.
Years ago, I believe this is how it worked: We shipped you the cards and the pins. And the inspectors would hand the card & pin to the compliance check passing cashier.
I don't know if the Inspectors unwrapped the individual pins and then affixed them to the card. Doing so might pose them at risk to coming apart, falling off or otherwise ruining the flat card.
You mentioned a volume of about 170 checks/month. Shall I send about 2,000 to you now?
And am I shipping to you at this address?

Hi Jim,
I talked to Kelli a little bit about the fact that PM USA has an OTP wholesale license (see below).
The license is free and never expires, but if this is something that you don't believe you need, just let me know and I'll work with the Department.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺

I~~n an effort to keep~~Needing only one co-chair~~from the Forms Sub Committee~~, we have decided that Helen will stay on as the Industry co-chair and work with Kara on the new combined Sub Committee. Helen's perspective and breadth of state engagement on this particular committee's responsibility made her the best fit.~~issues~~ We~~are hoping~~anticipate that you will continue your leadership and participation~~still attend~~ at Uniformity and FTA meetings to offer a manufacturer's opinion and insight.

;;;Hi!
So first off I'm very excited for Basics; I've been wanting to go and this is the first time the timing worked out!

Second, I hope this doesn't cause an issue, but Monday works better for dinner. The DAG from South Carolina is driving in and will be there really late Sunday night.

It will be Jonathan Williams from SC and Amber Logsdon from IN. We're hoping at least one other AGO will be there, but that's TBD.

Does this screw everything up?

Hi Hillary-I hope you're having a swell Nevada Day. I'm going to make dinner reservations for Sunday, November 5th. Jim mentioned that you'd like to include 3 AGs. Would you mind sending me their names? Thanks!

Hi All,

As you know, there is a Uniformity meeting in January 2018 and we would like to provide a Brand Code Table update. So, we should probably have a call to see where we're at with this project and what the steps will be moving forward.

Please let me know what works for you from the following options:

A) Monday, December 11

11am EST

B) Tuesday, December 12

1030am EST

C) Wednesday, December 13

130pm EST

Thanks!

Not sure if this is an agenda item or not but I was wondering if we could have a discussion on the creation of a centralized database of MSA approved cigarettes by state? Currently we are having to go to each state's directory, which may or may not be on the Internet, to determine what brands are allowed to be brought into the state and/or sold into the state. It would be awesome if this was in one location!

hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

agreement on healthcare reform. The Senate is expected to recess on Friday, joining the House a week into their five week long summer recess.

Although there is some talk about another attempt at some manner of healthcare reform - a bipartisan Senate Health Education and Labor Committee hearing is being organized for September , and a bipartisan group of House members is working on a proposal to shore up the insurance exchanges - at this point the political will to take another run at full scale healthcare reform is not there.

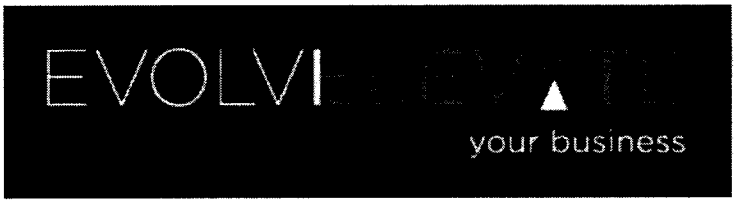

Administration officials and Republican leadership have moved on to tax reform (https://waysandmeans.house.gov/joint-statement-tax-reform/), and a coordinated effort to make the case to the American public will soon be underway. We can expect the fall to be all about tax reform, and CDA will be heavily engaged in the debate on your behalf.

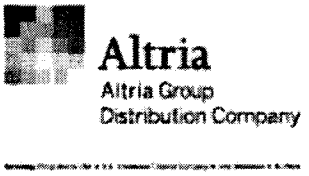

Menu Labeling Bill Moves through House Committee

CDA's retail partners have been closely watching an Obama-era rule to mandate menu labeling nationwide. This week a House Committee passed a bill to add flexibility to the law to make the rule workable for convenience, grocery and some restaurants. The Senate has not yet taken up a bill. FDA makes surprise announcements regarding nicotine, extends timeline for applications for newly regulated tobacco products

On an otherwise quiet Friday morning in July, FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb made the following significant announcements regarding FDA's regulation of tobacco and nicotine products:

- FDA will extend timelines to submit tobacco product review applications for newly regulated tobacco products that were on the market as of Aug. 8, 2016, as follows:
  - Applications for cigars, pipe tobacco and hookah tobacco will be due by Aug. 8, 2021
  - Applications for non-combustible products such as ENDS or e-cigarettes will be due by Aug. 8, 2022
  - The sunset provision for marketing during FDA's review of premarket applications will be lifted and manufacturers will be able to continue to market products while the agency reviews product applications
- FDA intends to issue Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemakings (ANPRMs) to:
  - Seek public comment on the role that flavors (including menthol) in tobacco products play in attracting youth and may play in helping some smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery
  - Solicit additional comments and scientific data related to the patterns of use and resulting public health impacts from premium cigars
  - Seek public comment on how to make combustible products less addictive or non-addictive
- FDA plans to examine actions to increase access and use of FDA-approved medicinal nicotine products, and work with sponsors to consider what steps can be taken under the safety and efficacy standard for products intended to help smokers quit.
- FDA plans to issue regulations outlining what information the agency expects to be included in:
  - Premarket Tobacco Applications (PMTAs),
  - Modified Risk Tobacco Product (MRTP) applications, and
  - Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.
- FDA plans to finalize guidance on how it intends to review PMTAs for ENDS.
- Dr. Gottlieb also indicated that FDA might reconsider whether to continue to use its resources to review certain pending provisional Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.

This announcement contains encouraging news for CDA members, as the timelines for applications for newly regulated tobacco products are extended significantly, and FDA explicitly states that products can be marketed during the application process. FDA will be issuing ANPRMs on a number of issues, including "determining what role flavors play in attracting youth and may play in helping smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery, and making cigarettes less or non – addictive." In these instances, CDA will continue to monitor and report on FDA activity on regulation of tobacco and nicotine products, and will advocate on behalf of thorough, science based regulations beneficial to the Convenience Distribution industry and our industry partners.

In Memory of Frank Davoli

CDA lost a dear friend and stalwart of the industry with the passing of Frank Davoli.

Frank, director of marketing at Richmond-Master Distributors, was known and loved by many, and will be missed by all.

Abiding by Frank's wishes there will be no memorial or funeral. Instead, it was his wish that friends and family gather to celebrate life, remember, and party, in Frank's name.

Our condolences to the Davoli family.

I am not going to have a lot of free time at this show and I'm now leaving early on Friday – you might have to deal with what I can grab – which we likely be very good and sweet. I have a lot of meetings throughout the show this year and formal dinners every night. Sigh.

Matt and Bill,

The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.

I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Bryan

Brian,

Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases.

In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.

We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Correction to my proposal below:
This could be accomplished if the subro plaintiffs agree to produce their claim files during the liability phase.

I don't agree. Plaintiffs proposed bifurcating liability and damages. Defendants agreed to this based upon the representation that plaintiffs would provide damages calculations as part of their 16.1 disclosures and respond to informal questionnaires. None of the subro plaintiffs objected to that approach or otherwise sought to be treated differently.
As discussed at the meeting, while we are fine with bifurcation, we need to obtain at least some information regarding damages at this stage. This could be accomplished if the subro plaintiffs agree to produce their claim files during the damages phase.

Hi!
So first off I'm very excited for Basics; I've been wanting to go and this is the first time the timing worked out!
Second, I hope this doesn't cause an issue, but Monday works better for dinner. The DAG from South Carolina is driving in and will be there really late Sunday night.
It will be Jonathan Williams from SC and Amber Logsdon from IN. We're hoping at least one other AGO will be there, but that's TBD.
Does this screw everything up?

Subject: What We're Watching: State of the Union 2018

;;;;;;;;;
;;;;;;;;;

[redacted]

This evening, President Trump will deliver his first State of the Union Address, highlighting his administration's first year of progress and outlining his top priorities for the year ahead. Along with Americans across the country, the U.S. Chamber will be listening intently to the speech to see what the administration aims to achieve this year.

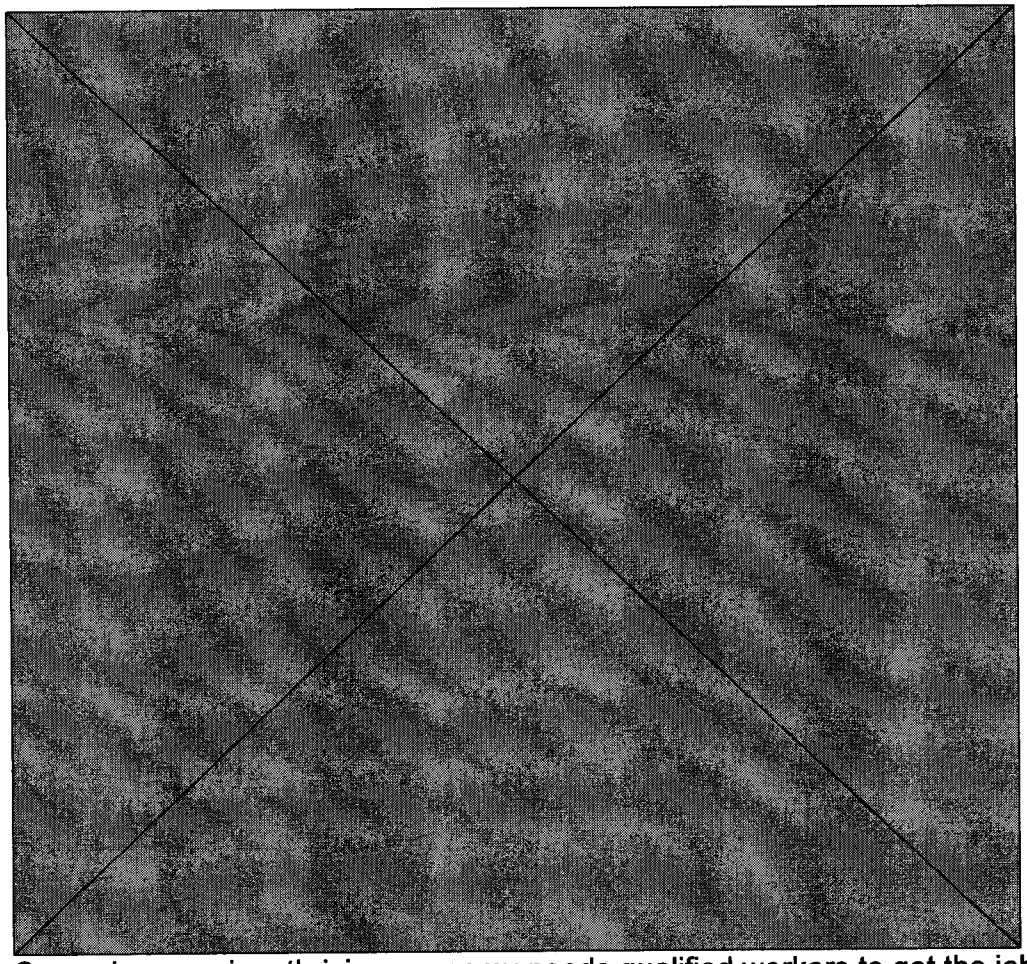

We hope to see President Trump lay out a vision for more pro-growth policies that build upon the economic momentum from last year's tax reform and successful regulatory rollback. Most importantly, the 2018 agenda should help ensure economic growth is strengthened, sustained, and shared across the country.

How does our country continue along this pro-growth path? Earlier this month, U.S. Chamber President and CEO Tom Donohue laid out the Chamber's vision for 2018 and what we hope lawmakers can achieve this year. Here's what we're listening for:

First, we must modernize our nation's infrastructure. As Donohue said, "We cannot build a 21st century economy on 20th century infrastructure." At a recent summit, Donohue laid out the Chamber's four-point plan:

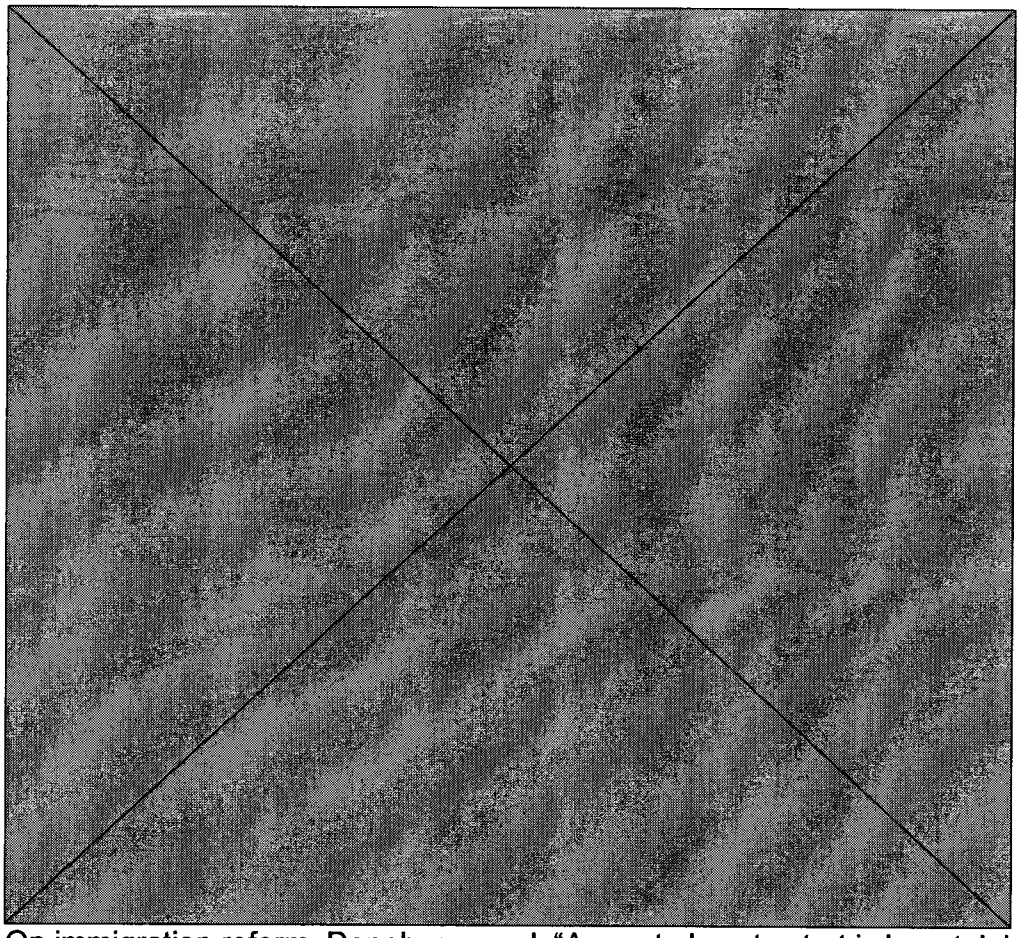

- Increasing the federal fuel user fee by 25 cents
- Implementing a multi-faceted approach for leveraging more public and private resources
- Streamlining the permitting process at the federal, state, and local level
- Expanding the American workforce through work-based learning and immigration reform

As Donohue said at the infrastructure summit, "This is the next great opportunity to do something significant, something long-lasting, and something long overdue, for our nation's future. And it will benefit all of us."

Second, a growing, thriving economy needs qualified workers to get the job done. That means we must act to ensure our workers are ready for 21st century jobs as well as move forward on smart immigration reform.

In his 2018 "State of American Business" address, Donohue said, "The Chamber believes that we need an all-of-the-above approach to address the dual challenge of people without jobs, and jobs without people."

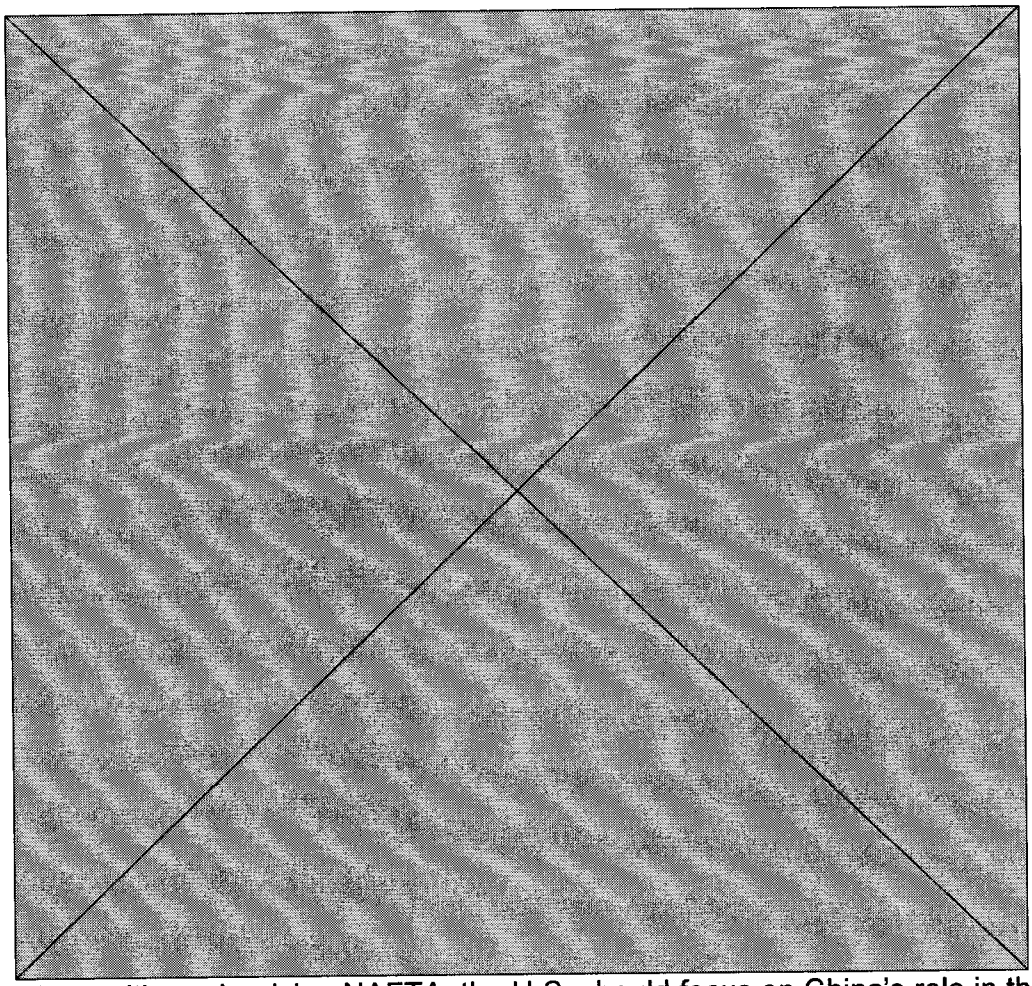

On immigration reform, Donohue urged, "A great place to start is by retaining the over 1 million individuals who are currently allowed to work here legally – but are at risk of losing that status."

We're calling on Congress to quickly take action to protect the roughly 200,000 TPS beneficiaries, the over 30,000 spouses of high-skilled visa holders, and the some 690,000 Dreamers in our country.

Qualified, talented workers are critical to keep this economy moving. Donohue believes, "The bottom line is that we can't strengthen and sustain economic growth if we don't expand and support our workforce."

Finally, continued economic growth means the U.S. must protect and advocate for free and fair trade. Over 95% of consumers live outside of the United States, so modernizing our current trade agreements – such as NAFTA and KORUS – and seeking new ones is crucial to a successful economy.

On the importance of free and fair trade, Donohue stated, "Trade is how we shape the reality of globalization to benefit American businesses, consumers, and workers. And if we aren't leading on trade, we're falling behind."

Along with modernizing NAFTA, the U.S. should focus on China's role in the global economy. The White House is right to focus on China's policies. And as Donohue urged, "The status quo is not sustainable, but we need a smart approach. We need to work with allies in Europe, Japan, and elsewhere to forge a common response to China's state capitalism."

We anticipate another year of working alongside the administration and Congress to address these top issues and to expand growth and opportunity in this country.

Much was achieved last year, and we have a great opportunity to put policies in place to sustain economic growth, job creation, and American prosperity.

Let's get to work.

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺

Subject: Petitioners' Request to Continue their Reply Deadline from March 13 until April 16, 2018

All,

With the Subrogated Insurers filing their answering brief later today, the Petitioners deadline to file their reply briefs is March 13, 2018.

Petitioners would like an extension of time until Monday, April 16, 2018, to get all of their briefs on file. Could you please let us know if you all have any objections? Petitioners will be moving for an extension of time and would like to note if their motion is opposed or unopposed.

Best regards,

-SGS

Good morning Debra,

I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Please give me a call when you have a few minutes to talk and I will try to make myself available. There is no rush and I just wanted to speak with you more about your suggestion of a special response team made up of individuals across the nation. I agree that this would be beneficial as long as we can gain some backing of the idea. I am also interested in hearing about your experience with this year's conference.

Have a great rest of your day and I look forward to speaking with you.

Kindest regards,

Kevin

Hillary & Beth,
Did some research with Kelli's help. We have confirmed that no brand family state requires a supplemental certification for Marlboro Ice or any SKU under Marlboro. For as long as my memory serves me - we have treated NV as a brand family state. CA and WA are both brand style states. IL is a brand family state but requires a letter from us on proof of SE compliance and does not require a supplemental. We can send that to you moving forward if that helps.
Regarding FSC – Our Regulatory Affairs group sends an FSC certification application to the state fire marshal for any added SKU under the Marlboro brand family. The NV fire marshal would have received this for Marlboro Ice approximately December 14th of 2017.
Please call me to discuss further.

Subject: Pre-January Meeting Call

Hi All,

In anticipation of our January Uniformity meeting we're going to have a pre-call on Monday, November 27, 2017 at 1:30 EST. I just picked a time because we're up against the holidays so we don't have a lot of options.

Here's what we're looking at for the phone call:

1. Overview of Spokane and if anything worked well or did not work well

2. Each Sub Committee will discuss what they want on the agenda for their time at the San Antonio meeting

3. Each Sub Committee will be thinking of any documents they will need that have to be printed

4. Be thinking about two potential new additions to the Uniformity meeting structure

    a. Having a guest speaker type presentation. Cindy said motor fuels has a speaker at their Uniformity meetings on the last day, so I think it's something we could discuss, either Industry or a State or Vendor, just something to add so it's not us talking the whole time. We sort of inadvertently started this in Spokane with TMA presenting and I think it was a good addition.

    b. Consider a sub group of sub committees that would be subject matter experts. I'm thinking OTP, e-cigarettes, vendors, etc. They wouldn't necessarily present, but if there are any new committees or sub groups of people that we would want to include, now or in the later future.

5. Call in number is 855-306-6315, no pin required.

Thanks! Hope everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving.

Counsel;
I'm assuming all will agree to stipulate that the cases are exempt from arbitration? Additionally, the proposed Status Report does not have a date for answers to be filed. All dates are triggered off of the filing of Notice of Entry (which will occur within the hour). Accordingly, we could be disclosing 16.1 documents without knowing the defts affirmative defenses.

Matt and Bill,
The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.
I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Subject: RE: Little Valley Fire - Joint Status Report

Brian,
Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases. In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.
We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

State Association Executive Summit

Attendance was up for this year's State Association Executive Summit, where executives from around the country assembled in Washington, D.C. to meet with counterparts to network, exchange information and learn both of challenges and strategies to deal with issues that confront them all as an industry. Enjoy this short video recap of the Summit.

A PRODUC

"This is an exceptional group of individuals!" said Kimberly Bolin, CDA's president & CEO. Our industry is fortunate to have state association executives from coast to coast that work so well together and are willing to share their stories and throw out ideas to support one another. CDA members benefit immensely from the lines of communication being open at the state and national level.

Bolin noted, "there are many ways that this group can work together to protect and promote wholesale distributors in the convenience channel. Several initiatives were identified with goals ranging from distributor input for uniform tobacco tax reporting to activating on local, state and federal issues."

Held at the historic Hay-Adams Hotel October 4-5, the event took place over a twenty-four hour period with executives arriving Wednesday and getting right to work. The substantial schedule provided the group with a wide variety of subject matter from Washington insights to legalization of marijuana to industry issues that directly impact members.

"I would strongly recommend attending the State Association Executive Summit," commented Alex Baloga, Pennsylvania Food Merchants Assn. "It's an important event for anyone concerned with future issues that might impact their members' businesses and the industry as a whole."

To the right, catching up at the Summit reception are (l-r) Jeff Smith, North Carolina Wholesaler Assn.; Polly Reber, Michigan Distributors & Vendors Assn.; Dave Riser, RAI Trade Marketing Services Co.; Jeff Smith, Virginia Wholesalers & Distributors Assn.; Beth Wymer, Ohio Wholesale Marketers Assn.; and Tom Briant, Minnesota Wholesale Marketers Assn.

"The Summit is an outstanding event which allows those of us involved in the legislative/regulatory process a time to network with those who do what we do," said Greg Martin, Southern Assn. of Wholesale Distributors. "The updates from the major tobacco companies, as well as the other speakers on the program, are extremely informative and help me to do my job better."

"I think this meeting is incredibly valuable. It's an opportunity for executives to share ideas, find out what's going on across the country and to talk about effective ways we can address issues that are important to the industry," said David Tatman, Louisiana Association of Wholesalers. "It's great to be in D.C. with other people that do what you do, and it's just something that I wouldn't miss."

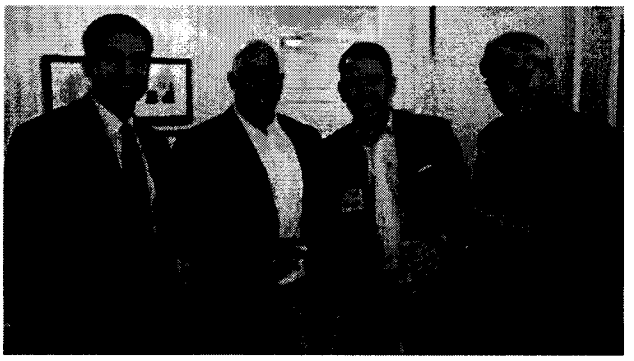

The recognition of the importance of this group and support by supplier partners AGDC and RAITMS is phenomenal. They provide a very unique and beneficial platform for this group to assemble.

Networking at the Summit are (l-r) Alex Baloga, Pennsylvania Food Merchants Assn.; Tim Harris, Eby-Brown Co.; Jim Pulsifer, Altria Group Distribution Co.; and Ron Morris, Kentucky Tobacco & Candy Assn.

FTA Tobacco Tax Uniformity

The Federation of Tax Administrator (FTA) has developed a uniform tobacco tax reporting initiative that promotes a more streamlined process for documenting tobacco tax and other information and submitting it to the states.

Tim Harris, tobacco tax manager, Eby-Brown Co., and co-chair of the FTA's tobacco uniformity committee, outlined the many benefits of tobacco tax uniformity during CDA's recent State Executive Summit. He pointed out the importance of

On Wednesday, Pres. Trump travelled to Pennsylvania to pitch the nation's truckers on the benefits of his tax plan. There has been some concern that the President's continuing spat with retiring Sen. Bob Corker would hinder his ability to get tax reform through the Senate. We are a long way from a bill, but the President continues to make his case for his plan to lower rates and will also tout the provision that gives companies a one-time opportunity to bring back, or "repatriate" income from overseas without penalty.

Four Generations, One Workforce:
Valuing Generational Differences in a Family Business

Generational labels have created a generalized description of an entire population – some of it based on facts, yet much based on over-simplifications. Regardless of definition, today the U.S. workforce is composed of four major generations, each with members who were influenced by the events and technology in which they were born. This article from the Family Business Consulting Group (FBCG) explores how these multiple generations in the workforce can affect a family business.

Hillary – Are these recent changes in Nevada regarding cigarette returns from distributors?
Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
- List who destroyed them

These are all really good.
I tried calling you, but you didn't answer (of course).
We're also going to add a couple vendors to the panel as well. Actually I don't know if we've discussed who is going to be on it, but I have that info too.
Give me a call if you have a chance today-

I'm planning on sending these out to the panelists this afternoon.

Ideas on question for state panelists
What system do you use currently?
Assuming they have made the transition to uniformity, what was the first step in the process for you?
Why did you decide to go uniform?
What are some of the benefits of uniformity? Or what is the biggest benefit of uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Considering that 48 other states are not uniform, what advice would give them about your process?
If all states were uniform, what would that world look like in your opinion?
Ideas on question for industry panelists
Pick a state. What is the typical manhours produced to execute monthly workload? Or, walk us through a typical day in the life of a person responsible for state level reporting?
What would a uniform system mean to you? What would it mean to the industry?
What is your relationship with state personnel you do business with today? If there is one thing that could/should change, what would it be?
What is the biggest benefit for uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Call me when you get a chance.

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- How did you obtain funding?
- Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Hi Jim,

As a follow up to our phone call, I was at the TPE tradeshow yesterday in Las Vegas and came across a vendor who was promoting their product 'Cigaresso' (picture attached). However, they were using it with Marlboro HeatSticks to sample. As you are aware, we do not allow sampling of cigarettes at any venue in the State, even at business related tradeshows. We have not had issues in the past with Philip Morris brand products being sampled, so I wanted to bring this to your attention.

I attached the vendor's card and information, but please let me know if you need anything else.

Thank you for sending this, Reva.

Following up on Gary's last email regarding the deadline to file dispositive motions, the parties agreed in the joint status report that the filing deadline would be 30 days after close of discovery. This draft lists the deadline as both "07/06/18" and "30 days after Discovery". We think "07/06/18" should be changed to "00/00/00"— similar to what you did with the other deadlines dependent on when discovery actually commences/closes.

Additionally, but of lesser importance, in Section I, Paragraph P, I am listed as counsel for plaintiffs instead of UNR. Finally, the description/order of Exhibits 2-7 on the Exhibit List (page 12) does not match the description/order of those exhibits contained on pages 6 & 7.

Thank you,

Bryan

Now that we have a trial date I need to put the dates in. So discovery is going to be 180 day from the filing of the JCCR correct? I can state that we are filing it on Thursday to give everyone time to give me their signatures back and go from that day. Will that work?

Counsel;

Yesterday the court accepted my request that a Meet and Confer to discuss discovery, bifurcation , trial dates , scheduling order in anticipation of the court's order on the Motions to Dismiss. The following dates are available on my schedule and I would ask that everyone check dates on their calendar. Aug. 21,224 or Sept. 1. I prefer later dates as it gives counsel time to consider their proposals. Please correspond your availability on these dates and we will try to organize the meeting. We have a large conference room and would be more than happy to host.

PENNSYLVANIA FOOD MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICER AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Camp Hill, Pennsylvania - The Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association (PFMA), a statewide trade association advocating for the retail food industry, is pleased to announce a new officer and six new members to its board of directors.

Lou Mola, Loss Prevention manager for Wawa, Inc. will take on the role of PFMA vice chairman from Rich Wood of Wawa, who has resigned his positon on the board of directors. Mola currently chairs PFMA's Loss Prevention (LP) Committee as well as LP committees for the Delaware Food Industry Council and the New Jersey Food Council. During his tenure, he was instrumental in getting legislation passed to combat Organized Retail Crime, and worked with the industry, law enforcement and government leaders to enact legislation creating the first dedicated retail crimes prosecutor in the United States. Prior to joining Wawa in 2013, he served as the Investigations Team Leader for Target Corporation and led a 44-person team focused on organized crime.

"PFMA is excited to have Lou Mola take on this leadership role as PFMA Vice Chairman," said Alex Baloga, PFMA president and CEO. "He is an effective leader for our Loss Prevention Committee and I know he will bring the same energy to our board of directors. Our thanks to

I had not seen a listing of the additional questions that were to be added to the booklet. I did add one question that Helen e-mailed me and that will go out on the questionnaire given to the states that had yet to respond. I can also add the below question if that is what everyone would like.
I was unsure what process we were to use to get annual updates from the states that had already responded.

I know that we had a few suggestions on additional questions to be added to the booklet. Did we want to ask at the January meeting and vote to include them and send the questionnaire back out to states for updates, or were you all planning on sending the booklet out before the January meeting?
The only question I could remember is one that Helen and I ran into that Jerry brought up as well. It had to do with which states stamp little cigars and if so, do you allow a credit if the pack has less sticks than the stamp placed on the package.

Hilary's e-mail reminded me that I had not sent you the latest and greatest TTIBS. Please see attached. Changes are outlined below.

- TOC is in the footer section and found on each page. As a user I would want the ability to go back to the TOC on any page not just at the end of each state. To make it work it is a two click process. One click to get into the footer and then ctrl-click to make the hyperlink work.
- All sections contained in the document are outlined on P3
- A contact page was added in the document on P4.

Please let me know if you have any questions or feedback. Thank you!

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺
Can't wait to see everyone in Washington! (Feel free to pass onto others who may be interested.)

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
- List who destroyed them

Nevada was an important addition to these United States. We were made a state during the Civil War shortly before the presidential election. Hence our nickname of the "Battle Born" state.

place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺ Can't wait to see everyone in Washington! Good afternoon! Just a reminder of the below email that some of us are going on the Spokane River Float Trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm (after the Uniformity meeting). I went ahead and contacted ROW Adventure Center. They have set us up with a group name of "FTA Tobacco". If you would like to float on the river, please call Rachel Osgood at (208) 770-2517 ext 822 to reserve your spot. The cost is $77. She can only guarantee a spot if you call in to reserve and pay for your spot. She also recommended the sooner the better to ensure they don't book up for that day. Hope you can join us, and I look forward to seeing you all next month! Please feel free to forward this email to anybody else that may be interested.

Subject: Spokane River Float Trip

Good afternoon! It was great seeing a lot of you in Savannah last week at the Uniformity Meeting. The FTA Annual Tobacco Meeting will be here before we know it – I can't believe it is already May. I just wanted to pass along some info (as some of us were discussing this last week). For those interested, we are planning on going on a Spokane River Float trip on Saturday, August 19th at 2:00 pm. The rafting place is less than a half mile from the hotel. It is about a 3.5 hour trip down the river and costs $70/person. It won't be as much whitewater rafting as the water levels drop off from the June highs, but it is still supposed to be a nice, relaxing, and scenic trip with a few waves. The company said that we should be okay if we book no later than mid-July, so if you are interested let me know before then..... ☺
Can't wait to see everyone in Washington! (Feel free to pass onto others who may be interested.)

Brian,
Here are our revisions. We want to reflect that we agreed to a trial date of August 6, 2018 and that Plaintiffs and Defendants will work together to mutually agree to a questionnaire. I have in mind something similar to what was utilized in the Endoscopy Cases.
In light of the Court's rulings, we should do a notice to set to preserve the trial and to set a NRCP 16.1 so we can develop a complete scheduling order.
We will confer on the Plaintiffs' end for dates. Let us know when the defense is available.

Matt and Bill,
The University is not in disagreement regarding the August trial date. The statement including in the first draft was that we agreed to the August date assuming the Court's order came out this month and discovery started next month, which is consistent with what we said at the meeting. We now have the order, so the issue is moot.
I have attached a revised report, incorporating Matt's edits and making slight changes to the trial section based upon the fact that we now have the court's ruling. Please review and let me know if you approve.

Subject: 16.1 Disclosures

Counsel;

The Status Report agreed to by the parties set 16.1 Disclosures for 14 days post filing of the Notice of Entry on the court's order denying dismissal. The Notice of entry was filed on Sept. 7, initial disclosures would then be due Sept. 21. The pltfs will be making a collective disclosure as to liability and individual disclosures as to damages as outlined in the Status Report. Pltfs initial liability disclosures will be relatively voluminous and as such it will in all likelihood take us until Monday the 25th have it in final form. If this creates hardship for the defts please let me know immediately.

Hi Jim,
I talked to Kelli a little bit about the fact that PM USA has an OTP wholesale license (see below).
The license is free and never expires, but if this is something that you don't believe you need, just let me know and I'll work with the Department.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- How did you obtain funding?
- Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

- Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Ideas on question for state panelists

What system do you use currently?
Assuming they have made the transition to uniformity, what was the first step in the process for you?
Why did you decide to go uniform?
What are some of the benefits of uniformity? Or what is the biggest benefit of uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Considering that 48 other states are not uniform, what advice would give them about your process?
If all states were uniform, what would that world look like in your opinion?

Ideas on question for industry panelists

Pick a state. What is the typical manhours produced to execute monthly workload? Or, walk us through a typical day in the life of a person responsible for state level reporting?
What would a uniform system mean to you? What would it mean to the industry?
What is your relationship with state personnel you do business with today? If there is one thing that could/should change, what would it be?
What is the biggest benefit for uniformity? Be as specific as possible.
Call me when you get a chance.

The date for the Training class is approaching fast and here is some information on the dress code for the Manufacturing tour on Tuesday. You will need long pants and no open toe shoes. See you soon.

TOUR GUIDELINES

According to the company's GMP Personnel Practices, effective 12/01/11, the following practices for all personnel including visitors in processing and packaging areas will be implemented.

- Personal items such as pens, pencils, papers, ID badges, etc. shall be kept at or below the waist. Safety PPE and eyeglasses (prescription or reading) are exempted.
- Jewelry (earrings, visible or exposed piercings, bracelets, necklaces, rings with stone or settings, etc.) shall not be worn in any production area. Exempted are plain wedding bands (no settings) and wristwatches, and approved medical alert bracelets or necklaces (medical alert necklaces must be tucked into shirt neckline).
- Consumption of food, drink, candy or the use of tobacco products is prohibited in manufacturing areas and is permitted only in designated areas such as break rooms, offices and control rooms.

Close toed comfortable shoes should be worn when touring. No open toed shoes, sandals or high heels will be allowed.

No photography allowed on manufacturing floor.

Let me know what you think.

Hi Mark,

We wanted to reach out to you to discuss a change in the Uniformity Sub Committees. After Barb made her announcement in Spokane that she was stepping down, Tim and Cindy and I spoke about the future of the group as a whole and what direction to go in. At this point, it makes sense to combine the Forms and Technology Sub Committees since the work they are doing it so intertwined. Unfortunately, this leaves us with two Industry co-chairs on that particular Sub Committee. In an effort to keep one co-chair from the Forms Sub Committee, we have decided that Helen will stay on as the Industry co-chair and work with Kara on the new combined Sub Committee. We are hoping that you will still attend Uniformity and FTA meetings to offer a manufacturer's opinion and insight.

Thanks for all your work over the last 2 years in helping to really get Uniformity up and running. We look forward to your input in Uniformity going forward.

Hi Jim,
I've been awaiting this exact email from you. I can't provide you an answer right now, but I hope to be able to next week after I talk with the Tax Department. Tomorrow is Nevada Day so all state offices are closed.
I'll ask you a different question. If a wholesaler wants to return product, would you as a manufacturer always require that the product be sent back or would you allow the wholesaler to destroy it on site? This could be for damaged, stale, recalled, etc. product.

Hillary – Are these recent changes in Nevada regarding cigarette returns from distributors?
Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
- List who destroyed them

Subject: DRAFT- Brand Code Table

Hi All,
Please feel free to add/delete/modify anything in the email below.
Hi Cindy,
Tim and I wanted to reach out to you on behalf of the Brand Code Table subcommittee that has been meeting since Spokane. After numerous emails and phone calls, we would like to discuss the option of having FTA post the Table on the tobacco portion of their website.
As you know, we have reached out to a couple different private sector companies regarding their ability to host the table and it does not appear that having an outside, private entity will be the best move for this project. The Table will need to be regularly maintained and worked on in perpetuity, and this will happen through a subcommittee of the Uniformity Committee. This also eliminates any complaints that there is a conflict of interest in an entity hosting the Table when they also have a pay portion of their website that Industry members may not be part of.
Overall, this seems to be a better fit for FTA to post on their website. We envision keeping the same small subcommittee that has been working on this since Spokane, and potentially recruiting additional volunteers. The Table is similar to the TTIBS document in that the subcommittee will perform all work related to the document, including reaching out to manufacturers and updating the Table every 3-6 months, depending on workload and what seems to work for Industry (I know you reached out to States for TTIBS, but the subcommittee would reach out to manufacturers directly). FTA would only be responsible for posting the Table, like they do the TTIBS document, with a similar disclaimer that FTA is not responsible for the content of the document and interested parties should contact their individual state with any questions. The Table is only meant to be a recommendation of something to use and is not required for any State or Industry member, regardless of their participation in Uniformity. Finally, we are only discussing posting the cigarette Brand Code Table at this point as it is easier to create and maintain.

If you would like to have a call on this before January, Tim and I can make ourselves available to discuss. The subcommittee has run through a lot of different options and keeps coming back to the FTA website as the one that makes the most sense.
Thanks!

Subject: Uniformity Update

Hi All,

Just wanted to touch base with some updates on what's happening in Uniformity!

- Save the Dates!!
  - January 17-18, 2018- Uniformity Meeting in San Antonio, TX
  - April 18-19, 2018- Uniformity Meeting in Portsmouth, VA
  - August 17-18, 2018- Uniformity (Pre-Annual) Meeting in Orlando, FL
- Brand Code Table
  - This working group has begun discussions on the Brand Code Table and will be soliciting information from Manufacturers in the near future
  - Committee members are: Tim Harris, Kenia Maldonado (Altria), Kara Parga, Hillary Bunker, Jenn Skinner (SICPA), Chris Greer (TMA)
- Uniformity Presentations
  - Last month I presented at the NAAG (National Association of Attorneys General) annual tobacco meeting
  - Tim is presenting this week at the CDA conference in Washington, DC
- Sub Committees
  - With Barb's departure we have combined the Forms and Technology Sub Committees into 1 Sub Committee that encompasses both topics and the co-chairs are Kara and Helen. We appreciate the input and hard work that Barb and Mark offered over the last 2 years and look forward to seeing where this new Sub Committee goes.

Thanks to everyone for all your work at the Annual- I received a lot of good feedback of how the Uniformity meeting was structured and the different topics we covered. We will set a call in early December to start discussing what we want to do at the January meeting- it will be here before you know it!

MSA NOTICE PARTIES:

Please note that the Settling States will host a meeting with the Independent Auditor on Thursday, March 1st 2018, beginning at 10:00 am EST, at the NAAG offices in Washington, DC. The primary purpose of the meeting is to discuss the upcoming MSA payment calculations, payments and payment distributions in order to address any questions and ensure timely and accurate distribution of payments/credits to all parties.

We request that any Participating Manufacturer representatives that anticipate attending the meeting in person RSVP with NAAG by emailing Ms. Erjona Fatusha at efatusha@naag.org no later than Thursday, February 22nd. A teleconference line will be available for those who wish to participate remotely.

An agenda for the meeting will be circulated to MSA Notice Parties prior to March 1st.

Hi Hillary,
We have the We Card pins and cards available now to send to you.
Here's a picture of the pin and front and back side of the card.
The pins are individually wrapped and in larger packages of 100.
Years ago, I believe this is how it worked: We shipped you the cards and the pins. And the inspectors would hand the card & pin to the compliance check passing cashier.
I don't know if the Inspectors unwrapped the individual pins and then affixed them to the card. Doing so might pose them at risk to coming apart, falling off or otherwise ruining the flat card.
You mentioned a volume of about 170 checks/month. Shall I send about 2,000 to you now?
And am I shipping to you at this address?

Hi All,
So we're due for a meeting/call next week to discuss where we left off from last time.
I've created a doodle for picking a meeting time, but so far only Jenn, Kara and I have responded (because we're clearly the best).
Chris, Tim, and Kenia- whenever you have a chance, if you could please respond, that would be great.
Here's the link again- I narrowed it down to 10 options for next week:

God no!
I don't think it will take the full hour to go through the first steps, perhaps we can start at 12:30 eastern and wrap up in 30 minutes?
Or do you think the first meeting can go on an hour later and I can circle back with you- meaning also since you're not there you'll get all the work assigned.
What do we think?

Hi all,
Our auditor scheduled a review vet close to or call its the only time she can do. I believe it will run over and I cannot miss it as I have a board meeting on Tuesday.
Can we move our call back an hour?

Hi Jim,
I talked to Kelli a little bit about the fact that PM USA has an OTP wholesale license (see below).
The license is free and never expires, but if this is something that you don't believe you need, just let me know and I'll work with the Department.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

Hi Jim,
As a follow up to our phone call, I was at the TPE tradeshow yesterday in Las Vegas and came across a vendor who was promoting their product 'Cigaresso' (picture attached). However, they were using it with Marlboro HeatSticks to sample. As you are aware, we do not allow sampling of cigarettes at any venue in the State, even at business related tradeshows. We have not had issues in the past with Philip Morris brand products being sampled, so I wanted to bring this to your attention.
I attached the vendor's card and information, but please let me know if you need anything else.

Hi Sissy!
I figured by this time everyone must have been informed of your upcoming retirement ☺ ☹. So I wanted to reach out and see when your last day was going to be and how you were doing!
Also, I wanted to tell you that it's been really refreshing to work with you, even in a limited capacity, over the last year+. I was blown away with how you jumped right in to leading a workgroup, figured out what pieces you could bring to the group, and went forward with it. There were many times that you asked the questions I was thinking or raised the issues that I had written down. To me, you quickly figured out some of the basic questions that we needed to answer to get to where we want to be in the future (even if these haven't all been answered). Our brains were more in sync than you even know and because of that, I'm really going to miss you being part of this group.
This email doesn't do it justice, but just know that I haven't worked with a lot of people who have all the qualities that you have and make work easier and better!
I'll miss you and I hope you're doing well!

So here's loosely what I'm thinking of, but I'm open to anything else!
Let's talk next week- just let me know when you have availability. I'm in 730-430 PST.
I will have presented overall on Monday, so for the panel the Technology Chair is going to do a brief timeline of how long this would take a state to implement and then we'll get into questions:

Questions for State Panelists

- ∀ When did you decide you wanted to use electronic reporting and Uniformity (i.e., how long ago)?
- ∀ How did you obtain funding?
- ∀ Is this a requirement- via regulation or legislation?

Questions for Industry Panelists

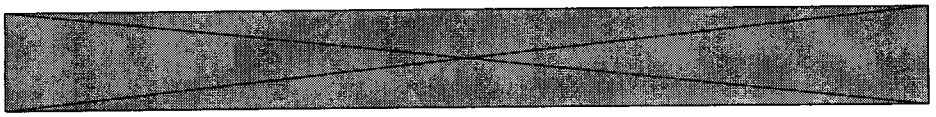

- ∀ Why is this important as a wholesale dealer?
- ∀ How long would it take you to implement a new reporting requirement, such as Kentucky?
- ∀ Do states solicit feedback and make changes?

And thanks- I appreciate your perspective and thoughts.
Hope Montana is fun!

Subject: RE: Webinar for Uniformity in January

;;;;;;
Thanks Cindy!
For those of you who did not know, we have the ability again to do a webinar for the tech piece of the Uniformity meeting. The announcements below will go out to the FTA government listserv and the CDA Industry listserv.
Don and Dawn- you reviewed this before Spokane, but if you could do a quick once over (I changed the dates, location, and link) before Kara and Tim circulate, that would be great. If possible by the end of the day tomorrow.
Note there are 2 versions below and I've highlighted the differences for ease of review:

EMAIL TO CDA VIA TIM

The Uniformity Committee is excited to announce that on Wednesday, January 17 from 9:30am-Noon CST the Technology Committee will be hosting a Technology Technical Session that will be available for webinar viewing. This is a Breakout Session taking place during our January Uniformity meeting and will be broadcast live for those that cannot make it to the meeting in San Antonio next month.
The target audience of this webinar are those people directly involved in technology and electronic reporting at your company. The intent of this webinar is to update and discuss technical issues surrounding the uniform cigarette and tobacco XML schemas. We will be covering the following topics:

∀ Schema Updates
∀ Brand Code Table
∀ Filing guide reorganization and suggestions
∀ Discuss options to mapping data to Tax Returns or a Cover Sheet
∀ Other filing options for the "Little Guy"
∀ KY eFile status update
∀ Discussion on specific issues that have come up in order to provide precedents for reporting going forward

Please note that the only Session that will be available via webinar is the Technical Session on Wednesday morning. If you are interested in attending, please use the link below to register:
https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/700922557408852227
There is no cost to attend this webinar and you will have the opportunity to ask questions as the information is being presented.
If you have any questions about topics, please contact the Uniformity Industry Co-Chair Tim Harris at Tim.Harris@eby-brown.com. For questions regarding registration or connection issues, please contact Ryan Minnick at ryan.minnick@taxadmin.org.

Hi Jim,
I talked to Kelli a little bit about the fact that PM USA has an OTP wholesale license (see below).
The license is free and never expires, but if this is something that you don't believe you need, just let me know and I'll work with the Department.

So you guys had one (not sure how long it's been in existence), so that's why it was reissued. In Nevada OTP wholesale licenses are free and never expire, hence the weird expiration date.
This is the list of retailers/wholesalers/manufacturers. It looks like you don't have a cigarette wholesale license, just manufacturing and OTP wholesale.

Hillary,
I just realized that the 2nd page of the attachment is actually a 2nd license. One as a OTP Wholesale Dealer. I didn't fill out any of the application that is specific to that license. I don't have a record of us holding one before but I notice that the expiration date is 12-31-9999. I just wanted to make sure we were meant to get that?

I would like to give you a straight answer, but I'm sure you've been in touch with at least one wholesaler (or Nat Sherman has) on this issue and understand there's some discrepancies in what the statute says versus what has been done by the Department.

I've been awaiting this exact email from you. I can't provide you an answer right now, but I hope to be able to next week after I talk with the Tax Department. Tomorrow is Nevada Day so all state offices are closed.
I'll ask you a different question. If a wholesaler wants to return product, would you as a manufacturer always require that the product be sent back or would you allow the wholesaler to destroy it on site? This could be for damaged, stale, recalled, etc. product.

Statute language now requiring, (or enforcing) information contained in the manufacturer affidavit.

1. Only refund money if the stamp has been purchased within a year, stamp #'s need to be tracked.

2. They will only refund on stale dated returns not damaged.

3. The verbiage on the Affidavits is no longer valid and it must include the following in addition to the number of packs destroyed;

- The date or dates on which the cigarettes were destroyed
- Place where they were destroyed
- That the cigarettes were destroyed because they had become stale
- List who destroyed them

Pursuant to NRS 370.695 wholesalers can no longer purchase, possess in this state or sell in this state the above removed cigarettes. Additionally, no wholesaler may apply Nevada indicia to this product. These restrictions are effective as of the date on this notice.

Every wholesale dealer must provide a copy of this Notice of Directory Changes to each retail dealer that is their customer within 7 business days from the date of this notice, November 10, 2017. Additionally, each wholesale dealer must provide the Department with a list identifying the business name of each retail dealer notified, the physical address for each notified retail dealer, what date they received a copy of the notice and how they received the notice within 7 business days from the date of this notice. The list shall be emailed to taxation-adminMSA@tax.state.nv.us. If no response is received by the Department within the 7 business days provided, the wholesale dealer will be found in non-compliance and this may result in the imposition of civil penalties.

After 60 days, a retail dealer may no longer sell the cigarettes which were removed from the Tobacco Directory. At the expiration of the 60-day period, the retail dealer must turn over possession of any unsold cigarettes to the Department for disposal.

Enclosed: NRS 370.073, NRS 370.675 & NRS 370.677

NRS 370.073 Wholesale dealer to maintain with Department current mailing and electronic mail addresses. Each wholesale dealer shall:

1. For the purpose of receiving any notification from the Department pursuant to this chapter, maintain with the Department:

(a) A permanent mailing address; and

(b) An electronic mail address.

2. Provide written notice to the Department of any change in the information specified in subsection 1 not later than 10 days after the change.

(Added to NRS by 2013, 2653)

NRS 370.675 Directory of manufacturers and brand families: Duties of Department; judicial review of exclusion from directory.

1. The Department shall create and maintain on its Internet website and otherwise make available for public inspection a directory that lists, except as otherwise provided in NRS 370.600 to 370.705, inclusive, all manufacturers of tobacco products that have provided current and accurate certifications conforming to the requirements of NRS 370.600 to 370.705, inclusive, and all brand families that are listed in those certifications. The Department:

(a) Shall not include or retain in the directory the name or brand families of any nonparticipating manufacturer that has failed to provide the required certification or whose certification the Department determines is not in compliance with NRS 370.600 to 370.705, inclusive, unless the Department has determined that the violation has been cured to its satisfaction.

(b) Shall not include or retain in the directory a manufacturer of tobacco products or brand family if the Department concludes, for a nonparticipating manufacturer, that:

(1) Any escrow payment required pursuant to chapter 370A of NRS for any period for any brand family, whether or not listed by the nonparticipating manufacturer, has not been fully paid into a qualified escrow fund governed by a qualified escrow agreement which has been approved by the Attorney General; or

(2) Any outstanding final judgment, including any interest thereon, for a violation of chapter 370A of NRS has not been fully satisfied for that manufacturer or brand family.

2. The Department shall update the directory as necessary to correct mistakes and to add or remove a manufacturer of tobacco products or brand family to keep the directory in conformity with the requirements of NRS 370.600 to 370.705, inclusive.

3. Any determination of the Department not to include in or to remove from the directory a manufacturer of tobacco products or brand family is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review.

(Added to NRS by 2005, 376)

NRS 370.677 Department required to notify wholesale dealer of certain changes to directory of manufacturers and brand families; duties of wholesale dealer upon receiving notice.

1. The Department shall notify each wholesale dealer when a manufacturer or brand family is added to or removed from the directory pursuant to NRS 370.675 by sending a notice to the mailing address or electronic mail address of the wholesale dealer provided to the Department pursuant to NRS 370.073.

2. A wholesale dealer shall, not later than 7 days after receiving a notice pursuant to subsection 1, provide:

(a) A copy of the notice to each retail dealer that is a customer of the wholesale dealer; and

(b) The Department with a list of each retail dealer to which a copy of the notice is provided pursuant to paragraph (a).

3. A retail dealer may, not later than 60 days after receiving a copy of a notice pursuant to subsection 2 that a manufacturer or brand family has been removed from the directory pursuant to NRS 370.675, sell any cigarettes in its possession from the manufacturer or of the brand family. The retail dealer shall, at the expiration of the 60-day period, turn over possession of any unsold cigarettes to the Department for disposal in the manner provided in subsection 4 of NRS 370.270.

4. A wholesale dealer shall not purchase cigarettes for resale from a manufacturer, or of a brand family, which has been removed from the directory by the Department, or for which the wholesale dealer receives a notice of removal from the Department, until the manufacturer or brand family is reentered in the directory by the Department.

I'll ask you a different question. If a wholesaler wants to return product, would you as a manufacturer always require that the product be sent back or would you allow the wholesaler to destroy it on site? This could be for damaged, stale, recalled, etc. product.

All,

Attached is Judge Freeman's order requesting that the parties set a hearing on NDF's pending motion to stay. We ask that the parties set the hearing as soon as possible. Kindly let us know what dates work for you all. NDF can be available on any day; except tomorrow, as Ms. Haar and I have an emergency hearing in federal court tomorrow afternoon that cannot be altered.

Kindly also let us know if the plaintiffs' side is amenable to a stipulated temporary stay pending Judge Freeman's ruling on the motion to stay, which he has now set for hearing. NDF believes that, especially considering the pending hearing on the motion to stay, no further discovery should proceed.

Please let us know your thoughts on the hearing date(s) that may work. Please also let us know your thoughts on a stipulated temporary stay in light of Judge Freeman's order to set the matter for hearing.

Hi All,

In anticipation of our January Uniformity meeting we're going to have a pre-call on Monday, November 27, 2017 at 1:30 EST. I just picked a time because we're up against the holidays so we don't have a lot of options.

Here's what we're looking at for the phone call:

1. Overview of Spokane and if anything worked well or did not work well

2. Each Sub Committee will discuss what they want on the agenda for their time at the San Antonio meeting

3. Each Sub Committee will be thinking of any documents they will need that have to be printed

4. Be thinking about two potential new additions to the Uniformity meeting structure

    a. Having a guest speaker type presentation. Cindy said motor fuels has a speaker at their Uniformity meetings on the last day, so I think it's something we could discuss, either Industry or a State or Vendor, just something to add so it's not us talking the whole time. We sort of inadvertently started this in Spokane with TMA presenting and I think it was a good addition.

    b. Consider a sub group of sub committees that would be subject matter experts. I'm thinking OTP, e-cigarettes, vendors, etc. They wouldn't necessarily present, but if there are any new committees or sub groups of people that we would want to include, now or in the later future.

5. Call in number is 855-306-6315, no pin required.

Thanks! Hope everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving.

Attorney General Laxalt Shuts Down Another Sham Website Seeking Donations to Benefit Victims of Las Vegas Shooting

Carson City, NV – Nevada Attorney General Adam Paul Laxalt continues to remove web pages and investigate reports of sham charities purportedly collecting donations on behalf of the victims following the horrific shooting in Las Vegas last week.

After receiving an alert from GoFundMe of a fraudulent donation website claiming to be affiliated with an existing campaign on the fundraising platform, Attorney General Laxalt's Bureau of Consumer Protection successfully worked with the website's host to remove the sham website. Last week, AG Laxalt's office successfully removed a Facebook page after receiving complaints from local consumers.

"It's heartwarming to witness the outpouring of support from Nevadans and individuals across the country," said Laxalt. "Unfortunately, there are also those who would exploit this tragedy for their own financial gain. Prior to donating, I encourage all consumers to carefully check the source of these campaigns."

For those who wish to donate through the fundraising platform GoFundMe, the website has compiled links to vetted campaigns on one web page: https://www.gofundme.com/helplasvegas. When using other fundraising platforms, the Office of the Nevada Attorney General offers the following suggestions to best ensure your donation benefits the victims and families of the Las Vegas shooting:

- Avoid any charity or fundraiser that asks for donations in cash or via wire transfer. Those that are unable to provide detailed information about their mission or organization and how donations will be used are suspect.

- Ask for detailed information about the charity, including name, address and telephone number. Then, conduct some online searches of the charity's name in combination with the words "complaint" or "scam" to learn about its reputation. Using online resources offered by the Better Business Bureau can also provide assurances about the trustworthiness of any particular charity.

- Review the charity's financial information or its Form 990. For information on the Form 990, visit the Nevada Secretary of State website. If a charity claims to use your donations to help the local community, contact the local agency and confirm whether the agency is familiar with the charity and receives financial support from it.

- Do not feel pressured into making an immediate donation by telephone or in person. The need for donations and the opportunity to give will be present for some time, and legitimate charities will not pressure you into making an immediate donation.

- Avoiding making checks payable to individuals. Also, avoid providing credit card, bank account or social security number information over the phone.

- When texting to donate, confirm the number with the source before you donate. The charge will show up on your mobile phone bill, but donations charges are not immediate.

- Be cautious of unsolicited charitable e-mails and attachments. An unsolicited e-mail is likely part of a scam, and any attachments may have a virus designed to steal financial or other personal information from your computer.

- Social media sites can also perpetuate scams. As with any other charity, take time to investigate the people behind any social media campaigns to ensure they represent a legitimate organization. Some sites, such as GoFundMe, take affirmative steps to ensure fundraising campaigns are vetted, donations are verified and complaints can be made to protect donors.

- Be wary of sound-alike names. Many sham charities intentionally use names that are easily confused with legitimate, respected charities.

Nevada consumers can file complaints regarding fraudulent charities with the Nevada Attorney General's office. Consumers may also file complaints with the Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection at the Family Assistance Center located at 3150 Paradise Road, Las Vegas, Nevada, inside the Las Vegas Convention Center. In addition, the FTC provides complaint assistance for anyone who suspects that a scammer is disguising itself as a charity.

Case #CV17-00225

Bill,

I am sorry you feel that way. Kindly let us know if you have already submitted your version of the draft order to Judge Freeman. If not, please let us know if you will also be sending along NDF and UNR's version, as well. We feel it is important to have a full record for any court considering this matter to review.

Subject: Pltfs objection to the Defts proposed order

Counsel;

Pltfs Counsel have had an opportunity to review the proposed order provided today by Defts. Unfortunately, we reject the same. The order is argumentative, raises issues not contained in the briefing or argument, contains extraneous information not relevant to the Court's order and frankly is unintelligible. Instead of providing a factual version of a simple court order the Defts are attempting to use the order to advance appellate theories in clear violation of the request of the court and the local rules of the Second Judicial Court.

HI! Great to hear from you, and thank you so much for your kind words. It really means a lot to me that you took the time to write this message. You are an excellent leader of Uniformity and I truly believe that the progress made to date is directly linked to your leadership. You made some of those "eye-rolling" meetings tolerable. It was a pleasure and an honor to work with you on Uniformity over the last 18 months, I only wish I could have contributed more to the effort.

Indeed, the announcement came out last week, so everyone here is in the know. I am looking forward to the next chapter in my book of life, but will really missed both the people and the work I love.

I would like to take a moment and tell you how much I really enjoyed getting to know you personally, and I agree we seemed to think similarly on many issues. The person replacing me on the committee is Alicia Wojno, (pronounced way-no) although, I don't think she has been informed of that yet. I think you will like her, and I believe she will fit into the team nicely. She comes from a strong analytical background, but also asks, at the time, what seems to be the obvious question that no one else has posed. Once she is informed, I will make sure she is well prepared to transition into the roll.

I hope when you come to Portsmouth, you will take some extra time and visit us, we would love to have you. If not, maybe we can hook up for drinks or a meal while you are in the area.

As always, I hope you know that if you have a question, or if there is something I can help with, I am only a phone call away.

Sissy

Hi Sissy!

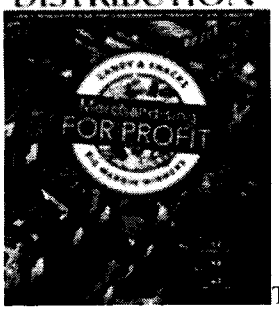

I figured by this time everyone must have been informed of your upcoming retirement ☺ ☹. So I wanted to reach out and see when your last day was going to be and how you were doing!

Also, I wanted to tell you that it's been really refreshing to work with you, even in a limited capacity, over the last year+. I was blown away with how you jumped right in to leading a workgroup, figured out what pieces you could bring to the group, and went forward with it. There were many times that you asked the questions I was thinking or raised the issues that I had written down. To me, you quickly figured out some of the basic questions that we needed to answer to get to where we want to be in the future (even if these haven't all been answered). Our brains were more in sync than you even know and because of that, I'm really going to miss you being part of this group.

This email doesn't do it justice, but just know that I haven't worked with a lot of people who have all the qualities that you have and make work easier and better!

I'll miss you and I hope you're doing well!

Hillary

FDA makes surprise announcements regarding nicotine, extends timeline for applications for newly regulated tobacco products

On an otherwise quiet Friday morning in July, FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb made the following significant announcements regarding FDA's regulation of tobacco and nicotine products:

- FDA will extend timelines to submit tobacco product review applications for newly regulated tobacco products that were on the market as of Aug. 8, 2016, as follows:
  - Applications for cigars, pipe tobacco and hookah tobacco will be due by Aug. 8, 2021
  - Applications for non-combustible products such as ENDS or e-cigarettes will be due by Aug. 8, 2022
  - The sunset provision for marketing during FDA's review of premarket applications will be lifted and manufacturers will be able to continue to market products while the agency reviews product applications
- FDA intends to issue Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemakings (ANPRMs) to:
  - Seek public comment on the role that flavors (including menthol) in tobacco products play in attracting youth and may play in helping some smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery
  - Solicit additional comments and scientific data related to the patterns of use and resulting public health impacts from premium cigars
  - Seek public comment on how to make combustible products less addictive or non-addictive
- FDA plans to examine actions to increase access and use of FDA-approved medicinal nicotine products, and work with sponsors to consider what steps can be taken under the safety and efficacy standard for products intended to help smokers quit.
- FDA plans to issue regulations outlining what information the agency expects to be included in:
  - Premarket Tobacco Applications (PMTAs),
  - Modified Risk Tobacco Product (MRTP) applications, and
  - Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.
- FDA plans to finalize guidance on how it intends to review PMTAs for ENDS.
- Dr. Gottlieb also indicated that FDA might reconsider whether to continue to use its resources to review certain pending provisional Substantial Equivalence (SE) reports.

This announcement contains encouraging news for CDA members, as the timelines for applications for newly regulated tobacco products are extended significantly, and FDA explicitly states that products can be marketed during the application process. FDA will be issuing ANPRMs on a number of issues, including "determining what role flavors play in attracting youth and may play in helping smokers switch to potentially less harmful forms of nicotine delivery, and making cigarettes less or non – addictive." In these instances, CDA will continue to monitor and report on FDA activity on regulation of tobacco and nicotine products, and will advocate on behalf of thorough, science based regulations beneficial to the Convenience Distribution industry and our industry partners.

Congress will recess without action on healthcare, looks to move on to tax reform in September

As Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) told the Senate last week "it's time to move on," the Senate has now turned to a series of judicial nominations to fill out the balance of their summer schedule in the absence of agreement on healthcare reform. The Senate is expected to recess on Friday, joining the House a week into their five week long summer recess.

Although there is some talk about another attempt at some manner of healthcare reform - a bipartisan Senate Health Education and Labor Committee hearing is being organized for September , and a bipartisan group of House members is Second, I hope this doesn't cause an issue, but Monday works better for dinner. The DAG from South Carolina is driving in and will be there really late Sunday night.

It will be Jonathan Williams from SC and Amber Logsdon from IN. We're hoping at least one other AGO will be there, but that's TBD.

Hi Reva,

Because the JCCR is in PDF format, I am providing the University's comments as follows:

1. I see you have checked "Yes" for requesting a discovery planning/dispute conference. The University does not see a need for either.
2. Proceedings prior to case conference report: Should there be a mention of the 13th suit that has been filed by the Zemke family CV17-01799?
3. Page 2, section G: Typo: NDR should be NDF.
4. Page 2, suggest inserting thtat the Joint Status Report was filed on 9/12/17.
5. Page 2, line 23: "C" should be "O". Also, David Houston and Eva Segerblom did not attend the ECC. Bryan Wright did, and Steve Shevorski and Theresa Harr attended by phone.
6. Page 5, line 10, should be 21 instead of C1 and the Laird Davis complaint should be included.
7. Page 5, line 13, should be 22 instead of 9.
8. Page 5, line 14, should be 23 instead of C2, and this paragraph also applies to the amended complaints filed in Blueberg, Primm and Auto Insurance of Hartford.
9. Page 5, line 17, Section C should be Section D.
10. Page 6, line 18, September 18, 2017 should be September 26, 2017.
11. Page 7, line 5: Exhibit 5 appears twice so this should be Exhibit 6. Thereafter, sections F through Q should be Exhibits 7 through 18 respectively.
12. Page 7, line 7: Date should be September 26, 2017 instead of the 25th.
13. Page 7, line 10: We never received initial disclosures from the Evans plaintiffs.
14. Page 7, line 28: Ash is referred to as Ganz elsewhere.
15. Page 8, line 17: Should be Exhibits 2-18. (See item 11 above)
16. Page 10, line 1: Please insert "expert" between "initial" and "disclosures" so that it reads (30 days after initial expert disclosures).
17. Page 10, line 2-3: According to the Joint Status Report, dispositive motions are to be filed 30 days after the discovery cut off.
18. Page 10, line 28: Scott Glogovac is attorney in CV17-01150 and CV17-01141.
19. Page 11, line 7-8, Bryan Wright's signature line: please delete "Attorneys for Plaintiffs in CV17-0150 and CV17-01141.

Thank you,
Gary

I know that we had a few suggestions on additional questions to be added to the booklet. Did we want to ask at the January meeting and vote to include them and send the questionnaire back out to states for updates, or were you all planning on sending the booklet out before the January meeting?
The only question I could remember is one that Helen and I ran into that Jerry brought up as well. It had to do with which states stamp little cigars and if so, do you allow a credit if the pack has less sticks than the stamp placed on the package.

Subject: TTIBS

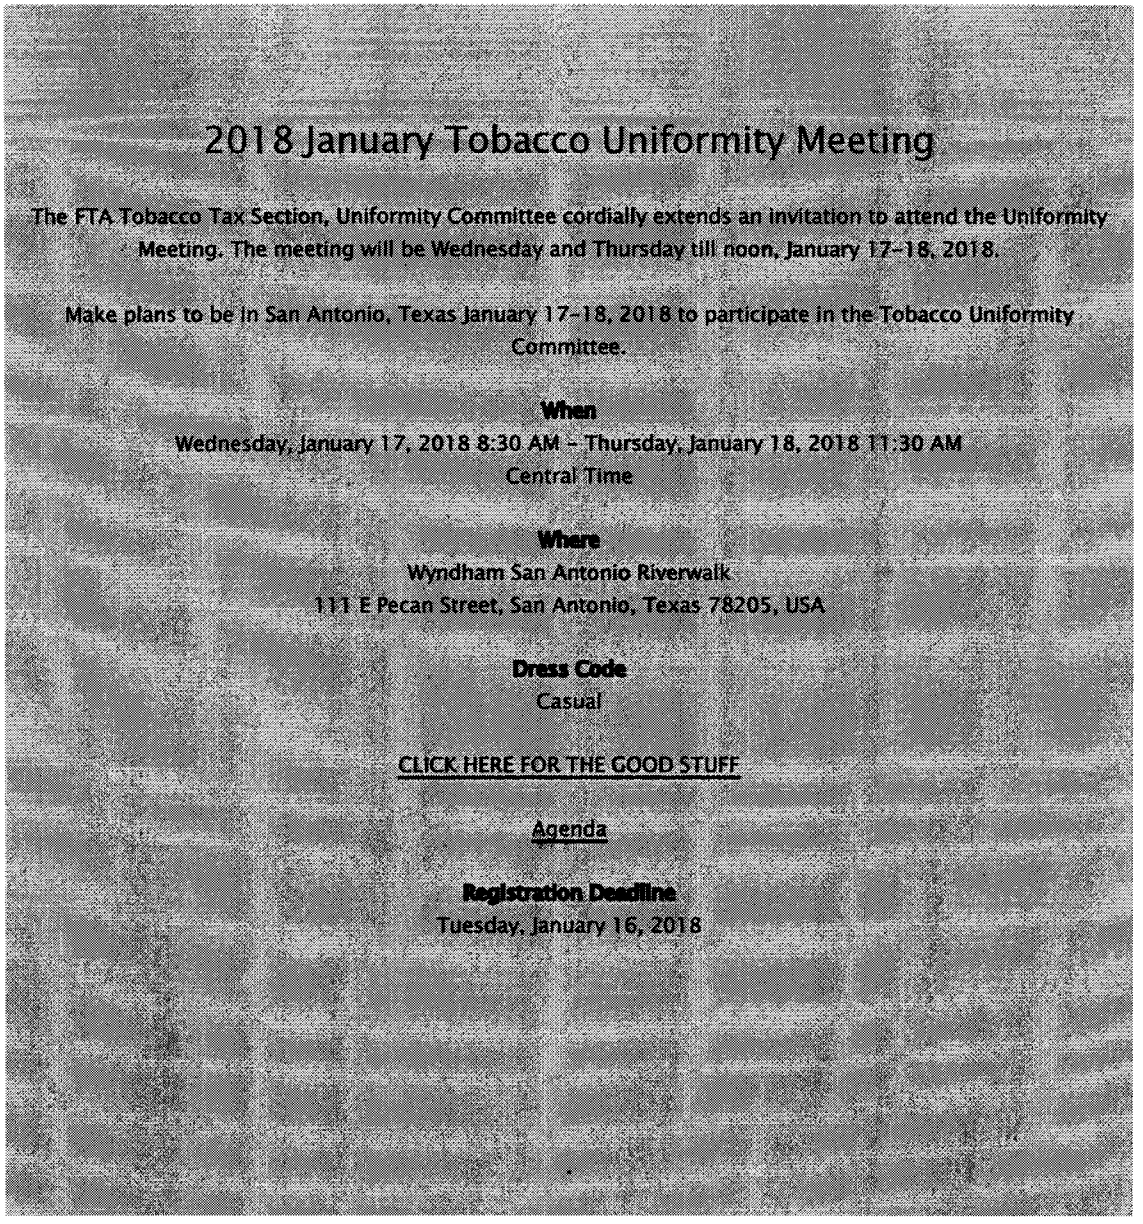

Hilary's e-mail reminded me that I had not sent you the latest and greatest TTIBS. Please see attached. Changes are outlined below.

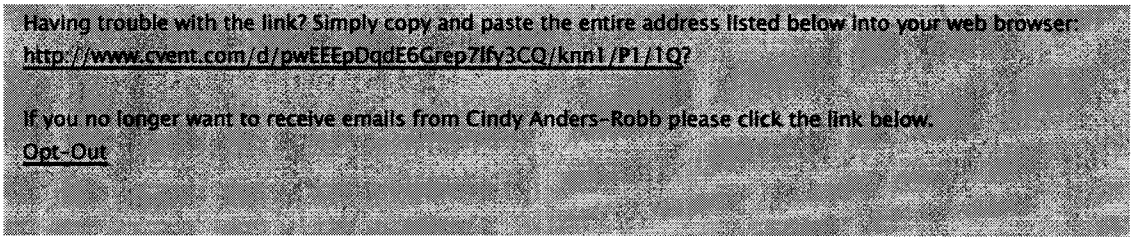

- TOC is in the footer section and found on each page. As a user I would want the ability to go back to the TOC on any page not just at the end of each state. To make it work it is a two click process. One click to get into the footer and then ctrl-click to make the hyperlink work.
- All sections contained in the document are outlined on P3
- A contact page was added in the document on P4.

Please let me know if you have any questions or feedback. Thank you!
